122nd of the General Assembly

VOL. 4.

HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, JUNE 19, 1917.

No. 72.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, June 19, 1917.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. E. E. Beidleman) in the Chair.

The Chaplain, Rev. Thomas W. Davis, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank Thee for this beautiful day and for the preservation of our lives. We thank Thee for the co-operation of the agriculturists and all others in making our soil rich and fertile and productive. We are grateful to Thee for the promise of very large crops which will be a great factor in the crisis created by this terrible war. We pray Thy blessing upon all the interests of our great country at this particular time. We ask these favors in our Saviour's name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. VARE, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 822, as follows

A Supplement to an act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen entitled "An Act to provide for the selection of a site and the erection of a State institution for the detention care and treatment of inebriates or persons habitually addicted to the use of alcoholic drink or intoxicating drugs to be called the State Institution for Inebriates and making an appropriation therefor" making an appropriation and providing for the admission of patients to said institution and providing for the payment of the costs and fees of hearings and of maintenance of patients by the respective counties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Commission appointed under the provisions of an act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws thirteen hundred and six) entitled "An Act to provide for the selection of a site and the erection of a State institution for the detention care and treatment of inebriates or persons habitually addicted to the use of alcoholic drink or intoxicating drugs to be called the State Institution for Inebriates and making an appropriation therefor" for the following purposes

For the purchase of additional land subject to the approval of the Governor as provided by the third section of the act to which this is a supplement for the use of said institution the improvement thereof and the laying of water mains sewers and drainage pipes the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary

For the construction and erection of the necessary buildings for the housing of the inmates as contemplated by the act to which this is a supplement and for the necessary administration buildings the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary

Section 2 As soon as buildings sufficient to care for fifty patients shall be available such buildings shall be turned over to the board of trustees provided for in the act to which this is a supplement and thereafter commitments to said institution may be made as contemplated by said act

The said board of trustees shall receive and care for such inebriates or persons habitually addicted to the use of alcoholic drink or intoxicating drugs as may be committed thereto by any of the courts of the counties of the Commonwealth having jurisdiction in such cases It shall be lawful for the husband wife parent guardian or other person standing in loco parentis to such person his or her next of kin the county commissioners or the overseers of the poor or the managers or trustees of any institution having such person in charge or the district attorney of the county in which such person shall reside to apply by petition to the proper court of the county in which such person shall be resident setting forth in said petition the age and resident of such person and the address of the petitioner praying for the commitment of such person to the State Institution for Inebriates which said petition shall be accompanied by a certificate made under oath after a personal examination of such person by a reputable physician with an experience of at least five years in the actual practice of his profession setting forth that such person is an inebriate or person habitually addicted to the use of alcoholic drink or intoxicating drugs and a proper subject for commitment to said State institution Thereupon the said court or a judge thereof shall appoint a day for the hearing of the said petition and shall cause notice thereof to be given to all parties in interest and if at the said hearing it shall be made to appear that said person is a proper subject for commitment to said State institution and that the best interests of said person or the welfare of society require such commitment the court shall make an order committing such person to the said State institution and direct his or her removal thereto by a proper officer or person at the cost of the said county

At the said hearing the said court or judge shall inquire as to the estate of such person committed and if the same be sufficient for the purpose shall make an order directing the payment therefrom of the cost of maintaining such person in said State institution otherwise that such payment be made by the husband wife or parent of such person if it appear that the circumstances of said husband wife or parent are such as to make such an order proper and advisable and any such order shall be enforceable in the same manner in which orders in desertion cases are now enforceable by law Where the estate of said person committed is insufficient and the circumstances of the husband wife or parent are not such as to warrant an order for maintenance on any of them the said person shall be maintained and cared for in the said State institution at the cost of the proper county

The costs of such hearing shall be paid by the county and the court may in its discretion allow a fee of five dollars ($5.00) to the physician making the examination and a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) to the attorney presenting the petition and appearing at the hearing which fee shall be paid by the county

The board of trustees shall cause to be kept an account of the expense of the support and maintenance of each person committed to the State institution with the county from which he or she was sent and bills for the same shall be forwarded periodically to the commissioners of the proper county deducting first from said bills any amount which has been received from the labor of the person so committed and it shall be the duty of the county officers to pay the balance due on said account within thirty days from the receipt of this statement

When in the opinion of the board of trustees it appears probable that the mental condition of any inmate of said institution has so improved that his or her release will be beneficial to such inmate and not incompatible with the welfare of society the said board may recommend the discharge of such inmate to the court committing him or her to said State institution which recommendation shall be accompanied by a record of the case of such inmate setting forth the date of his or her commitment the time of his or her detention the history of his or her case in the State institution and the opinion of the superintendent and medical staff as to his or her present mental condition whereupon the said court may in its discretion after hearing all persons desirous of being heard in the premises issue an order under the seal of the court upon the said board to discharge the said inmate from the said institution

"At the said hearing the said court or judge shall inquire as to the estate of such feeble-minded person and if the same be sufficient for the purpose shall make an order directing the payment therefrom of the cost of maintaining such person in said village otherwise that such payment be made by the husband or parent of such or feeble-minded person if it appear that the circumstances of said husband or parent are such as to make such an order proper and advisable and any such order shall be enforceable in the same manner in which orders in desertion cases are now enforceable by law Where the estate of said feeble-minded idiotic or epileptic person is insufficient and the circumstances of her husband or his or her parents are not such as to warrant an order for maintenance on either of them the said or feeble-minded person shall be maintained and cared for in the said institution at the cost of the Commonwealth

"The cost of such hearing shall be paid by the county and the court may in its discretion allow a fee of five dollars ($5.00) to the physician making the examination and a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) to the attorney presenting the petition and appearing at the hearing which fee shall be paid by the county

"The said board of trustees shall also receive all such or feeble-minded women as may be transferred to such institution from any other State institution by the Committee on Lunacy of the Board of Public Charities and the said Committee on Lunacy shall have authority to transfer any inmate of said institution to any other proper State institution

"When in the opinion of the board of trustees it appears probable that the mental condition of any inmate of said institution has so improved that her release will be beneficial to such inmate and not incompatible with the welfare of society the said board may recommend the discharge of such inmate to the court committing her to said institution which recommendation shall be accompanied by a record of the case of such inmate setting forth the date of her commitment the time of her detention the history of her case in the institution and the opinion of the superintendent and medical staff as to her present mental condition whereupon the said court may in its discretion after hearing all persons desirous of being heard in the premises issue an order under the seal of the court upon the said board to discharge the said inmate from the said institution" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 10 The said board of trustees shall receive and care for as inmates of said village such idiotic and feeble-minded women as may be committed thereto by any of the courts of the counties of the Commonwealth having jurisdiction in such cases as hereinafter provided and all such idiotic feeble-minded women may be transferred by the directors of any of the poor districts of any county of the Commonwealth as will be suitable inmates of the village It shall be lawful for the husband parent guardian or other person standing in loco parentis to such feeble-minded person her next of kin the county commissioners or the overseers of the poor or the managers or trustees of any institution having such person in charge or the district attorney of the county in which such person shall reside to apply by petition to the proper court of the county in which said idiotic or feeble-minded person shall be resident setting forth in said petition the age and residence of such person and the address of the petitioner praying for the commitment of such persons to the State Village for Feeble-Minded Women which said petition shall be accompanied by a certificate made under oath after a personal examination of such feeble-minded person by a reputable physician with an experience of at least five years in the actual practice of his profession setting forth that such person is an idiot or feeble-minded and a proper subject for commitment to said village Thereupon the said court or a judge thereof shall appoint a day for the hearing of the said petition and shall cause notice thereof to be given to all parties in interest and if at the said hearing it shall be made to appear that said person is of feeble mind and a proper subject for commitment to said village and that the best interests of said person or the welfare of society require such commitment the court shall make an order committing such feeble-minded person to the said State Village for Feeble-Minded Women and direct her removal thereto by a proper officer or person at the cost of the said county

At the said hearing the said court or judge shall inquire as to the estate of such feeble-minded person and if the same be sufficient for the purpose shall make an order directing the payment therefrom of the cost of maintaining such person in said village—otherwise that such payment be made by the husband or parent of such feeble-minded person if it appear that the circumstances of said husband or parent are such as to make such an order proper and advisable and any such order shall be enforceable in the same manner in which orders in desertion cases are now enforceable by law. Where the estate of such feeble-minded or epileptic person is insufficient and the circumstances of her husband or her parents are not such as to warrant an order for maintenance on either of them the said feeble-minded person shall be maintained and cared for in the said institution at the cost of the proper county.

The costs of such hearing shall be paid by the county and the court may in its discretion allow a fee of five dollars ($5.00) to the physician making the examination and a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) to the attorney presenting the petition and appearing at the hearing which fee shall be paid by the county.

The board of trustees shall cause to be kept an account of the expense of the support and maintenance of each person committed to the State Village for Feeble-Minded Women with the county from which she was sent and bills for the same shall be forwarded periodically to the commissioners of the proper county deducting first from said bills any amount which has been received from the labor of the inmate referred to and it shall be the duty of the county officers to pay the balance due on said account within thirty days from the receipt of this statement.

The said board of trustees shall also receive all such feeble-minded women as may be transferred to such institution from any other State institution by the Committee on Lunacy of the Board of Public Charities and the said Committee on Lunacy shall have authority to transfer any inmate of said institution to any other proper State institution.

When in the opinion of the Board of trustees it appears probable that the mental condition of any inmate of said institution has so improved that her release will be beneficial to such inmate and not incompatible with the welfare of society the said board may recommend the discharge of such inmate to the court committing her to said institution which recommendation shall be accompanied by a record of the case of such inmate setting forth the date of her commitment the time of her detention the history of her case in the institution and the opinion of the superintendent and medical staff as to her present mental condition whereupon the said court may in its discretion after hearing all persons desirous of being heard in the premises issue an order under the seal of the court upon the said Board to discharge the said inmate from the said institution.

licensee and the number of the license issued to him to the county treasurer before the fifteenth day of January of each year

Section 8 Any person becoming the owner after the fifteenth day of January of any year of any dog six months old or over which has not already been licensed or any person owning or keeping a dog which becomes six months old at any time after the fifteenth day of January of any year shall forthwith apply for and secure a license for such dog in the same manner as the annual license is obtained under the provisions of this act. If any such application is made at any time after the fifteenth day of July of any years the license fee shall be for each male or unspayed female dog one-half of the amount fixed as the annual license by county commissioners for male or spayed female dogs for each unspayed female dog one-half of the amount fixed as the annual license by the county commissioners for unspayed female dogs

Section 9 No license or license tag issued for one dog shall be transferable to another dog except as provided in sections eleven and twelve of this act. Whenever the ownership or possession of any dog is permanently transferred from one person to another within the same county the license of such dog may be likewise transferred upon notice given to the county treasurer. This act does not require the procurement of a new license or the transfer of a license already secured when the possession of a dog is temporarily transferred for the purpose of hunting game or for breeding trial or show in this Commonwealth

Section 10 Whenever any dog licensed in one county is permanently removed to another county the county treasurer of the county where the license was issued shall upon the application of the owner or keeper of such dog certify such license to the treasurer of the county to which the dog is removed. Such treasurers shall thereupon and upon the payment of a fee of twenty-five cents issue a license and tag for such dog in the county to which it is removed

This section does not apply to dogs used during the hunting season for hunting game or temporarily for breeding trial or show in the Commonwealth nor for the transportation of dogs for hunting breeding trial or show purposes the home county license holding good for such purposes throughout the Commonwealth

Section 11 Any person who keeps or operates a kennel may in lieu of the license for each dog required by this act apply to the county treasurer for a kennel license entitling him to keep or operate such kennel. Such license shall be issued by the county treasurer on a form prepared and supplied by the county commissioners and shall entitle the licensee to keep any number of dogs six months old or over not at any time exceeding a certain number to be specified in the license. The fee to be paid for each kennel license shall be five dollars for ten dogs or less and ten dollars for more than ten dogs permitted to be kept under the kennel licenses. With each kennel license the county treasurer shall issue a number of metal tags equal to the number of dogs authorized to be kept in the kennel. All such tags shall bear the name of the county issuing it the number of the kennel license and shall be readily distinguishable from the individual license tags for the same year

Section 12 The licensee of a kennel shall at all times keep one of such tags attached to a collar on each dog six months old or over kept by him under a kennel license. Such tags may be transferred from one dog to another within the kennel whenever any dog is removed from the kennel. No dog bearing a kennel tag shall be permitted to stray or to be taken anywhere outside the limits of the kennel

This section does not prohibit the taking of dogs having a kennel license outside the limits of the kennel temporarily and in leach nor does it prohibit the taking of such dogs out of the kennel temporarily for the purpose of hunting breeding trial or show

Section 13 Any person may bring or cause to be brought into the State for a period of thirty days one or more dogs for show trial or breeding purposes

Section 14 The county treasurer shall keep a record of all dog licenses and all kennel licenses and all permits issued during the year. Such record shall contain the name and address of the person to whom each license or permit is issued. In the case of an individual license the record shall also state the breed sex age color and markings of the dog licensed in the case of a kennel license it shall state the place where the business is conducted. The record shall be a public record and open to persons interested during business hours

Whenever the ownership or possession of any dog licensed under the provisions of this act is transferred from one person to another except the temporarily transfer of dogs for hunting purposes or for breeding trial or show as provided in section nine of this act such transfer shall be noted on the record of the county treasurer

Section 15 An accurate record of all license fees collected by the county treasurer or paid over to him by any justice of the peace shall be kept as a matter of information but all such funds shall be turned into the county funds. All moneys at present in the "dog fund" derived from taxation of dogs under the existing law shall be turned into the county fund. All bills incurred under this act or due at the time of the passage of this act shall be paid out of the county fund and any excess moneys collected under this act shall be used for other county purposes

shall annually at the time of assessing property as required by law make diligent inquiry as to the number of dogs owned harbored or kept by any person so assessed

The assessor shall annually on or before the thirty-first day of December make a complete report on a blank form furnished by the county commissioners to such commissioners setting forth the name of every owner of any dog or dogs how many of each sex are by him owned or harbored and if a kennel is maintained by any person such fact shall also be stated. It shall be the duty of the assessor at the time of making the assessment to notify the owner of such dog or dogs that he must obtain a license for the same as provided for in this act but the neglect or failure so to notify such owner shall not relieve the owner from his duty to obtain such licenses

Section 17 On and after the fifteenth day of January one thousand nine hundred and eighteen it shall be unlawful for any person to own or keep any dog six months old or over unless such dog is licensed by the treasurer of the county in which the dog is kept and unless such dog at all times wears the collar and tag provided for by this act or unless such dogs are temporarily brought into the State for breeding trial or show purposes

Section 18 It shall be the duty of every police officer to seize and detain any dog or dogs which bear a proper license tag and which are found running at large and unaccompanied by its owner or keeper. It shall be the duty of every police officer to kill any dog which does not bear a proper license tag which is found running at large. The chief of police or his agents of any city the high constable of any borough or the constable of any borough not having a high constable and the constable of any incorporated town or township shall cause any dog bearing a proper license tag and so seized and detained to be properly kept and fed and shall cause immediate notice either personal or by registered mail to be given to the person in whose name the license was procured or his agent to claim such dog within ten days. The owner of a dog so detained shall pay all reasonable expenses incurred by reason of its detention under the provisions of this section before the dog is returned

Section 19 If after ten days from the giving of such notice such dog has not been claimed such chief of police or his agent constable or high constable shall dispose of such dog by sale or by destruction in some humane manner. No dog so caught and detained shall be sold for the purpose of vivisection. All moneys derived from the sale of such dog after deducting the expense of its detention shall be paid to the county treasurer and by him placed in the county fund. For services under sections eighteen and nineteen of this act such officers shall be paid the sum of one dollar for detaining a licensed dog and the sum of one dollar for the killing of a dog. All expenses incurred under this act or the preceding section and not otherwise provided for shall be paid by the proper county

Section 20 For failure to perform his duty under the provisions of this act such police officer shall be liable to a penalty of two dollars for each offense which amount shall be deducted from any amount due such police officer from the county at any settlement between such officer and the county commissioners

Section 21 Any person may kill any dog which he sees in the act of pursuing worrying or wounding any live stock or attacking human beings whether or not such dog bears the license tag required by the provisions of this act. There shall be no liability on such person in damages or otherwise for such killing

Any unlicensed dog that enters any field shall constitute a private nuisance and the owner or tenant of such field or their agent or servant may kill such dog while it is in the field without liability or responsibility of any nature for such killing

Licensed dogs when accompanied by their owner or handler shall not be included under the provisions of this section unless caught in the act of worrying wounding or killing any livestock or attacking human beings

Section 22 All dogs are hereby declared to be personal property and subjects of larceny. Except as provided in section twenty-one of this act it is unlawful for any person except a police officer to kill injure or poison or to attempt to kill injure or poison any dog which bears a license tag for the current year

The House met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

The Chaplain, Rev. S. G. Zerfass, offered the following prayer:

Gracious God, be with us all at this time and give us an indwelling of Thy Holy Spirit, so that all that is said and done may finally bring us honor, and glorify Thy most holy name.

Teach us patience, meekness and forbearance, and imbue us with tolerant ideals so that we shall indeed live to be missed. "Truly Thy words with grace divine imbued bring to their sweetness no satiety."

May this beautiful morning inspire use with beautiful thoughts, holy aspirations and ennobling ambitions, never to be weary in well doing and save us all forever more. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the journal of yesterday's proceedings.

With information that the Senate has passed the same without amendment.

SENATE MESSAGE.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented the following extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, June 18, 1917.
Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 333, entitled An Act relating to the appointment of persons to the police department in cities of the third class providing for and regulating examinations the manner of appointments and the manner and power of removal of employes of said department and providing a method for fixing compensation, be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I understand that this bill has not yet been messaged to the Governor. If that be true the House cannot consider a resolution to recall it.

The SPEAKER. The bill has already been signed by the Speaker of the House and is now out of the possession of the House.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this is Senate Bill No. 333 introduced by Senator Craig of the Senate. This bill passed the House last week with a good, substantial majority. This bill was on the calendar for something like six weeks, nobody wanted to amend this bill while it was on the calendar of the House, nor while it was on the calendar of the Senate, and I really thought that there was a little bit more red sporting blood in the state Senate than there seems to be.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would much prefer if this Legislative body did not discuss the other Legislative body. That is not a point of order.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, there being no motion before the House, it seems to me that the gentleman from Lawrence is out of order.

The SPEAKER. This being a resolution from the Senate, asking for the concurrence of the House, the Chair would rule that the resolution is rightly under discussion.

Mr. WALLACE. Now Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, in the interest of fair play, why does anyone want to recall this bill? The sponsor of the bill in the Senate does not want in recalled, and he has no amendments to offer and as far as I have been able to learn, nobody else has any amendments that they want to offer to this bill. You men all realize that at this state of the deliberation of this General Assembly that the recalling of a bill from the Governor can have but one result, which is well known to everybody. It is only a polite way of trying to defeat this bill after it has been fairly and fully considered by the members of this House and passed by a good majority. Now in the interest of fair play let us vote down this resolution, let us be game, and we who have won a fair victory, let us have the result of our victory, and you who have lost in this fight, stand up and take your medicine like real men. There are reasons, and good reasons for reconsidering some bills when it so happens that a good bill comes up in this House when there is only a quorum, or very little more than a quorum present, then there is a good valid reason for reconsidering the vote on that bill, but when there was a full House present as there was here the day this bill passed, and when it was fully and fairly discussed on the floor of this House, and passed with a good majority, and when the purpose of this move is only to kill the bill, be fair and vote it down. The people who are interested in this bill want it, and there was a sufficient number of members in this House that wanted this bill and passed it. Now cannot we be big enough to let those who have succeeded in passing this bill have the fruits of their victory. It is every man's privilege, as a member of this House, to stand up and oppose or advocate any measure that comes before this House. It is our privilege and our duty to do all we can either to defeat or to pass a measure in accordance with our desire, but a move at this particular time, in this session, a move to recall from the Governor has only one purpose, and that purpose is neither fair, nor just, nor proper, nor courteous to the members of this House who favored and have passed this Legislation. Gentlemen, I ask you to be fair and to be big enough to stand by your guns stand by what we did last week which was fair, above board and in the open and defeat this resolution.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Wallace, has made a statement which I believe to be true in every sense, and that is that each man on the floor of this House has a right to oppose or advocate any measure in which he is interested, in the interest of fair play. In that same interest I am going to ask the members of this House to pass this resolution. I am not going to attempt to criticize any motive for the introduction of a recall resolution by the Senate, in which they ask the House to concur. I believe the Senate, in which that bill originated, ought to know what it wants, and what it is doing. It has passed a resolution to recall this bill from the Governor, and in that same interest of fair play, in which this House would expect the Senate to concur in a like resolution, I am going to ask the members of this House to pass this resolution in order that the bill may be recalled from the Governor as the Senate directs. I believe if any member of this House was interested in a measure, which had passed this House and passed the Senate and gone to the Governor, and then the members of this House had seen fit to offer amendments for the correction of errors, or for whatever purpose this House decided that the bill should be recalled, and they passed a resolution, we would then expect the Senate, in the same interest of fair play, to concur in the resolution. I hope that we will do as the gentleman from Lawrence asks us to do in fair play to the other branch of this Assembly, pass this resolution and recall the bill.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I do hope that as a matter of fair play this House will vote down this resolution. As was stated before, this bill was carefully considered in the Senate and no effort was made to amend it there. It was then brought to the House and no effort was made to amend it here on the floor of the House. It was carefully considered in the House, and after it was considered it was passed by a large vote. Now then this motion can have but one object in view, and that is to kill the bill. You will remember that this same trick was played two years ago with this same bill, and I think there are a lot of the older members here who will remember how it was killed two years ago. Not one member has come forward to tell us what the amendments are or what the object is. No one has told us what is intended to be amended. The only object in trying to bring this bill back now is to kill it, and we are all aware of the fact that the people the of the third class cities of Pennsylvania want this bill and want it badly, and that was shown by their vote here the other day. They want it, and I do hope that this House has red blood enough and manhood enough to put down their foot of disapproval on a motion of this kind. I think we are all manly enough to stand by our people. This bill was passed in good faith; it passed the Senate in good faith, it passed the House in good faith, and I do not think we ought to lay down and allow a resolution of this kind to go over merely for the object of killing the bill.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware has appealed to the sense of fair play in this House on the grounds that if a member of this House is interested in a bill, which having passed the House and the Senate he desires to recall the bill from the Governor for the purpose of correcting some small typographical or clerical error, that this House would expect the Senate to concur in such a resolution if passed by the House. That is a good statement of fact, but the truth is that the facts do not apply in this case. In the first place, I feel confident that while it is a Senate bill, the sponsor of the bill in the Senate has not been the source from which the desire to recall the bill has come; and in the second place, there has been no statements made on the floor of this House as to the reasons for which this bill should be recalled from the Governor. It justifies us in being suspicious of the purpose for recalling the bill. Now the opportunity is presented to this House to determine whether we stand upon our own feet or whether we are going to do what the Senate tells us to do without giving us any reason for their action or the action we should take. I take it gentlemen, that since no reason is adduced why this bill should be recalled from the Governor, no statement made as to the amendments to be offered, until this is done and until we are satisfied that there is some legitimate reason for it, we should view this with suspicion and vote against the resolution.

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, there has been a great deal said on the floor of the House about fair play. Both sides have called upon that very distinguished sentiment, fair play. Both sides have done that, and it remains for you and me, representing two hundred and seven men with sovereign rights and individual rights, to consider that, and I think that we may call upon another sentiment, and that is common sense. What is the common sense side of this proposition? Here is a bill which passed this House, having passed the Senate, by a good sized majority. We are now asked by the Senate to permit the recall of the bill. For what purpose? Has anybody disclosed to us in the waning days of this session why this resolution should be concurred in and why this bill should be recalled? Is it for the dotting of an "i" or the crossing of a "t" or the striking out of an "and" or the putting in of a "the" or a "whereas"? Is it not rather to put a hypodermic injection into this bill, so that when high noon arrives on the twenty-eighth day of June this bill will be found snoring loudly in the recesses of some committee? I say frankly, gentlemen, this resolution should be voted down here. The sponsor of this bill himself has no idea of what the amendments are that are asked for by his colleagues. What, indeed, is its purpose, but to kill the bill? It would be little less than a disgrace for this House to concur in this resolution of the Senate. I do not propose to criticize that body, but I do say that what they ask for should be asked for with all fair mindedness and sincerity. It is up to them to disclose to this House the amendments that they propose, and I think that the House will emphatically say that they agree with the proposition that the House is entitled to know, within a week of the closing of this session, just what amendments are proposed. I hope the resolution will not be concurred in.

Mr. BLACK. Mr. Speaker, I am interested in this bill because I believe that the almost unanimous sentiment of the City of Harrisburg was to have this bill passed. When I learned of this resolution to have this bill recalled for amendment, I went to the places this morning where they write out these amendments and asked if anything had been done there in the shape of framing the amendments to this bill—both to the Attorney-General's office and the Legislative Reference Bureau. They told me nothing had been done. I do not intend to criticise the Honorable Senate, but surely if their purposes were right, and if these amendments were right, that they intend to put in this bill, something would have been done, and I hope the members of this House will vote this resolution down.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Wallace and Mr. Black and were as follows:

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate which was read as follows, viz:

In the Senate, June 18, 1917.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 335, File Folio 173, entitled An Act to amend section two thousand thirty-four of article twenty of an act entitled "An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven by authorizing and empowering the State Board of Education to make purchases and sales of real estate for normal schools purchased by the State" be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution from the Senate?

It was not concurred in.

CERTIFICATE TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1288 SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER.

The SPEAKER. The Chair gives notice he is about to sign the following certificate which will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk read as follows:

We do hereby certify that House Bill No. 1288, entitled "An Act to reimburse certain counties for rewards and bounties heretofore paid by such counties in good faith for the destruction of noxious animals and birds, and directing the Auditor General to draw his warrant for the payment of the same," which has been disapproved by the Governor and returned with his objections to the House of Representatives in which it originated, was passed by two-thirds of the House of Representatives on the thirteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and the foregoing is the act so passed by the House.

R. J. BALDWIN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
THOMAS H. GARVIN,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

Harrisburg, June 19, 1917.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. The Chair declares a recess of five minutes to introduce to this House one of the best speakers that ever presided over a legislative body as Speaker, the Hon. George E. Alter. (applause)

ADDRESS BY HON. GEORGE E. ALTER.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House of Representatives, I appreciate the very kind and extraordinary introduction on the part of the Speaker. I also appreciate the limitation to five minutes; however, that will be ample.

It seems like home to be up here on the rostrum and this is just the kind of a gavel they finally got for me and which I was unable to break. Many of the expressions which the Chair had most frequent opportunity to use in 1913 still come automatically to my mind as, for instance, "Will the House agree to the section? It is agreed to;" or, quite frequently "The House will be in order;" (laughter) or "The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware." (laughter)

I was unable to resist the temptation to drop down for a day or part of a day to see the House before it adjourns. I hasten to say that I did not come down because of any pending legislation. I expect nothing and I expect to get it. I came as men go back to the school from which they have graduated, to visit the old place and meet old friends and new ones. They generally go back about the time the class is going to be graduated, always delighted to get back to the dear old place and generally mighty glad that they do not have to stay. The class is about to be graduated here. I know very little of its acquirements but I know that it has had a most diligent and capable instructor and I have no doubt its acquirements will measure up accordingly. I do not know whether the laws of this session will make a very large book or not, but I do know that the merit of a session of the legislature is not to be judged by the size of the book. The Legislature is often to be commended more for the things it refuses to do than for the things it does. The things it is asked to do are marvelous. A great many seem to have the impression that the function of a Legislature, the purpose for which it is created, is to enable people with fads to impose those fads upon other people.

There has been no legislation in which I have had any special interest except one group of bills which I naturally had an interest in and which have been passed and signed. The Legislature in 1915 passed a law providing that the Governor should appoint a commission of three to revise and codify the law on decedents' estates, and the Governor concluded, very properly, to appoint one judge of a separate orphans court and one judge of a county where one judge presides over all the courts, and one lawyer to represent the plain people; and after appointing to the first position a distinguished judge of the orphans court of Philadelphia and to the second position the very able judge of Blair County, he appointed me to the third position and we sent in a report that was accompanied by seven proposed acts the passage of which we recommended, and I take this opportunity on behalf of my colleagues, as well as on my own behalf, to express our appreciation of the fact that these seven bills passed without a single dissenting vote in either House. Either the members studied that report with great diligence or they exercised a great deal of faith. I hope they did not make many serious mistakes. I feel, in the nature of the situation, that they may have made some.

As I look over this House I see many old friends whom I am glad to see here, yet many whom I was accustomed to see here are not here. I regret the absence of many of them however well their places may be filled. Others, of course, some few, I can endure their absence with a greater degree of composure. It is saddening to think of the places where death has visited. Just a week ago I noticed that the House adjourned on account of the death of Harry Bass. I served with him in 1911, again in 1913 and I served with him on the commission which was appointed to look after the celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of Emancipation. I found him a man of ability, modesty and sincerity, a man whom I came to respect highly.

Earlier in the session you had a special session in honor of the memory of a young man for whom I had the most sincere affection. If I had known that session was to be held I certainly would have been present regardless of what engagements might have interfered. Of all the men I ever met here in public life there was never one who endeared himself to my heart more than Charley Roney, and as I read in the Legislative Journal of that special session the things which were truly and appropriately said of him then, I was glad that those things were consistent with that which I had said from this chair and from this floor in his lifetime and in his presence. We will seldom meet his like again.

And now, Mr. Speaker, not to keep the members from their calendars, in which they are naturally greatly interested as this session is about to close and the members are about to depart to their homes, to their business, to their war gardens or whatever may constitute their bit, the best wish I have for them is that they may carry away from here as pleasant recollections and as warm and valued friendships as it was my good fortune to accumulate while serving in this House. (applause)

AFTER RECESS.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The House will be in order.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. RICH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the resolution recalling Senate Bill No. 335 from the Governor for the purpose of amendment was not concurred in by the House today be reconsidered.

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the resolution for the information of the House.

The Clerk then read the resolution as follows:

In the Senate, June 18, 1917.
Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 335, File Folio 1473, entitled an Act to amend section two thousand thirty-four of article twenty of an act entitled "An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven by authorizing and empowering the State Board of Education to make purchases and sales of real estate for normal schools purchased by the State be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution from the Senate?

Mr. RICH. Mr. Speaker and fellow members, this bill was passed by the Senate and also by the House. It is a bill which originated in the Senate by W. B. Graeff and it is a bill that was desired by the State Board of Education so that they might make arrangements with one of our railroads to pass through or along the edge of the Normal grounds at Lock Haven. This bill was passed by both houses unanimously and went into the hands of the Governor, but the Governor and the Attorney General in looking over the bill discovered a few errors and before giving their approval to the bill desired that the bill should be amended. There is no opposition to this bill—no general opposition in any way, and this amendment is one that is already prepared and if it is desired, I am willing to read the amendment that is desired to be included in the bill. We asked that this bill be recalled from the Governor now and that this amendment be inserted in the bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the resolution from the Senate?

The resolution was concurred in.

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows, viz:

In the House of Representatives, June 18, 1917.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 1176, File Folio 8903, entitled "An Act providing for the establishment in cities of the first class of a house or houses of detention for witnesses and untried prisoners for the commitment of such prisoners and witnesses thereto and for the payment of the cost of establishing and maintaining the same by the county wherein said cities are situated" be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

House Bill No. 398

An Act relating to the collection of county taxes in cities of the third class providing for a notice of taxes due and providing for rebates and penalties on such taxes in certain cases.

With information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1, page 2, line 7, by inserting after the word "be" the words "delivered, left or."

Amend section 4, page 2, line 29, by inserting after the words "Section 4" the following:

"This act shall not apply to cities of the third class operating under a special charter and which have not accepted the provisions of the act of the twenty-third day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four in the manner prescribed in the fifty-seventh section thereof."

Amend section 4, page 3, line 5, by inserting after the word "all" the word "other."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. RININGER. Mr. Speaker, the amendments are satisfactory.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

House Bill No. 1074

An Act to amend an act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen entitled "An Act providing a system of government for boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" and repealing certain acts relating to boroughs.

With information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 20, page 15, line 18, by striking out after the words "de novo" the following: "But the figures and facts found and stated by the auditors in their report of audit shall be taken as prima facie correct" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"And the burden shall be upon each officer whose accounts are involved in the appeal of establishing by evidence from original sources his right to credits claimed by him but the opposing party in such appeal may use any facts figures or findings of the report of audit as prima facie evidence against any officer."

Amend section 23, page 17, line 28, by inserting after the words "debtor" the words "or creditor."

Amend section 23, page 18, line 25, by striking out after the words "against them" the following: "Any member of council voting for or any Burgess approving any illegal or improper measure shall be surchargeable in said audit with any loss resulting from such measure" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"The amount of any balance or shortage or of any expenditure of a kind or made in a manner prohibited or not authorized by statute or which causes a financial loss to the borough shall be a surcharge against any officer against whom such balance or shortage shall appear or who by vote act or neglect has made approved or permitted such expenditure."

Amend section 25, page 20, line 21, by striking out after the words "de novo" the following: "but the figures and facts found and stated by the controller in his report of audit shall be taken as prima facie correct" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"And the burden shall be upon each officer whose accounts are involved in the appeal of establishing by evidence from original sources his right to credits claimed by him but the opposing party in such appeal may use any facts figures or findings of the report of audit as prima facie evidence against any officer."

On page 28, after line 7, add new sections 34 and 35 as follows:

"Section 34 Section one article four of chapter seven of said act which reads as follows:

"Section 1 The auditors of the borough shall meet on the third Tuesday of January one thousand nine hundred and sixteen and annually thereafter and shall audit adjust and settle the accounts of the tax collectors and all officers of the borough Any officer whose act or neglect contributes to the financial loss of any borough shall be surcharged with the amount of such loss" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1 The auditors of the borough shall meet on the third Tuesday of January one thousand nine hundred and sixteen and annually thereafter and shall audit adjust and settle the accounts of the tax collectors and all officers of the borough The amount of any balance or shortage or of any expenditure of a kind or made in a manner prohibited or not authorized by statute or which causes a financial loss to the borough shall be a surcharge against any officer against whom such balance or shortage shall appear or who by vote act or neglect has made permitted or approved such expenditure.

Section 35 Article four of chapter seven is hereby amended by adding thereto after section sixteen the following sections to be known as sections seventeen eighteen nineteen twenty and twenty-one.

Section 17 The auditors of each borough or a majority of them shall have power to issue subpoenas to obtain the attendance of the officers whose accounts they are required to adjust their executors and administrators and of any persons whom it may be necessary to examine as witnesses and to compel their attendance by attachment in like manner and to the same extent as any court of common pleas of this State may or can do in cases depending before them and also to compel in like manner the production of all books vouchers and papers relative to such accounts such subpoena may be served by any person and such attachment shall be served and executed by the sheriff or coroner of the respective county or any constable of such county.

Section 18 The auditors of each borough or a majority of them shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to all persons brought or appearing before them whether accountants witnesses or otherwise and all persons guilty of swearing or affirming falsely on such examination shall be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury.

Section 19 If any person appearing before such auditors for examination shall refuse to take such oath or affirmation or after having been sworn or affirmed shall refuse to make answer to such questions as shall be put to him by the auditors touching the accounts or the official conduct of such public officers or any of them such person so refusing may be committed by a majority of the auditors to the county jail by warrant under their hands and seals directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county setting forth particularly the cause of such commitment until he shall submit to be sworn or affirmed or to make answers to such questions or be otherwise legally discharged.

Section 20 Witnesses other than officers of the borough attending before the auditors and persons or officers serving subpoenas attachments or warrants shall be paid out of the borough treasury upon orders signed by a majority of the auditors and drawn on the borough treasurer the same fees as are payable for rendering similar services in civil proceedings before a justice of the peace and the amount thereof shall be made a part of the charge against any officer who shall be charged by the auditors with any balance provided that any such costs shall have been incurred in establishing said balance and upon collection thereof from any officer shall be repaid into the borough treasury.

Section 21 If any person in possession of books vouchers or papers relative to public accounts before auditors shall refuse to produce the same or if any officer whose accounts are to be settled and adjusted by such auditors shall refuse to attend or submit to examination as is hereinbefore directed the auditors or a majority of them shall proceed by the examination of witnesses and other evidence to ascertain and settle as near as may be the amount of public money received by such officer and its application to public purposes or otherwise"

"Section seventeen of article one of chapter seven of an act entitled 'An Act providing a system of government for boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs' approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twelve) absolutely"

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

MOTION TO PRINT ADDRESS OF HON. GEORGE E. ALTER.

Mr. MEARKLE. Mr. Speaker, I would move that the remarks of ex-Speaker Alter be spread upon the Journal of the House.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. MCKAY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. MCKAY. Mr. Speaker, referring to the journal, the House Journal of the 11th of June, page 3407, on House Bill No. 1388, I am recorded as voting "no." I was not in the hall of the House, and did not vote either way. I desire the correction.

The SPEAKER. The explanation will be spread upon the Journal of the House.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I was just going to say that the ablibi presented by the gentleman did not seem to be sufficient. Where was he?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will rule the inquiry out of order. It is a statutory and unwritten law that no member has a right to compel another member to incriminate himself.

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1932 (Senate Bill No. 917), entitled

An act making available for expenditure during the two fiscal years beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen the sum of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars remaining unexpended from appropriation made by section two of an act of Assembly approved the eighteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1940 (Senate Bill No. 1203), entitled

An Act transferring the care custody and ownership of the Brig Niagara.

The first section was read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the care custody and ownership of the Brig Niagara now in the harbor at the City of Erie and its equipment is hereby transferred to the City of Erie The said city is hereby authorized to take such measures as to it may seem proper for the care and preservation of said ship Provided That if the said City of Erie refuses to accept said Brig Niagara and undertake to maintain it then the Centennial Celebration of the Battle of Lake Erie Commission in whose custody the Brig now is is hereby authorized to give it to any municipality or organization that is willing and appears to said Commission to be able to maintain and properly care for it or in its discretion to sink said Brig in the bay or lake near said City of Erie.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 1, line 13, by striking out all after the word "it." Line 14, strike out the whole line and insert in line 13 after the word "it" the following, "the said commission may also in their discretion tender the said Brig Niagara to the Damman Ship Commission as food for German submarines.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, a few years ago a large sum of money was appropriated for raising this brig and the latter part of this bill reads as follows: "Provided that if the said City of Erie refuses to accept said Brig Niagara, and undertake to maintain then the Centennial celebration of the Battle of Lake Erie Commission in whose custody the Brig now is is hereby authorized to give it to any municipality or organization that is willing and appears to said Commission to be able to maintain and properly care for it or in its discretion to sink said Brig in the bay or lake near said city of Erie." My amendments follow that.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules amendments are out of order.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The preamble and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Whereas The Brig Niagara to which Commodore Perry transferred his flag from the disabled ship Lawrence during the Battle of Lake Erie was raised during the year one thousand nine hundred thirteen from the bottom of Misery Bay an arm of Presque Isle Bay at Erie and restored to the condition it was in at the time of the Battle of Lake Erie and

Whereas The said Brig Niagara is the property of the Commonwealth and provision should be made for the proper care thereof therefore

An Act transferring the care, custody and ownership of the Brig Niagara to the City of Erie.

An Act to authorize the acquisition by purchase or condemnation of lands for a park and the erection of a monument commemorative of Washington crossing the River Delaware and for the appointment of a commission to acquire said lands and erect such monument and making an appropriation for the purpose of this act

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That for the purpose of perpetuating and preserving the site on which the Continental Army under the command of General George Washington was assembled and from which they crossed the River Delaware on the night preceding the Battle of Trenton December twenty-five one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six the title to and ownership in the ground covering said site and the adjoining grounds not exceeding one hundred acres the location and boundaries thereof to be fixed by the commissioners hereinafter provided for shall be vested in the State of Pennsylvania to be laid out preserved and maintained forever as a public place or park by the name of Washington Crossing Park so that the same and monuments thereof may be maintained as nearly as possible in their original condition as a military camp and may be preserved for the enjoyment of the people of the State

Section 2 There is hereby constituted a commission to carry out the purposes of this act to be comprised of the Governor who shall be ex-officio president and ten citizens of the State to be appointed by the Governor for the term of five years and who shall constitute the commissioners of said park As often as a vacancy occurs either by expiration of term or otherwise the Governor may fill said vacancy either for another term of five years or for the unexpired term as the case may be. Said commission shall organize within thirty days after the passage of this act and annually thereafter and may appoint a secretary and other officers but they shall not receive compensation for their services as commissioners.

Section 3 The owners of the ground appropriated by the first section of this act for public purposes shall be paid for the same by the State of Pennsylvania according to the value which shall be ascertained by a jury of three disinterested freeholders to be appointed by the court of quarter sessions of the county in which said grounds lie upon the petition of the said commissioners and if the said commissioners shall delay petitioning as aforesaid for the period of sixty days after notice is given of their taking possession of said ground then said jury shall be appointed upon the petition of any person whose property shall be so taken. Provided however That in any case the said commissioners may negotiate and agree with the owners of any part of said grounds as to the price thereof and said price shall be reported to the court of quarter sessions and if approved and confirmed by said court shall be binding on the State and shall be paid for upon proper conveyances being made. And provided further That whenever it shall be necessary to have recourse to a jury to assess the damages for any property to be taken as aforesaid the said jury shall proceed and their award shall be reviewed and enforced in the same manner as now provided by law in the taking of land for the opening of roads in said county and the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated for the purchase of condemnation money of said lands and for the necessary expenses incident thereto.

Section 4 The commissioners of the said park after they shall have secured possession of the said grounds shall adopt plans for the improvement preservation and maintenance thereof and shall have power to carry the same into execution and all moneys expended shall be under their supervision but no contracts shall be made for said improvement unless an appropriation therefor shall have been first made by the Legislature.

Section 5 After the said premises shall have as aforesaid passed into the possession of the Commonwealth they may at any time or times hereafter be used as a camping ground for the National Guard of Pennsylvania. Whenever the Governor acting as Commander-in-Chief shall direct said commissioners to open the grounds and park for the accommodation of the said guard or any portion thereof it shall be the duty of the commissioners to make all necessary arrangements for such camps to provide for sufficient water supply and drainage and during such camps to relinquish to the commanding officer for the time being all police patrol over and through the said park and grounds.

Section 6 Payment of money authorized herein shall be made on warrant of the Auditor General upon order of the chairman of the commission under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Auditor General.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time on page 55 of today's postponed third reading calendar, House Bill No. 1800, File Folio 7339.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1800, entitled

An Act to establish as a State highway a certain section of public road in the County of Beaver and the County of Washington.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill adding additional mileage to the State highway, and why it is not one of the fifty-two that were reported out of the Public Roads Committee, I am unable to state. Nevertheless, in view of the condition of the Highway Department at the present time, and in view of the scarcity of revenue, and furthermore, if this log-rolling process to get highways in the different parts of the State is allowed to proceed, there will be an unlimited number of roads created, and I believe that this bill ought not to pass. It is opening the door to something that the State cannot stand for in the present condition of its finances. Every one agrees that if the State highway of five thousand miles were increased to ten thousand miles, the State as well as the communities would be better off. Every man here has heard complaints against the State Highway Department in his district, against the conditions. The State Highway Department replies that it hasn't any money, and now there are bills on this calendar, adding five hundred and ninety-two miles—in round numbers six hundred miles—to the system. This is the first one to come before us, and I trust the House will not pass the bill.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, this is an act to make a certain section of a highway between Beaver and Washington counties a State Highway. This proposition only covers a short stretch of road of the distance of three or four miles in length. In addition to this, it connects two main trunk lines which have already been declared State highways, the one leading from the National Pike at Washington by the way of Washington and Burgettstown to the town of Beaver over in Beaver County, and there that will connect with this Erie road. In addition to this trunk line which I have just mentioned, there is another running east and west through the southern part of Allegheny County and across Beaver County, which connects with a brick road which has been built by West Virginia to the Pennsylvania State line. It is alleged that when West Virginia built this brick road, at a great expense, to the State line of Pennsylvania, that the Highway Department of this State agreed that this road between Frankford and the Mount Hebron Church, which is in the town of Clinton, in Allegheny County, should be connected up. If this short stretch is built or taken over by the State Highway Department, it will connect the City of Pittsburgh by way of Carnegie and Imperial with the towns of Chester and other towns in West Virginia and the town of East Liverpool, in Southern Ohio, on the Ohio river. This route I personally know from the fact that I spent some weeks in that district, and I know it is one of the greatest thoroughfares traveled in the western part of Pennsylvania. In addition to this, it opens up a section of the country to the markets of the Ohio river, it opens up Coraopolis as well as Pittsburgh. Furthermore, this road lies right in the line of Beaver and Washington Counties, and it is utterly impossible to get any uniformity of action between the townships of Hanover and the township of Beaver to take this road and construct it. Another feature is that it will not cost very much to put it in condition. So far as the money or appropriation is concerned, this House as well as the Senate have been liberal in the matter of appropriations to the Highway Department. In addition to this, the State ought to connect up these trunk lines and build them. You cannot leave them to or depend upon local conditions and the local authorities to connect up these thoroughfares.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I have no doubt that every member of this House who has a road bill and every member of this House who has public roads in his county, can give excellent reasons for putting the maintenance of these roads on the State, and I have no doubt that if he succeeded in getting all of the public roads of the State in his county, that he would be popular at home, but there is a county act which permits counties to build highways; from what I have heard on other occasions with respect to the wealth of the county of Washington, being a great agricultural county, a coal county, a great producer of oil and gas, it does seem to me that Washington County could well follow the County of Allegheny and make this highly necessary three or four miles of road at the expense of the county, and not overburden the State Highway Department with more roads than it has now, more than it can take care of properly, and more than it has money to maintain.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, Washington County has done its bit so far as appropriating money to the building is concerned. We have already reached our constitutional limitation so far as increasing our indebtedness is concerned for public roads, and Beaver County has gone to the limit just recently and added to its debt for the purpose of taking care of its highways.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON RULES.

Mr. RAMSEY presented the following report from the Committee on Rules and moved its adoption:

Resolved, Hereafter the order of the calendar of the House shall be arranged as follows: Revenue Bills first; Appropriation Bills second; Senate Bills third on all readings.

WILLIAM T. RAMSEY,
JAMES J. HEFFERNAN,
JOHN N. FLYNN,
WILLIAM J. McCAIG,
Committee on Rules.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the committee?

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this resolution is presented at this time to take effect tomorrow, after we have gone over the proposition thoroughly, and I feel assured that if the members of the House will vote for this resolution that every important measure on the calendar will be taken care of with another resolution which will follow this. I think that all interests will be thoroughly and perfectly taken care of, if this resolution can go through at this time, which is a similar resolution to one which will be presented in the Senate giving our bills preference beginning to-morrow, and also acting in accord with the other thought that is in the mind of the Committee on Rules. I think that the House ought to pass this resolution, guaranteeing that the important measures that are on the calendar, the House measures, will be taken care of before we close the session this week.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to disagree with my good friend from Delaware, but the members of the House are not mind readers.

When I was absent on account of sickness, one of the most important bills, to my mind, on this calendar that had passed the House and had passed second reading in the Senate was recalled and it has been on that calendar ever since and I am one that is going to fight to have that bill hold its place on the calendar. If we do not reach it, it will not be because, as far as I am personally concerned, of any bills being advanced ahead of it, and that is the bill for the raising of teachers' salaries. It was an unfair proposition to have it recalled during my absence, but I submit to that, but I shall not submit to any measure that will demand of me the reading of any committee's mind in order to have that crowded off the calendar and I hope the members will vote this resolution down.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, I consider this recommendation of the Committee on Rules very unfair. Understand, there is nothing personal in it. I do not have a bill of my own on the calendar and none that I am deeply interested in and it is only in the spirit of all that is fair. We have gone on record as being opposed to placing any bill on special privilege or special order. We voted that down twice and decided that each bill have its place on the calendar in fairness to all. This is to set aside all House bills and give the Senate bills preference. I think that we have toadied enough to the Senate without doing anything more. There are some good bills on the calendar. They tell us that they will bring another rule of order that will give the House bills a chance. I think they had better bring in one that will give the Senate bills a chance and let the House bills have the chance they now have on the calendar. I think that the recommendation of the committee should be voted down.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I believe that this resolution is very unfair. There have been some very important measures left on these calendars for weeks and weeks that the people of this State have been clamoring for action on. I wish to state for the people in the anthracite coal fields once more to you and I want to make this plea, that you will take the House calendar and go through with it. I have said here before that our homes in the anthracite coal field, our lives in the anthracite coal field, my friends, are in danger at all times, and there is not a Representative here from the anthracite coal fields but what is being crucified because of the sleepiness of this House of Representatives.

We have been in hopes of seeing the mining companies' bills put through this House this week. The obligations of the Republican Party have been at all times that they are going to give the people in those sections fair legislation. A million and a quarter of people are demanding this legislation every day from you. Our children are going into the schools every day. We have laws in this State that say we must send our children to school, whether their lives are in danger or not. I will have something to say in regard to these bills if we are given a fair chance to have them brought before this House. I say to you, my friends, in all fairness, to the people in the coal fields that you should see that this House takes action upon these bills. Never mind the Senate bills; let them take their course. Give us a square deal. We stand here now demanding of you to see that the people in that locality are given a square deal. I therefore hope that this House will vote down the resolution.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, it seems to me that this resolution would put the bridle on the wrong end of the horse. We all know that if a House bill is not passed this week that it has no chance of passage at all, and we do know that the Senate bills that are still before us can be passed next week and will have a chance with the Governor. It seems to me that this resolution should be turned around and that all House bills should have preference this week, and just leave the Senate bills for next week, because the Senate bills can be passed here and will still have a fair chance of final passage. But if the House bills are retarded and shoved aside now they are as well as dead and they will have no chance of passage at all after this week. What is the use of passing a House bill next week when it has no chance to get through the Senate? It seems to me, therefore, that this resolution should be reversed, and that we ought to give the House bills the preference this week and let next week be set aside for the Senate. I hope this resolution will be voted down.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, there seems to be in the minds of the members of the House the idea that it makes some difference to the Rules Committee as to what will be done. As Chairman of the Rules Committee, I desire to state that I assure you it does not. We presented the report of the Rules Committee after we had gone into the matter with both Houses. If this House does not want the report as presented, what is the use of talking about it? Just vote it down; it does not hurt me personally. I am only trying to do what you expect me to do as Chairman of the Rules Committee; it is up to you to decide, so what is the use of talking about it.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Ramsey, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would like the Chairman of the Rules Committee of the House, in order that we may intelligently act on this resolution, which it is proposed to pass now, to state what is proposed to be presented later, unless there is some reason—some very important reason why we should not be informed of it?

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, we will dispose of the nature of the resolution which is to be presented, probably before the session is over this afternoon or this evening, which will take care of the important House bills yet remaining on the calendar before the week is out. That is as much as I can answer.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I don't think that the Chairman of the Committee on Rules has clearly informed us as to how the important House bills are to be taken care of.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, we cannot inform the gentleman as to what House bills would be taken up; that would be a matter to go into through conference with the members of the House. It does not make any difference to me, as I said before. We are doing this to sustain the custom of the House every year of these sessions.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Ramsey.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Ramsey, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, surely.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, by whom and in what manner is the question to be determined as to what are the "important House bills"?

Mr. RAMSEY. The House itself, after the resolution has been presented and accepted as reported by the Committee, can take action on the important House bills.

Mr. G. W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I ask for the second reading of the recommendation of the Committee on Rules.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will again read the resolution.

The Clerk then again read the resolution.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Tioga will understand that the bills will be called up in their order unless otherwise ordered.

The SPEAKER. The House can do that at any time. I might say to the members of the House that the practice of giving these bills preference which have been passed in the Senate at a certain period before the close of the session has been the custom and a like custom has always prevailed in the Senate of giving the bills that have received consideration in the House the right at each session. The practice has been that all bills of importance can be taken up and given a special order, and the House can agree to certain rules and consider a number of bills under special order. The Chair does not want to dictate or suggest what the House should do in this matter, but the Chair does say to the members of the House that this has always been the practice in the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania in his experience.

Mr. BENCHOFF. Mr. Speaker, I move that the resolution be laid on the table.

Mr. HEILT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that a vote has been taken on the original resolution, a division has been called for and another motion cannot prevail at this time.

The SPEAKER. Is the motion by the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. BENCHOFF, to lay the call for a division on the table?

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I am raising a point of order on the division.

Mr. BENCHOFF. Mr. Speaker, my motion is to lay the resolution on the table.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee?

Mr. BLACK. Mr. Speaker, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will call the roll. Those who vote "aye" vote to adopt the report of the Committee on Rules; those who vote "no" to defeat the report.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The roll was verified as follows:

POINT OF INFORMATION.

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of information.

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire of the Chair whether the Chair understands that by the action of the House the priority of appropriation bills is done away with on the calendar.

The SPEAKER. The rule, by the decision of the House, has not been altered other than the position they were in last week.

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, I now move that in the order of business on the calendar each day revenue bill shall be first, appropriation bills second, and the balance—

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to state that he would be glad to except any suggestions that the gentleman desires to make to the Chair in writing.

Mr. STITES offered a motion which was read by the Clerk as follows:

Moved by the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Stites, seconded by the gentleman from Union, Mr. Showalter, that after June 19th, 1917, in the preparation of the daily calendar, revenue bills shall be placed first, appropriation bills second, and other bills in order.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, we have consumed nearly an hour in discussing a resolution that had to do with the order of business of the House. The resolution was presented by the Rules Committee. The House in its wisdom saw fit not to adopt that report. I think the proper place for a motion of this kind is with the Rules Committee.

I therefore move that this motion be referred to the Rules Committee.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to state to the House that his impression is that the resolution offered by the gentleman from Montgomery is identical with the rules of the House we will be working under, if there is no action taken upon it on the part of the House.

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, if that is the case, I will be very glad to withdraw my motion.

The SPEAKER. That is the impression of the Chair.

Mr. STITES. My only thought, sir, in offering the motion was to see to it that revenue bills, and appropriation bills should have the proper preference.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my second.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Bill No. 1639, File Folio 5747, page 56 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed for the present.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1639, entitled

An Act to amend section six hundred seventeen of an act, entitled "An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith," approved the eleventh day of May, Anno Domini nineteen hundred and eleven, and providing for the construction, re-construction or repair of school buildings, or work upon school property within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by contract, where the cost, value or amount of same, including labor and material, exceeds the sum of three hundred ($300) dollars.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ARON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor explain the provisions of this bill.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this bill pertains to the school boards of cities of the first and second class. As the matter now stands these school boards have a right to enter into any contracts for any sums whatsoever, whether the sum be five thousand, six thousand or seven thousand dollars, without advertising for bids. This bill provides that any separate contracts for any particular work done in and about a school building that runs to three hundred dollars or more shall be advertised and let out upon contracts.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Aston,

Bovee,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. GOODWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Bill No. 1304, File Folio 5693, on page 55 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed for the present.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1304, entitled

An Act to amend section twelve of an act approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred seventy-six entitled "An Act for the incorporation and regulation of banks of discount and deposit."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I would like the sponsor to explain the bill.

Mr. GOODWIN. Mr. Speaker, this bill amends the Act of 1876 by requiring that at least two-thirds of the board of directors in banks of deposit and discount shall be citizens of the State of Pennsylvania. Under the Act of 1874, amended by the Act of 1887, it is only required that one-third of the board of directors of trust companies shall be residents of Pennsylvania; but this bill requires that two-thirds of the board of directors of banks of deposit and discount shall be citizens of Pennsylvania. I took this bill up several times with the Banking Department and they have no objections to the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON SECOND READING.

The Chair desires to call the attention of the House to House Bill No. 2048, on page 67 of to-day's calendar of bills on second reading. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Woodward, called attention to the fact that this is a revenue bill and should have been on the calendar of revenue bills. If there is no objection, the House will take this bill up on second reading now. The Chair hears no objection.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2048, as follows:

An Act to amend an act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen entitled "An Act providing for the creation and administration of a State Fund for the insurance of compensation for injuries to employees of subscribers thereto declaring false oaths by the subscribers to be misdemeanors and providing penalties for the violations thereof"

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section six of an act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred sixty-two) entitled "An Act providing for the creation and administration of a State Fund for the insurance of compensation for injuries to employees of subscribers thereto declaring false oaths by the subscribers to be misdemeanors and providing penalties for the violation thereof" which reads as follows

"Section 6 The said board shall determine the amount of premiums which the subscribers to the fund shall pay and shall fix the premiums for insurance in accordance with the nature of their business and of the various employments of their employees and the probable risk of injury to their employees therein and they shall fix the premiums at such an amount as shall be adequate to enable them to pay all sums which may become due and payable to the employees of such subscribers under the provisions of article three of the Workmen's Compensation Act of one thousand nine hundred fifteen and to create and maintain the surplus provided in section nine of this act and to provide an adequate reserve sufficient to carry all policies and claims to maturity in fixing the premiums payable by any subscriber the board may take into account the condition of the plant work-room shop farm mine quarry operation and all other property or premises of such subscriber in respect to the safety of those employed therein as shown by the report of any inspector appointed by the board or by the Department of Labor and Industry and they may from time to time change the amount of premiums payable by any of the subscribers as circumstances may require and the condition of the plant work-room shop farm mine quarry operation or other property or premises of such subscribers in respect to the safety of their employees may justify and they may increase the premiums of any subscriber neglecting to provide safety devices required by law or disobeying the rules or regulations made by the board in accordance with the provisions of section fifteen of this act The insurance of any subscriber shall not be effective until he shall have paid in full the premium so fixed and determined" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 6 The said board shall determine the amount of premiums which the subscribers to the fund shall pay and shall fix the premiums for insurance in accordance with the nature of their business and of the various employments of their employees and the probable risk of injury to their employees therein and they shall fix the premiums at such an amount as shall be adequate to enable them to pay all sums which may become due and payable to the employees of such subscribers under the provisions of article three of the Workmen's Compensation Act of one thousand nine hundred fifteen and to create and maintain the surplus provided in section nine of this act and to provide and adequate reserve sufficient to carry all policies and claims to maturity In fixing the premiums payable by any subscriber the board may take into account the condition of the plant work-room shop farm mine quarry operation and all other property or premises of such subscriber in respect to the safety of those employed therein as shown by the report of any inspector appointed by the board or by the Department of Labor and Industry and they may from time to time change the amount of premiums payable by any of the subscribers as circumstances may require and the condition of the plant work-room shop farm mine quarry operation or other property or premises of such subscribers in respect to the safety of their employees may justify and said board shall have power to lay and collect additional premiums when found necessary to meet the demands of said fund and they may increase the premiums of any subscriber neglecting to provide safety devices required by law or disobeying the rules or regulations made by the board in accordance with the provisions of section fifteen of this act The insurance of any subscriber shall not be effective until he shall have paid in full the premium so fixed and determined

Section 2 That section eight of said act which reads as follows

"Section 8 The expenses of the organization and administration of the fund shall until the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen be paid by the State out of funds hereinafter appropriated therefor" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 8 The expenses of the organization and administration of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund in excess of the amount appropriated directly for that purpose shall be paid out of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL RECOMMENDED.

Mr. McCAIG offered the following motion, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

Moved by Mr. McCaig, seconded by Mr. Sullivan, that House Bill No. 1924 (Senate Bill No. 1183), entitled on page 9 of to-day's calendar of appropriation bills on second reading be recommitted to the Appropriations Committee for the purpose of amendment.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1830 (Senate Bill No. 878), entitled

An Act fixing the fee for services of jurors summoned by the sheriff of any county having a population of over five hundred thousand and not more than one million four hundred thousand inhabitants under writs of inquisition condemnation inquiry of damages lunacy and habitual drunkard proceedings or under writs or process issued directing inquests.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

NAYS—5.

Campbell, J. O. McVicar,	Mervine.	Phillips,
Walter.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 238, entitled

An Act to regulate advertisements for employes during strikes or lockouts of a general or public character.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BIDEISPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill explain the purpose of it.

Mr. MANGAN. Mr. Speaker, this is an act to regulate advertisements for employes during strikes or lockouts of a general or public character. When people apply for a position among the employment agencies when advertisements appear in papers they are told at various times that there is no trouble existing in the plants that are applying for men and after that they are sometimes taken away as far as three or four hundred miles from home in the dark of the night into the various plants only to find that they are engaged to take the places of men who are on strike. If they refuse to go to work they are turned down and out penniless, and the only means they have to get back home is through the protection of other men who are engaged in the strike or walk back. This does not create any hardship on the employer. He has the same right to advertise for men as he has at all times, but he should be made to tell the truth in advertising for these men. I ask the gentlemen of the House to support this measure.

Mr. BIDEISPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Mangan.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Mangan, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MANGAN. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. BIDEISPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I noticed that in the title of the act it refers only to strikes and lockouts of a general or public character. I would like to know when a strike is of a public character or not and whether there are any other kind of strikes that would not come under the provisions of this bill?

Mr. MANGAN. Mr. Speaker, the bill was amended to read that way, in the committee by the sub-committee.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I sympathize with any person who would find himself or herself in such a predicament as my friend from Allegheny speaks of. I would be very sorry for anybody who would go from two to three hundred miles away from home and find then when lured away on a promise that he could not get back. But I think that this bill should be truly and honestly explained to this House before the House considers it and before a vote is taken upon it. This bill provides that where there is a public or general strike the person, firm or corporation operating that plant shall not be allowed to advertise for help. Now, in the first place, Mr. Speaker, it is a question as to when a strike is constituted, because this bill does not provide for that, or that when a strike is called it shall be a strike asked for or ordered by the labor union. It may be authorized in a plant of five hundred people or by three or four people of that plant; they may call a strike, and inasmuch as the owner of that plant would be liable in that case of he should insert an advertisement asking for help he is in a dilemma and this bill will confront us if we pass it. There is another objection to this bill as to the people from outside of the State; they would not be prevented from advertising for help. They could get people from across the borders of the State and the bill would not be any protection to the men who, as my friend from Allegheny says, would have to go from two to three hundred miles away from home. This bill is objectionable and I think it should be voted down.

Mr. MANGAN. Mr. Speaker, I can plainly see that my friend from Philadelphia does not understand the bill. The bill only states that the advertisement shall read that a strike or lockout exists, where they are advertising for men. He states that they can go from another state. There is nothing to prohibit that, to go from another State or for a man to go to work in another plant, but it does compel them to specify in that advertisement that a strike or lockout does exist in that plant. That is all the working men are asking for in this State and in this bill. It was drawn up by the Federation of Labor in this State.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I may have become a little confused the other evening on a bill for the employment agents; I will admit that. I was a little bit confused, but I wish to state as I stated here the other evening that conditions do exist in our own state where men are told that fields are greener far away. We don't have to go out of the State of Pennsylvania to find "bull-pens". Mr. Speaker, I may be a little prejudiced in this House but I have read of the ordeals in Colorado; I have heard of them in West Virginia; I know that innocent men have been taken into those fields and I know that I can picture big the battlefield of Ludlow where women and children were shot. I can also picture, my friends, when people were allowed to advertise in other States where honest workmen were driven from honest labor. We don't need to be afraid of petty strikes; this does not say anything about that. Where an organization has its strikes we don't object if that organization of employes violates their part of the agreement, but we don't want a condition to exist in the State of Pennsylvania the same as exists in these other states. I mentioned here the other night, and perhaps it fell on deaf ears that we have had men and we have them to-day that are going into the coal fields of Pennsylvania that are nothing more or less than "bull-pens" to-day, because they are not being told the truth. I want to say, my friends, as I said to you before about a man, and you will pardon me for repeating that same incident, and brought up before the Attorney General of the State and before the Governor—a man by the name of Joseph Yannis who had gone into Ernest, Indiana County, for the purpose of seeing his boy. He was taken into the company's store and given five minutes to talk to the boy and then railroaded out of town. To-day in the City of Scranton and other cities employment agents are trying to get our employes away by painting to them pretty pictures. My friends that is all we are asking for; all we want is a square deal. That is all, my friends, give us a square deal. If there is any trouble at these places let the poor fellows who are taken out, get a square deal. Not after he gets there and works for two or three weeks and after being promised that he will receive free transportation and then the money be kept out of his pay envelope. I want to say, my friends, without making any further comments, as I have spoken so often on these things, that I hope and trust that you will vote in favor of this bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Mr. HOWARTH. Mr. Speaker, I ask for the verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The roll was verified as follows:

Speaker.

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time from page 54 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed, House Bill No. 1622, File Folio 6051.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1622, entitled

An Act empowering express companies to employ policemen commissioned by the Governor with authority to act in all counties in the State wherein such companies carry on their business.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I have suffered defeat so often in the defense of labor measures that I will not get cold feet in the defense of this one. We have attempted from time to time to show you people that these bills are nothing but the re-establishing of the coal and iron police in this State. I really did not think it would be necessary to again try to bring this explanation before the members of this Assembly. I believed that when this House went on record in increasing the State police of this State it was for the purpose of giving every industry protection. This bill, my friends, says that a commission shall be issued by the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania. What does that make of the man that holds the commission? It makes him a servant of the State of Pennsylvania. Then if he is to become a servant of the State of Pennsylvania let the State of Pennsylvania control its own police and not commission men and turn them over to any corporation, to take their orders from individual corporations who then shall act in the defense of our laws. I am not going to speak at length in the defense of this bill. It seems to me, my friends, that labor has no chance here, and I want to tell you just to read back in the pages of history, the strikes in the anthracite fields, the strike in Homestead, the strikes all over your country, and you will find that it was the cause of the coal and iron police. If you want to go on record to place back on the statute books this proposition, that is up to you, but thank God, my friends, I will stand as a man against it. You hollered for State police. I preached against the enormous increase in salary, and not against them as an organization, but I do oppose and always will oppose the fact that any corporation of this State is going to control any body of police. I am for law and order, but I do not want the corporations of this State by a commission from this State, as a servants of the State of Pennsylvania, to turn over our servants for their personal use. I ask you again not to postpone it again this time, but to stand as men, my friends, and defeat this measure, re-establishing a precedent that perhaps you will be sorry for I do not ask you for much,—simply for justice. Let me say, possibly for the last time, perhaps I will not have the pleasure in speaking in defense of some of my people again, that I hold no grudge against any man, will say nothing against you my friends, but I ask you at this time to stand firm and turn down this bill.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Swartz, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I will gladly permit myself to be interrogated after I have answered the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Fowler.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Swartz, will be glad to be interrogated after he has answered the remarks of the gentleman from Lackawanna.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, my friend Mr. Fowler from Scranton made the remark a few moments ago, or a little while ago, that he was confused the other day. I think that is his position with respect to this bill. He is somewhat confused. This bill, or the purpose of this bill, is not, nor would it re-establish the coal and iron police. This act is patterned after the act of 1865 permitting the railroad companies to employ policemen commissioned by the Governor, which policemen when commissioned must be paid by the railroad companies. The purpose of commissioning the railroad policemen is for the protection of property of the railroad companies, and not for the purpose of subduing strikes. This act as I see it patterned after that act, and has for its purpose the employment by express companies of policemen commissioned by the Governor and when commissioned are to be paid by the express companies. Their duties when commissioned under this bill are limited and restricted to the lines on which these companies operate. In Philadelphia, the city provides guards for the protection of property coming into the hands of the express companies. In Allegheny County, as I understand, there is considerable red tape for the express companies to go through in order to get police protection, that is the appointment of police by the courts. In Dauphin County the express companies procure police protection from the constables of the county. These policemen, or commissioned officers, by the court of the respective counties are limited in their powers of jurisdiction to the counties appointing them. Under this act the policemen commissioned by the Governor are limited to the lines on which these companies operate. I understand that in the State of Pennsylvania alone these express companies, having over fifteen hundred offices, in the State suffer a loss of $500,000 annually, exclusive of large robberies, and I regret very much, indeed, that my friend from Lackawanna, Mr. Fowler, should confound this act with the coal and iron policemen proposition. I trust, gentlemen, that you will pass this bill.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Swartz.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Swartz, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, I understood the gentleman to say in his remarks that the railroad companies at the present time have the right to employ policemen.

Mr. SWARTZ. Commissioned by the Governor, under the act of 1865.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Do not the express companies transact all of their business with the railroad companies?

Mr. SWARTZ. They do not.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Isn't most of their business transacted with the railroad companies?

Mr. SWARTZ. It is not.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Could not the express companies, in the defense of their property or in guarding their property, use the police now employed by the railroad companies?

Mr. SWARTZ. They have not that right, as I understand the act. They are commissioned as railroad policemen and their duties are confined to the property of the railroad company.

Mr. REYNOLDS. As I understood you to say, the policemen employed under this act would take care of the express company's property while in transit.

Mr. SWARTZ. While in their possession.

Mr. REYNOLDS. I call your attention to section 4, page 26, by which under this act the right is given to these policemen along the highways of railroads where all such express companies operate, or upon the premises of said companies.

Mr. SWARTZ. That is so.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Is not that general police power?

Mr. SWARTZ. It is not.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, I take it that this act is an opening wedge which should meet with your condemnation, for this reason: The express companies, I take it, would employ policemen to perform the duties provided in this act, who could be used on the highways and on the byways and in the streets and in the counties and in the towns throughout this Commonwealth. Now, if you open the door to the express companies you are then going to have similar applications from every other corporation, because, as you have noticed in the past, every corporation follows each other in order to employ their own policemen. What is the result? In the employment of any man, I care not who he is or in what position in life, that man looks to his employer. The companies pay these men and they will look to the companies who pay them as to the performance of their duties. Now, gentlemen, this State has been rid of special policemen since 1903, as the result of the great anthracite strike in 1902. What did the men of the State of Pennsylvania find in 1902? I call your attention to this now because this is an opening wedge. In 1902 the men of the State of Pennsylvania, who were sent into the coal districts, found this: They found the special policemen, employed by the respective coal companies there, supposed to be guarding their mines—and these special policemen were, and I know whereof I speak, the scum and dregs of Chicago, New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia, the rascals of whom some had been in prison and had served prison terms. And let me tell you, Mr. Speaker, that the ten thousand men sent into the coal fields to carry guns, their first duty and their first move was to drive out these rascals, and after they drove them out of the coal regions, we had no trouble with these men.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Reynolds, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REYNOLDS. Oh, not now, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia refuses to be interrogated, and will proceed.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, those men, sir, were not guarding the mines of the corporation. They were put there seeking to disturb these men and to foment trouble among these men who were asking for a few pennies more in wages; and the Guard of this State, under orders from the Governor, were compelled to guard the mines and take care of the property of these corporations, and not until we drove out of the coal mines every man that had been employed there as a guard, as a special policeman, was there any satisfactory result obtained; and after we drove them out, after those men were driven out and sent back into their various States, there was quiet and peace in the coal mines. The men simply argued the question with their employers, and it was afterwards satisfactorily settled. The citizens of the State of Pennsylvania from that day to this would not hear of special policemen, and as a result of that strike we have had the State Constabulary. Those men are responsible to the State of Pennsylvania, and for their salary they look to the State of Pennsylvania. Now I say to you, in all fairness and all honesty and justice, do not open the door for any corporations to come in, because you in your various counties, have your sheriffs, you have your constables, you have your men to take care of those affairs where crimes are committed; and I want to say to you, gentlemen, as soon as you have special policemen in there under the employ of these companies, these companies are so strong that the sheriff must stand aside, and the constables must stand aside. Why? Because you know that these men are elected to office—and I want to be very plain with you when I say this—and at the expiration of their terms of office, these companies and these corporations are so strong and go after them, so that they are defeated. These men, these special policemen, going into the counties, destroy law and order in that county, and upset the regular organization of our sheriffs and constables, and are absolutely of no benefit to anyone, not even to the companies that employ them.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Reynolds, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REYNOLDS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SWARTZ. I desire to know from the gentleman from Philadelphia, how many policemen in the City of Philadelphia are opposed to the enforcement of this law?

Mr. REYNOLDS. The police in Philadelphia are employed by the City of Philadelphia, and are paid by the City of Philadelphia.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. REYNOLDS. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SWARTZ. Are there any special policemen appointed in Philadelphia by the banks and trust companies?

Mr. REYNOLDS. Quite a number.

Mr. SWARTZ. Are they the scum of Chicago and Baltimore?

Mr. REYNOLDS. Oh no, because they must, Mr. Speaker, pass a rigid inspection in the police department of the City of Philadelphia, and are subject to the orders of the superintendent of police, and they must also pass a medical examination there, sir, and must further be recommended by a certain number of citizens, bona fide residents of the City of Philadelphia.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Reynolds.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Dauphin will proceed.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if the policemen employed by railroad companies under the Act of 1865 and commissioned by the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania are the scum of Baltimore and Chicago.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, I have never said so, and I presume the gentleman can answer the question better than I can.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, must not the persons designated by the railroad companies under the Act of 1865 be submitted to the Governor of Pennsylvania before they are commissioned, their names, I mean?

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, I am not familiar with the procedure as I have never recommended a man to be appointed as such an officer, and this is not a relevant question because we are not discussing the Act of 1865.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, this act is similar to the Act of 1865.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Swartz.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Swartz, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SWARTZ. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if he does not know that the express companies in Philadelphia now have a large number of special policemen?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I so stated in my remarks in support of the bill, that in Philadelphia they are protected by city guards. In the counties of the State the express companies are compelled to apply to the local courts for police protection and when they get that protection their duties are confined to the counties in which they are appointed.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman in his last remark has called my attention to the fact more forcibly perhaps, than I could have done myself as to just the reason why this bill is wanted by the express companies, and it is the reason why we should defeat it; that is, that if this act is passed we are creating a body of special police, placing them in the hands of the express companies and giving them a State-wide jurisdiction so that they can arrest a person in one part of the State and drag him over into another part where he has no friends to go his bail and lock him up there. That is wrong in principle and that is the reason why I think this bill should be defeated.

MOTION TO STRIKE BILL FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. DALE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. REICHENBACKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I trust that the gentlemen who have been crying so loudly for fair play will now come forward and grant fair play to this bill. It will only require one roll call.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Swartz and Mr. Ramsey and were as follows:

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of House Bill No. 1622, entitled be postponed for the present.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House, I don't think this is a fair proposition. This bill has been postponed once—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order. The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the measure has been disposed of and is not a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SENATE BILL NO. 540.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate insists upon its non-concurrence in the amendment made and insisted upon by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill numbered and entitled as follows:

Senate Bill No. 540

And has appointed Messrs. Vare, Salus and Lynch as a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (if the House of Representatives shall appoint such committee) on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House adhere to its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 540 and appoint a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the Senate already appointed to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SENATE BILL NO. 540.

The SPEAKER. On the part of the House, the Chair appoints Messrs. Whitaker, Sullivan and Cox as a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee on the Senate already appointed in relation to the differences existing between the two Houses on said bill.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House reconsider the vote by which it refused to concur in the resolution to recall Senate Bill No. 652 from His Excellency, the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. LOHR. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the resolution.

The Clerk then read the resolution as follows:

Resolved (If the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 652, entitled "An Act to amend the first and second sections of 'An Act to further amend and act approved April ninth one thousand eight hundred and seventy requiring railroad canal navigation and telegraph companies to make uniform reports to the Auditor General' which act as amended by the act of April thirteenth one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine extended its provisions to telephone companies and conforming to the requirements of the Constitution provided for the filing of such reports with the Secretary of Internal Affairs and regulated the time for the filing of the same which said act is now further amended as to the time of forwarding blanks for such reports and the provisions of said act are extended to include all corporations owning or operating lines of railways canals transportation telegraphs or telephones located in whole or in part in Pennsylvania" approved the nineteenth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven by changing the time of the forwarding of blanks and the filing and transmitting of annual reports be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

On the question,

Will the House reconsider the vote by which this resolution was not concurred in?

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to state the facts in relation to this recall as I ascertained them from inquiry. Inadvertently the name of a month was wrongly written in the bill. The bill itself, as I understand it, relieves corporations from filing two reports, a report similar to that now required by law at the office of the Secretary of Internal Affairs and is sent to the Public Service Commission. It permits them to give these reports as of the same date, and I understand also facilitates the work in the Auditor General's office in sending out forms for returns of taxation purposes. The only amendment that is proposed to the bill is the change of the month of April to the month of March or vice versa.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion to reconsider the vote by which this resolution was not concurred in?

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the resolution?

The resolution was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1744, entitled

An Act to amend an act approved the sixth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen entitled "An Act creating the Bureau of Vocational Education of the Department of Public Instruction creating the divisions of the same providing for the appointment of its officers and other employees by the Superintendent of Public Instruction defining the duties of the same, and fixing the compensation of its employees."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RININGER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill explain its purpose.

Mr. LOHR. Mr. Speaker, I introduced this bill by request and there is some merit in the bill. According to the Act of May 1915, an appropriation was made and an act passed establishing the Department of Vocational Education in the State of Pennsylvania. According to the provisions of that act five supervisors were appointed; two supervisors for agricultural education, two supervisors for industrial education and one supervisor for drawing. The salaries of these commenced according to the Act of 1915 at two thousand dollars per year. The Bureau of Vocational Education is not only supported by the State but also by Federal appropriation. The appropriation for this Department increases according to the Federal Law year after year. At the present time in 1917 we receive from the Federal Government $125,000 to the State Appropriation and provided that the Federal aid shall increase until 1926. In 1927 the Federal appropriation will have reached $593,600. The sum increases automatically year after year according to the Federal Act. In order for this State to receive the benefit of the Federal Act appropriating this money for the purpose of vocational education in the State of Pennsylvania it is necessary for us to do certain things. The provision of this bill does but one thing: It increases the salary of these five persons whom I have mentioned from two to three thousand dollars per year. Ordinarily I am opposed to any form of salary raisers, but here are a class of men, all of them strangers to me personally. I have never met the men until a few weeks ago when I met them in the rear of this House. They are men who require an education equivalent to a college education who are asked to work here for the sum of two thousand dollars a year, which was the amount paid them several years ago. This is a very important matter which is undertaken by the State and the Federal Government. We find that at the present time two of the present incumbents of this office have resigned and gone elsewhere where they can receive higher pay. Other States of the Union pay a higher salary for similar work. In the State of Illinois, in the State of Wisconsin and in New York the sums range from three thousand to four thousand dollars a year for the same kind of work. In this State if vocational training amounts to anything they should receive as much salary as that and we cannot get the right man for less than that. I do not believe in giving a two thousand man a three thousand dollar job, but I believe that the best men in this line ought to receive three thousand dollars a year at the present time, which amounts to but little more than two thousand dollars did in 1915 when the act was created fixing the salary. I therefore ask the House to support this bill.

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I want to say a word about the proposition that is now before us, namely, House Bill No. 1744, the bill is nothing more or less than a salary raiser. I don't want this House to be led to believe that the appropriation from the Federal Government depends upon the increase paid to the supervisors. Now if you will look over the general appropriation bill for the public schools you will find that the deductions already made from the appropriation which would go out decrease amount to $3,460,000. We introduced an amendment a short time ago to the appropriation bill for public schools raising that appropriation to $19,000,000, but the probabilities are that when that bill goes to the Senate that $1,000,000 will be cut off so we will have between $13,000,000 and $14,000,000 actually for the public schools. Now it is true this increase of salary in the total amounts to comparatively a small sum, but when you take a large number of multipliers even though your multiplicant is small the product becomes large and the oftener we increase the salary of those connected with the department the smaller amount of money we will have for the general fund to be appropriated to the public schools. Then again, as was so ably said by my colleague Mr. Milliron, from Armstrong, the teachers' salary bill is awaiting us. The teachers of this Commonwealth are working for a salary of from $40 to $55 or $60 per month. We are anxious to pay them better salaries and I appeal to you is it fair to the teachers all over the districts to keep them working at a salary of $40 per month and paying their own expenses in order that we may increase the salaries of those who are pretty well paid and who have their expenses paid. It is true these men get but $2,000, but their expenses are all paid by the State. They can travel over the State on Pullman cars; they can dine upon the cars; they live upon the fat of the land and yet have their salary, while the teachers of these schools getting $40 a month have to pay out practically as much in expenses in maintaining themselves as the fellow who gets a higher salary, and yet they must pay their own expenses. We did a short time ago pass a bill increasing the salary of the county superintendent, or the assistant county superintendent I should have said, but they must bear their own expenses for traveling all the year round, and the increase in salary there was justified, but I am opposed to the general principle and felt it was only right that we understand that this bill is nothing more or less than a salary raiser for one of the departments of vocational education. Whatever we take off the general appropriation and pay to the salaries, makes the appropriation to the public schools out in your country districts just that much less.

MR. RAMSEY IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. LOHR. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, when I spoke before I think I did say that this bill was a salary raiser. I do not pretend that it is anything else than that. I also meant to make it plain that if this subject of vocational education that is being maintained by the State and the national government is to be worth anything, the salaries of those who have it in charge must be sufficient to get men of the right calibre, and that is the only contention that I have to offer. I also stated that I introduced this bill by request; that the men whose salaries will be affected are all strangers to me. It is immaterial to me whether or not the House passes this bill or not, I only put the matter to you gentlemen, as a plain business proposition. Is this subject of vocational education to amount to anything in this Commonwealth, or are we going to allow it to drag along with other States going to the front along this line?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I think it is not more than fair that the members of this House understand correctly where this money comes from. I feel the gentleman from Huntingdon made an error when he stated that it came out of the general appropriation of eighteen or nineteen million dollars, as the case might be. The money that is appropriated for departmental expenses is in a separate appropriation bill and covers the salaries of the State superintendents, the deputy State superintendents and the officers on down through the vocational department and other departments. I feel that it is nothing more than fair that that explanation be made at this time so that if you vote for or against the bill you vote with the understanding that it does not come out of the eighteen or nineteen million dollars.

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker, I have before me the schedule prepared by the Department of Education in which it shows these figures: "for the elementary schools $16,000,000," and then I read down along the line. I shall not name all of them, but "for vocational education $400,000." Not one cent of this salary that comes to the inspectors is paid by the Federal Government, that is paid out of the $400,000, and what is left of that $400,000 goes to meet the appropriation made by the National Government, in order to equip our State that we may have better facilities with which to present vocational education.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is correct when he makes the statement that in the itemized list there are four or five hundred thousand dollars set aside for vocational schools, but in the Department of Public instruction, in the appropriation bill on page 15, you will find where these salaries are taken care of all through there. I shall not take your time in looking it up, but if you take the general appropriation bill that we passed yesterday, you will find those items provided for.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1687, as follows

An Act to amend section one hundred and twelve of an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith"

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one hundred and twelve of an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" which reads as follows

"Section 112 In case the boards of school directors of said several school districts cannot make such amicable apportionment and adjustment of their property and indebtedness in compliance with this act before or during the first school year beginning after any such change in their boundary lines is made then in that case any one of such school districts may at any time within the succeeding school year present its proper petition to the court of common pleas of the county in which such school district is located whereupon the said court shall appoint three disinterested commissioners residents and taxpayers of said county not residing in either of the districts whose boundary lines are changed who after a hearing due notice of which shall be given to the several districts interested as the court may direct shall make a report to the court making an apportionment and adjustment according to the provisions of this act of all school property as well as indebtedness if any to and among the several school districts from which or to which land has been taken or added or newly created as the case may be said report to state the amount if any that shall be due and payable from one district to another as well as the amount of indebtedness if any that shall be assumed by any district" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 112 In case the boards of school directors of said several school districts cannot make such amicable apportionment and adjustment of their property and indebtedness in compliance with this act before or during the first school year beginning after any such change in their boundary lines is made then in that case any one of such school districts may at any time within the succeeding school year present its proper petition to the court of common pleas of the county in which such school district is located whereupon the said court shall appoint three disinterested commissioners residents and taxpayers of said county not residing in either of the districts whose boundary lines are changed who after a hearing due notice of which shall be given to the several districts interested as the court may direct shall make a report to the court making an apportionment and adjustment according to the provisions of this act of all school property as well as indebtedness if any to and among the several school districts from which or to which land has been taken or added or newly created as the case may be said report to state the amount if any that shall be due and payable from one district to another as well as the amount of indebtedness if any that shall be assumed by any district and where by reason of the changing of the boundary lines of any city incorporated town borough township or independent school district prior to the passage of this amendment the adjustment of indebtedness between the school districts affected has not been made as required by this section such adjustment may be made as herein provided by petition filed in the court of common pleas within one year after the passage of this amendment"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SIGGINS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill explain its purposes.

Mr. CONRAD G. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, as far as I understand this bill, it is to take care of the proposition where one school district annexes another section where school property is involved. It is to get a settlement in a quicker time.

Mr. SIGGINS. Mr. Speaker, the amendment as shown here in the latter part of this act would seem that it might be broad enough to extend the statute of limitations over a great many unsettled cases throughout the Commonwealth because it contains the provision that when there has been any division of any incorporated district or anything of that kind which was not made in accordance with the provisions of this section, such adjustment may be made as herein provided by petition filed in the court of common pleas within one year after the passage of this amendment. That looks very much as though it would extend the statute of limitations upon unadjusted and unsettled controversies throughout the State of Pennsylvania on bonded indebtedness and so forth. If that is the purpose of the bill, I hope that it will be defeated.

Mr. CONRAD G. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I do not know whether there is any other section of the State that has had the trouble that we have had in our section. In our community we annexed a part of the township to the city, seven or eight years ago, and the one board empowered its solicitor to make a settlement with the solicitor of the other board. The two solicitors of the boards got together and came to an agreement, and finally the other school district solicitor said that he had no power to make a settlement. This amendment is offered to save the costs in such cases which may amount to several thousands of dollars.

NAYS—2.

Flynn, Siggins,

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1164, entitled

An Act to amend section two hundred and six of the act approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, entitled "An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," by providing for the election of school directors in independent districts.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, for the benefit of the members who are not acquainted with the provisions of this bill, I want to say that under the act of 1911 the courts were empowered to appoint the school directors in independent districts located in these counties. The only object of this bill is to give the people living in independent school districts the right to elect their members or school directors by popular vote. The bill does not ask for any appropriation, nor does it add anything to the expense of holding an election, and is for the simple purpose that there are only a few or comparatively few independent districts in the State, and in our county in particular the courts have appointed a board of directors which is hostile to the best interests of the people of the district; and although the people have protested against the appointment of these directors, the courts have simply insisted upon reappointing them. There is no relief in sight excepting legislation of this kind, and it is for this purpose only that this measure has been introduced. I hope that you gentlemen will consider this favorably and vote for this bill.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, independent school districts can only be established by the consent of or on the petition of a majority of the inhabitants or taxpayers. Now the only difference between an independent district and an ordinary district of the third or fourth class is that the courts appoint the directors in the independent districts and in the other districts they elect them. If the people in independent districts want to elect their directors, they simply take proceedings to have the independent district abolished. As for the trouble at elections, I speak from experience on that. We have independent districts in our county, and have had for a great number of years, and the confusion at election time, on account of the separate boxes and tickets and printing of ballots was extraordinary, and I do not see, where the bill includes one or more municipalities, that the confusion can be avoided when the directors are elected. When the school code was framed it was framed with a view of avoiding such matters, and the courts were empowered to appoint them. It would be an unnecessary burden to change that when the independent districts can be abolished by the will of the majority upon petition to court, and I think that it would be a step backward to pass this bill.

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1866 (Senate Bill No. 834), entitled

An Act making it a misdemeanor for a parent wilfully to neglect to support a child born out of lawful wedlock whether such child shall have been begotten or shall have been born within or without this Commonwealth providing punishment therefor and empowering the court to make an order for support and to enforce the same and making it a misdemeanor to make false declarations as to who is the parent of the child and providing punishment therefor.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BRADY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 2, line 4, by striking out the word "one year" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "six months."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1841 (Senate Bill No. 907), entitled

An Act to validate certain deeds and conveyances made by trustees without setting forth their authority to convey.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, if there is anyone in the House who can explain the necessity for this act I would like them to do so.

Mr. SIGGINS. Mr. Speaker, I had a talk with the sponsor of this bill. I do not know whether I can explain it satisfactorily to the members of the House, but the situation, as I understand it, has been this: That a great many deeds have been made to different persons, conveyed to them as individuals, followed by the word "trustee" or "as trustee" without setting forth the persons for whom they were trustees. Now, as I understand the law, when a deed is made by a trustee it should state the interests of the cestui que trust and their consent to the sale. Now these deeds have passed out the title in the way that they have derived it or there has not been any mention set forth in the deed of the consent of the cestui que trust to the conveyance.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, my impression is that there is a decision of the Supreme Court that holds that where a trustee conveys as trustee it is not necessary for him to disclose the nature and character of the trust, nor is it necessary for the purchaser to see to the application of the purchase money unless the conveyance under which the trustee took title has some such provision in it. Now, the danger as I see it in this bill is that it requires, in addition to that, that the conveyance shall have actually been made with the consent and for the benefit of the parties for whom the property was held. The Supreme Court, as I understand the law now, has said that that is not necessary and that a trustee can convey as trustee in the same way in which he took title.

BILL POSTPONED.

I think the best thing we could do with this bill would be to postpone consideration of it at this time, and I therefore move you that further consideration of it be postponed for the present.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1874 (Senate Bill No. 933), entitled

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section sixteen of article three of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 942 (Senate Bill No. 157), entitled

An Act validating certain elections of counties cities boroughs townships school districts and other incorporated districts held pursuant to the provisions of an act approved the twentieth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled "An Act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities to provide for the redemption of the same and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof" and the amendments thereto and validating bonds issued or authorized to be issued in pursuance of such election.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, for the information of this House I desire to state that I believe a bill exactly similar to this one, introduced by Mr. Walter, has been passed by both Houses and signed by the Governor. Therefore, I think it would be useless to take up the time of this House by enacting what has already been passed into a law. I believe that Mr. Walter can state whether or not this is correct.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I believe the gentleman from Schuylkill is right; I have been so informed.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1294, entitled

An Act relative to the incorporation of hospitals, and charitable or eleemosynary institutions or societies in which indigent persons are treated or to be treated or maintained in whole or in part at public expense, and to the amendment of the charters thereof.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I would like the sponsor of this bill to inform the House of its purpose and effect.

Mr. McCaig. Mr. Speaker, this bill was introduced at the request of the Board of Public Charities and speaks for itself. I have no explanation to make of it.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, are we to understand from the reading of this bill that the Board of Public Charities will control absolutely the creation of hospitals in the future. In other words, if it is the desire of any community to start a hospital, before doing so they must get the consent of the State Board of Charities.

Mr. McCaig. Mr. Speaker, that is the purpose of the bill.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I have talked with Mr. Wharton about this bill but what this provides, is where an application for a charter is filed that it shall be referred to the Board of Charities and that they shall recommend to the court, but the court is in no ways bound by their recommendation. It is merely to advise the court of the necessity of a hospital in that location and with their expert knowledge they are in a position to inform the court whether there is a duplication of effort for the establishing of a new hospital.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 164, as follows

An Act validating certain returns of unpaid taxes on seated lands filed in the offices of the several county treasurers and county commissioners and also certain liens for taxes filed in the offices of the several prothonotaries where such taxes were legally assessed and actually remain unpaid

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the returns of all unpaid taxes on seated lands heretofore filed in the offices of the several county treasurers and county commissioners and now on file in such offices and the liens for taxes heretofore filed on seated lands in the offices of the several prothonotaries and now on file in such offices where such taxes were legally assessed and actually remain unpaid are hereby declared to be legal and valid with the same force and effect as if such taxes had been returned or such liens had been filed under warrant of law although at the time of such return or the filing of such lien no warrant in law existed for such procedure. The collection of all such taxes and liens shall be made in the manner which is now or hereafter may be provided by law.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1752, entitled

An Act amending section one and section two of an act approved the twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, entitled "An Act to increase the powers of courts in summary proceedings for desertion or non-support of wives, children, or aged parents, by directing that imprisonment in such cases be at hard labor in such institutions as the court shall name, with the wages payable to the wives, children or parents; providing for the disbursement of moneys collected on forfeitures of bonds, bail bonds, or recognizances; and by empowering such courts to appoint desertion probation officers for the performance of such duties as the court shall direct; and providing for the payment of the expenses incident to the carrying out of this act;" further increasing the powers of the court in such proceedings by directing imprisonment at hard labor in any almshouse or poor house within the jurisdiction of the court; and providing the amount of wages payable to the wives, children or parents of persons so committed.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the sponsor of this bill in what respect it changes the existing law?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, the bill now before you for your consideration was given to me by the solicitor of the poor district of Luzerne County. In our county our non-support cases are getting so large that it has become a serious question with the result that the judges themselves, and we have five, took the matter up with the poor board authorities and the bill was drawn by them. I have since been informed that there was a bill passed earlier in the session which practically would destroy this bill. Therefore, somebody was kind enough from Philadelphia to bring to me amendments that were drawn up by the learned Judge Brown of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia. That is all I know about the bill. I will guarantee that the amendments will be looked after in the Senate.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, this bill seems to have been drawn without any regard to the fact that a large number of counties in the State do not have poor farms and also the last section provides that a man who is committed for desertion of his family shall receive from the poor authorities the sum of one dollar per day to be expended as he should direct. Now, I don't know how it would be looked upon in the county of Luzerne, but I venture to say that in some counties of the State there are a number of more or less industrious persons who would be very glad to get an opportunity at certain times of the year to work for the county at one dollar a day and then to turn the proceeds over to the family.

Now that is the condition of the bill here. I have just been handed a copy of the amendments, and I do not know that they will be inserted in the Senate, and I do not know what they are, but as it stands now it seems to be an unwise proposition, and one that would defeat the worthy object for which it is intended. It would rather promote under certain conditions the non-support of families than contribute to it.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I do not understand the bill in the way that the gentleman from Franklin has explained it. This bill simply provides that when a man refuses to support his family, and in the event of taking it to court, and is sentenced and refuses, or somebody else refuses to go his bail, then the result is that he is sentenced to jail, and he lays there and his family naturally suffers during the time he is locked up. This bill, if it were made a law, would empower the judges of the courts to sentence this man to work on the poor farm, and while he would be there the family would be receiving the sum of one dollar per day. The way it is now they receive absolutely nothing. The amendments I think will cover up the objection of the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Walter, as it is too late to submit them to the House now.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—3.

Siggins, Simpson, Walter,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

SPEAKER BALDWIN IN THE CHAIR.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION.

Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 19, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives, providing for the recall of House Bill No. 1985.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1985.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1985, File Folio 9793, entitled

An Act making an appropriation to the State Treasurer for the purpose of paying salaries of State officers and employees in the interim between the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and such time as the funds provided by the General Appropriation Bill becomes available.

passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1985 passed on third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 1, page 2, by inserting after the word "ninety-five," the word "thousand," in line 4.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The bill being already printed with the amendments and on the file of the House, File Folio 10503,

The question recurs,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1836 (Senate Bill No. 848), en-

An Act proposing an amendment to section twenty-two article three of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JAMES O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, the Constitution of Pennsylvania has always prohibited the investment of trust funds in the bonds or stocks of private corporations. That prohibition is worded in this way, "No act of the General Assembly shall authorize the investment of trust funds," and so forth. This bill proposes to amend that section of the Constitution by providing that no special act of the General Assembly shall authorize the investment of trust funds," and so forth, so that it would be possible for the Legislature to pass acts providing for the investment of trust fund in the bonds and stock of certain classes of private corporations. I say classes, because it would be impossible for the Legislature to pick out any individual corporation, as that would be a special act, and the only way in which such authority could be given, which would not be a special act, would be to select a class. Suppose that a class, such as insurance companies, were selected, then it would authorize the trustee of trust funds to invest those funds in corporations coming within that class. Suppose that the class were made to include insurance companies and trustees of trust funds had considered that the Pittsburgh Life and Trust, for instance, was a solid company, as we all did, and such investment had been made, that company through some fraud probably has failed and those trust funds would have fallen. Now it seems to me that this prohibition against such investment of trust funds has been a very wise one and that any change would not only be revolutionary in this State but would be very unwise. I am not questioning the integrity nor judgment of such future trustees as might invest in such companies, but we all know the fact that a man who is interested in a company, a private corporation, is usually optimistic about the affairs of that corporation, and is likely to consider that it would be a very good investment. His judgment in that case is subject to close scrutiny in most cases because of his interest. I believe that it would be very detrimental to the interests of the parties entitled to such trust funds to permit any act of Assembly that would change the policy to which we have so long adhered, and permit such investment. I might say that by trustees is meant trustees, executors, guardians, administrators and so forth. I doubt very much the wisdom of this proposition.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, it has been some time since I looked over the text of this act, but I know that it is not the purpose of the Senator from Delaware to permit an investment that would be contrary to what is looked upon as the sound business judgment of any executor or trustee, and it seems to me that because of the doubt which has been raised as to the propriety of the proposed act that it might be wise at this time to postpone consideration until that doubt has been cleared up. I therefore move you, Mr. Speaker, that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. THEODORE CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1596 (Senate Bill No. 137), entitled

An Act regulating the purchase of and contract for supplies in cities of the first class in this Commonwealth.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, on page 13 of to-day's calendar, at the bottom of the page, is House Bill No. 164. I understand that during my absence from the House this evening there was opposition to this measure and that it was postponed. Now if the gentlemen had just held their peace and saved their wind until I got back I would have disposed of the proposition effectively. I now desire to call this bill up.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 164, entitled

An Act validating certain returns of unpaid taxes on seated lands, filed in the office of the several county treasurers, and also certain liens for taxes filed in the offices of the several prothonotaries where such taxes were legally assessed and actually remain unpaid.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1840 (Senate Bill No. 906), entitled

An Act to empower certain county poor districts to purchase poor farms providing the manner in which such purchases shall be made and providing for the mortgaging of such poor farms to secure any part of the purchase price thereof.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 622, entitled

An Act to protect the lives and health and secure the safety and welfare of the inhabitants of cities, boroughs and municipalities by compelling persons, firms, associations, corporation, owners and operators engaged in the business of mining anthracite coal within the limits of such municipalities to so conduct and carry on said business of mining anthracite coal within the limits of said municipalities as to provide and maintain such support for the surface overlying such mines, mining operations and workings and surface adjacent thereto and for the support of the superstructures, residences, public schools, hospitals, churches, public buildings, theatres, industrial establishments, water, gas and electric light plants and sewage systems, roads, streets and highways erected or constructed upon the said overlying and adjacent surface as will prevent the subsidence or cave-in of such overlying and adjacent surface or the endangering or destruction of human life or of said superstructures and improvements thereon erected or constructed; and making violations thereof a misdemeanor punishable by fine or imprisonment upon conviction or both within the discretion of the court. Providing also for inspection and examination of every mine or mining operation by the several mine inspectors of the anthracite mine inspection districts and making it the duty of each of said mine inspectors, in addition to the duties now required by law, to inspect and examine the mines within their respective districts carried on within the limits of every municipality to see that the mining operations so carried on are conducted in a manner to provide and maintain support for the said overlying surface and surface adjacent thereto and the superstructures and improvements thereon erected and constructed as will prevent subsidence or cave-in of said surface; and providing for a report of the kind and character of support provided and maintained in each of such mines and mine workings to the Chief of the Department of Mines and of the failure to provide and maintain such support at points or places where such support is deemed necessary by him; and to report generally upon the conditions of the mines and mining operations and workings and the precautions taken in each mine and mining operation and working to secure the safety of said surface and the superstructures and improvements erected thereon and also empowering the said inspectors and each of them to institute proceedings in the name of the Commonwealth for any violations of this act which shall come to his knowledge through and by reason of such inspection. And providing also that prosecutions may be instituted in the name of the Commonwealth by any municipality or individual endangered, injured or threatened. And providing also that a subsidence of such surface or cave-in shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this act by the owner, operator or contractor of the underlying coal mine or mining operation carried on beneath such subsidence or cave-in; and providing also that a prosecution for violation of this act may be instituted at any time within two years next after the time when any subsidence or cave-in becomes visible upon the surface; and providing also that where mining operations are or threaten to be carried on in violation of the provisions of this act any municipality or person may institute proceedings to restrain such operations. And providing also that such remedy shall be in addition to and independent of other remedies provided in this act; and that the provisions of this act shall not affect any action or actions now brought or pending; and for the repeal of all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Legislative Journal

Session 1917

122nd of the General Assembly

Vol. 4.

HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20, 1917.

No. 73.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, June 20, 1917.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. E. E. Beidleman) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Rev. S. G. Zerfass, Chaplain of the House, offered the following prayer:

Kind Father in Heaven, this beautiful morning, may Heaven's richest benedictions be with us all as we meet in this Senate Chamber. Give us clearer conception of our duty, enlarge our visions of life, broaden our sphere of action; and may we never grieve Thee by coldness, infidelity, ingratitude, unbelief or want of love for Thee. May we glorify Thee as Thy created images by continually doing good, living sweetly and ever holding up to earth the torch divine. Grant all these favors and save us. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. CROW the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. JONES. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. J. FRANK GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. J. FRANK GRAFF. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JONES. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

Mr. J. FRANK GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMENDED.

Mr. JONES. Mr. President, I move that the bill be re-committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. J. FRANK GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS RECOMMENDED.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1083 (House Bill No. 94), on second reading, entitled

An Act to amend section two of an act approved the sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and four entitled "An Act to provide for the employment and support of the poor in the County of York" (Pamphlet Laws sixty-five) by regulating the term and election of directors of the poor be re-committed to the Committee on Elections.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1138 (House Bill No. 690), on third reading, entitled

An Act making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of an act approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred thirteen entitled "An Act applicable to all counties of this Commonwealth to provide monthly payments as approved by the trustees to indigent widowed or abandoned mothers for partial support of their children in their own homes. The manner of appointment of the trustees the administration of the trust amount of appropriations proportioning appropriations co-ordinate appropriations amounts to be paid forms of records eligibility penalties and reports as set forth" and the amendments thereto.

be re-committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1597 (House Bill No. 1011), on third reading, entitled

An Act making an appropriation to the Board of Trustees of the Philadelphia Museums

be re-committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT SENATE BILL NO. 1121.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1121 (House Bill No. 1191), on third reading, entitled

An Act fixing the compensation of township auditors in townships of the first class and providing how said compensation is to be paid be re-committed to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BURKE. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I will be very brief, but I do hope this motion will not prevail. Five dollars a day is little enough for the men who perform service. There is too much of this setting bills aside for the small salaried people and passing the ones to increase the big salaries, and therefore I hope this motion will not prevail.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. President, if I have been correctly informed, the auditors do all their work in the evenings and in some townships of the first class they have from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and fifty days, and I feel it is not fair to auditors of second class townships that auditors of townships of the first class, who do not do any more work, should receive more pay.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. President, there is no reason why a man who does his work in the evening or night, or any other time, is not entitled to fair compensation. We had an example here the other day of a letter from the head of a department, and I believe there was some influence in setting a bill aside. This man receives $10,000 or more a year for his own salary and objected to an increase of $12.50 a month for the poorer paid employes and besides he charges 30 cents a day, if I am told correctly, for street car fare, and that bill is lying in a committee. I want to say it is a shame to not pay men whether they work for the State or any other place.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make reports from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EYRE, from the Committee on Public Roads and Highways, re-reported as amended Senate Bill No. 965 (House Bill No. 682), entitled

An Act concerning townships and revising, amending and consolidating the law relating thereto.

Also, from the Committee on Public Roads and Highways, reported as amended Senate Bill No. 1148 (House Bill No. 684), entitled

An Act creating a Bureau of Township Highways in the State Highway Department conferring powers and imposing duties upon officers of the State Highway Department requiring certain duties of clerks of the courts of quarter sessions and providing penalties.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. KLINE, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed Senate Bill No. 1167 (House Bill No. 1426), entitled

An Act to further amend an act approved the 11th day of May, 1911, entitled "An Act to provide for the appointment of county and city inspectors of weights and measures; providing for their compensation and expenses; prescribing their duties; prohibiting vendors from giving false or insufficient weights and fixing the penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1522 (House Bill No. 142), on second reading, entitled be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs.

Mr. JENKINS. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. LEIBY. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Perry, Mr. Leiby, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. LEIBY. Mr. President, on Monday evening of this week, on our calendar, House Bill No. 1140 (Senate Bill No. 1052), known as the Fish Code, the file folio is given as 9227. Thinking that I was voting on the bill the file folio of which was 9227, I voted in favor of the bill, and I find that the bill upon which the vote was taken was 9815. This bill was recommitted to the committee on June 12 and reported out on June 13, and apparently with this file folio number, and on Monday evening the old file folio number appears on our calendar. I was told by a gentleman, a member of this Senate, in the presence of the Fish Commissioner, that the bill would pass as it had been amended in this Senate, and I found that it had been reported out re-amended as originally, and with that thought in mind I voted for the bill that I thought was in another state as amended on the floor of the Senate. I regret very much that we are embarrassed from time to time in the Senate from wrong file folio numbers, and it seems to me that it would be much better if there were no numbers at all put on our calendars, to put us on our guard and save us this embarrassment. This bill may not be of very much importance, but the fact is that this condition exists, the file folio numbers are placed on the calendar when they are known to be wrong. If this bill had been amended on Monday night and came out on the calendar on Tuesday, there might be some reason for it, but when it was reported to the Senate on the 13th and having four or five days in which to get the right file folio number on our Monday night calendar, it seems to me that such mistakes should be corrected. It places us in an embarrassing position; it may not be an intentional carelessness, but they are mistakes which not only embarrass one of us, but embarrass every Senator. We should not be subject to such a condition of affairs and I regret very much that this has happened, and when I was assured by a member of this Senate that this will would not be amended as it has been, I regret that such a condition exists, and that this bill has gone through. I do not know that other Senators have been misled by it, and I hope not, but our calendar was wrong, but I hope they voted intelligently. We have no means of ascertaining what is wrong unless we would go to the desk and make inquiries about every file folio. It may have been announced on this floor, but I was very careful on this bill.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair desires to inform the Senator from Perry, Mr. Leiby, that the mistake was the fault of the proof readers, about which the clerks at the desks have frequently complained, as well as about which there has been action on the part of the Senate, endeavoring to correct such mistakes.

An Act regulating hunting and fishing on unseated and auxiliary forest reserve lands providing for the propagation of game and fish on such lands and providing penalties for violations.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That hereafter any person trespassing upon any lands classed as "unseated lands" or "auxiliary forest reserve lands" within this Commonwealth for the purpose of hunting or fishing shall be liable in any action of trespass only to the owner lessee or occupant for the damages from the act or acts of such person to said lands.

Section 2. Any magistrate alderman or justice of the peace upon information or complaint made before him by affidavit of the violation of the provisions of this act shall issue his warrant under his hand and seal directed to any constable or warden of the county to cause such person to be arrested and brought before said magistrate alderman or justice of the peace who shall hear and determine the guilt or innocence of the person so charged and if guilty the amount of damage done.

Section 3. Upon conviction such person shall pay a penalty in a sum sufficient to cover the damage done and the cost of prosecution and in default of the payment of such penalty and costs shall be committed to the county jail of the proper county for a period not exceeding three months. The penalty herein provided shall be deemed to be the full and complete penalty for any trespass on unseated lands or auxiliary forest reserve lands except as further herein provided.

Section 4. Whenever any person associated copartnership or corporation shall desire to undertake the propagation of game or fish on any unseated lands or auxiliary forest reserve lands they shall make application to the Board of Game Commissioners or to the Department of Fisheries as the case may be to secure the required propagating license. The application shall be accompanied by an accurate description of the lands to be used for the propagation of the game or fish. If the application is granted the owner lessee or occupant of said lands shall post the lands to be so devoted to the propagation of game or fish as a game or fish propagating plant or area. Trespassing on such lands shall be punishable as above provided and in addition by a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). This section does not apply to such unseated lands as are used for pasturing purposes or which are enclosed by fences.

Section 5. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section two of an act entitled "An Act establishing in counties containing a population of from eight hundred thousand to one million four hundred thousand a board for the assessment and revision of taxes for State and county purposes prescribing the method of their appointment their powers and duties fixing their salary to be paid by the proper county and abolishing the office of ward borough and township assessors in so far as respects the assessment of State and county taxes" approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and ninety-two) which reads as follows

"Section 2 The said board shall divide the county into convenient districts and shall appoint one subordinate assessor for each of said districts The said subordinate assessors shall make assessments and valuations of all property taxable for State and county purposes together with a list of all persons taxable upon occupation in their respective districts and shall on or before the first Monday of November of the year preceding the next triennial assessment in such counties file the same with the said Board for the Assessment and Revision of Taxes and thereupon the said board shall examine and revise the said valuations increasing or decreasing the same as in their judgment may seem to be proper or adding thereto such property or subjects of taxation as may have been omitted and after such revision the said board shall by rule fix convenient times for the hearing of appeals from the said assessments of valuations and after the hearing of said appeals and after making whatever changes may be considered proper the valuations as so ascertained and revised shall stand as the valuations for the assessments of all county and State taxes until the next triennial assessment and shall be made every three years thereafter with power however in the assessors to revise the said assessments according to right and equity between the triennial assessments by adding thereto new increased or omitted subjects of taxation and the revising of valuations if it is proper to do so and upon request by any taxpayer he shall at any time receive from the board a statement of his taxable property and its valuation When the triennial assessment shall be fixed either for the whole county or in districts thereof notice of that fact shall be given by publication in not more than two newspapers of the county and of the time or times at which appeals will be heard After hearing the appeals the board shall take such action in regard to them as may be right and proper after such action on the appeals any taxpayer who is dissatisfied with the assessment upon his property may within thirty days from the final fixing of the said assessment and valuation appeal to the court of common pleas of the county and it shall be the duty of the court to at once hear and determine said appeal and if necessary make such change therein as may be proper In case of any change by the board during the intervals between the triennial assessments as provided for in this section if there be any increase in any particular assessment or the addition of any omitted subject of taxation the taxpayer affected shall if a resident of the county have written or printed notice left at his residence at least ten days before the change is made and if a non-resident then the notice shall be posted on the property and such taxpayer may appeal as provided above to a court of common pleas and such court may take action as provided above in case of other appeals The subordinate assessors provided for in this act shall receive the sum of four dollars per day for the time actually occupied in the discharge of their duties The board shall have the right to appoint such clerks as the salary board may allow for the proper discharge of the duties of said board and all salaries and expenses shall be paid out of the county treasury In so far as respects State taxes the valuation and assessments shall be made by the board annually on or before December thirty-first" shall be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 2 The said Board shall divide the county into convenient districts and shall appoint one subordinate assessor for each of the said districts The subordinate assessors shall make assessments and valuations of all property taxable for county purposes together with a list of all persons taxable upon occupations in their respective districts and shall on or before the first Monday of November of the year preceding the next triennial assessment in such counties file the same with the said Board for the Assessment and Revision of Taxes and thereupon the said Board shall examine and revise the said valuations increasing or decreasing the same as in their judgment may seem to be proper or adding thereto such property or subjects of taxation as may have been omitted and after such revision the said Board shall by rule fix convenient times for the hearing of appeals from said assessments of valuations and after the hearing of said appeals and after making whatever changes may be considered proper the valuations as so ascertained and revised unless changed in the manner hereinafter provided shall stand as the valuations for the assessments of all county taxes until the next triennial assessment and shall be made every three years thereafter with power however in the assessors to revise said assessments according to right and equity between triennial assessments by correcting errors in such assessments by adding thereto any property or subjects of taxation which may have been omitted or any new property or subjects of taxation which may have come into being since said triennial assessment and with the further power in the assessors to revise said assessments between triennial assessments by increasing or decreasing the same where the value of the property or subjects of taxation assessed has changed by reason of any change of conditions thereon or adjacent thereto or in the vicinity thereof or by reason of the property assessed having been subdivided or laid out in a plan of lots or other subdivision or by reason of improvements thereon or thereto or by reason of any public or other improvements having been made adjacent thereto or in the vicinity thereof or by reason of a change in the use thereof or where for any other reason whatsoever the value of the property has changed and it seems to the board of assessors necessary and equitable to make a change in the valuation thereof

When the triennial assessments shall be fixed either for the whole county or in districts thereof notice of that fact shall be given by publication in at least two newspapers of the county and of the time or times when appeals will be heard. After hearing the appeals the Board shall take such action in regard thereto as may be right and proper. After action taken on the appeals any taxpayer dissatisfied with the assessment upon his property may within thirty days from the final fixing of the said assessment and valuation appeal to the court of common pleas of the county and it shall be the duty of the court to at once hear and determine said appeal and if necessary make such change therein as may be proper.

At least ten days written notice shall be given to any taxable person whose assessment shall be changed between triennial assessments of the change so made and of the time and place set for hearing objections thereto.

Said notice shall be served by the Board or any member thereof or by any subordinate assessor or by any other person by the Board authorized so to do in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons in a personal action if said taxable person can be found in the county or upon an adult person residing upon the property assessed in case the taxable person cannot be found in the county. When no service is made upon the taxable person or upon an adult person residing upon the property assessed said notice shall be deemed to have been properly served if tacked or conspicuously posted upon the property assessed.

No defect in the service of any such notice shall be sufficient ground for setting aside any assessment so made but upon proof thereof being made the taxable person shall have the right to a rehearing before said board relative to said assessment and to an appeal therefrom to the court of common pleas in the manner provided in this act or either or both at the option of the taxable person. No appeal taken from any such assessment shall affect the validity of any taxes based thereon but if such assessment shall thereafter be reduced an exoneration shall be granted or restitution ordered for the excess of taxes paid by reason of any improper increase in the assessment.

After the hearing of any objections thereto and the making of any changes that may be deemed proper the valuations as so ascertained and revised shall unless changed in the manner herein provided stand as the valuations for the assessments of county taxes until the next triennial assessment provided however that any taxable person dissatisfied with the changes so made may within thirty days after said hearing and the final fixing of the same appeal to the court of common pleas of the county and it shall be the duty of the court to at once hear and determine said appeal and if necessary make such change therein as may be proper.

Upon request by any taxpayer he shall at any time receive from the Board a statement of his taxable property and its valuation.

The subordinate assessors provided for in this act shall receive the sum of five dollars per day for the time actually occupied in the discharge of their duties. The board shall have the right to appoint such clerks as the salary board may allow for the proper discharge of the duties of said board and all salaries and expenses shall be paid out of the county treasury. In so far as respects personal property taxes the valuations and assessments shall be made by the board annually on or before December thirty-first.

The main house drains may be decreased in diameter beyond a rain-water conductor or surface inlet by permission of the department or board or bureau of health when the plans show that conditions are such as to warrant such decrease but in no case shall the main house drain be less than four (4) inches in diameter" is hereby amended to read as follows

Material of House Drains

Section 8 The main drainage system of every house or building shall be separately and independently connected with the street sewer where such sewer exists except where two houses are built together in a lot with a frontage of thirty feet or less when one connection with main sewer will be allowed but there shall be a separate house drain for each house connected by a "Y" connection in the front of such houses at the property line with main house sewer or where one building exists or is erected in the rear of another on an interior lot of single ownership and no private sewer is available or can be made for the rear building through an adjoining alley courtyard or driveway the house drain from the front building may be extended to the rear building and the whole will be considered as one house drain or where a private automobile garage exists or is erected in the rear of a dwelling and there are no living quarters in the garage the drain from garage may be connected to the house sewer and the whole will be considered as one house drain

Where it is necessary to construct a private sewer to connect with sewer on adjacent street such plans may be used as may be approved by the department or board or bureau of health but in no case shall joint drains be laid in cellars parallel with the street or alley

House drains or soil-pipes laid beneath floor must be extra heavy cast-iron pipe (as per table in section sixteen) with locked and caulked joints and carried three feet outside of all exterior walls. All drains or soil-pipes connected with main drain where it is above the cellar floor shall be of extra heavy cast-iron pipe with locked and caulked joints or of heavy galvanized wrought-iron pipe with screw joints properly secured and carried three feet outside exterior walls and all arrangements of soil or waste-pipes shall be as direct as possible. All wrought-iron pipes shall be galvanized. Changes of direction on pipes shall be made with "Y" branches and cleanout plugs installed at all abrupt turns. Where sewer and waste-pipes are under floor cleanout plugs must be brought on a forty-five degree angle and flush with floor level and where such pipes pass through a new foundation-wall a relieving arch shall be built over it with two-inch space on either side of main pipe.

The size of the main house drain shall be determined by the total area of the buildings and paved surfaces to be drained according to the following table if iron pipe is used. If the pipe is terra cotta the diameter shall be one size larger for the same amount of area drainage.

Diameter	Fall $\frac{1}{4}$ Inch per Foot	Fall $\frac{1}{2}$ Inch per Foot
4 ins.,	1,800 sq. ft. drainage area,	2,500 sq. ft. drainage area
5 ins.,	3,000 sq. ft. drainage area,	4,500 sq. ft. drainage area
6 ins.,	5,000 sq. ft. drainage area,	7,500 sq. ft. drainage area
8 ins.,	9,100 sq. ft. drainage area,	13,600 sq. ft. drainage area
10 ins.,	14,000 sq. ft. drainage area,	20,000 sq. ft. drainage area

The main house drains may be decreased in diameter beyond a rain water conductor or surface inlet by permission of the department or board or bureau of health when the plans show that conditions are such as to warrant such decrease but in no case shall the main house trap or house drain when installed be less than four (4) inches in diameter.

Gasoline and Oil Separators

The sewers of all factories refiners cleaning establishments garages or other buildings that use or store gasoline or volatile oils shall be equipped with approved gasoline and oil separating catch basins. These catch basins or traps shall be arranged according to the latest approved methods and include all traps baffle plates and vents necessary to prevent the gasoline and oil from entering the main sewers. The health department is hereby vested with the power to order and insist upon the installation of a device that will prevent gasoline from entering the main sewers and they shall notify and compel the owners or occupants of any building or buildings who allow or permit gasoline or oil entering the sewers to equip all buildings with such devices as they deem necessary to protect the main sewers.

Chemical Laboratories

Chemical laboratories factories newspaper offices lithograph offices or any building in which large quantities of acids are used shall make separate arrangements with the plumbing inspector regarding the waste-pipe and vents from such sinks and plumbing fixtures.

Section 5 That section nine of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Location of Main Trap

Section 9 "The house drain must be provided with a horizontal trap placed immediately inside the cellar wall. The trap must be provided with a hand-hole for convenience in cleaning the cover of which must be properly fitted and made gas and air-tight with heavy brass screw-cap ferrule caulked in. This class of traps shall be subject to the approval of the board or bureau of health" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Location of Main Trap

Section 9 The house trap should if possible be placed immediately inside the cellar wall. The trap must be provided with a hand-pole for convenience in cleaning the cover of which must be properly fitted and made gas and air-tight with heavy brass screw-cap ferrule caulked in. The installation of this trap shall be subject to the approval of the board or bureau of health.

Section 6 That section twelve of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Location of House Sewer

"Section 12 "When main sewer is not located on street house sewers must be constructed on outside of buildings and branch into each house separately and in no case will the sewer from one house to another be permitted to run through cellars" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Location of House Sewer

Section 12 When main sewer is not located on street house sewers must be constructed on outside of buildings and lot line and branch into each house separately and in no case will the sewer from one house to another be permitted to run through cellars

Section 7 That section fourteen of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Material of Sewers between Buildings

"Section 14 Where a sewer is laid between buildings in a passageway alley or courtyard at a less distance than five feet from the buildings it must be constructed of extra heavy cast-iron pipe for a distance corresponding to the length of the foundation of said building" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Material of Sewers Between Buildings

Section 14 Where a sewer is laid between buildings in a passageway alley or courtyard at a less distance than three feet from the buildings and adjoining property line it must be constructed of extra heavy cast-iron pipe for a distance corresponding to the length of the foundations of said buildings or adjoining property line.

Section 8 That section twenty of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Leader Pipes

"Section 20 All buildings shall be kept provided with proper metallic leaders for conducting water from the roofs in such manner as shall protect the walls and foundations of said building from injury. In no case shall the water from said leaders be allowed to flow upon the sidewalk but the same shall be conducted by a pipe or pipes to the sewer. If there be no sewer in the street upon which such buildings front then the water from said leaders shall be conducted by proper pipe or pipes below the surface of the sidewalk to the street gutter" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Leader Pipes

Section 20 All buildings shall be kept provided with proper metallic leaders for conducting water from the roofs in such manner as shall protect the walls and foundations of said building or buildings from injury. In no case shall the water from said leaders be allowed to flow upon the sidewalk but the same shall be conducted by a pipe or pipes to the storm sewer accessible either from the front or rear of the buildings. If there be no storm sewer in the street upon which the building fronts or no such storm sewer otherwise accessible then the water from said leaders shall be conducted by proper pipe or pipes below the surface of the sidewalk to the street gutter. In no event shall the waters from said leaders be allowed to flow into sanitary sewers and in case where storm sewers shall now or hereafter be constructed or provided either in front of the buildings or otherwise accessible the owners shall upon twenty days' notice in writing from the Department of Health so to do disconnect such leaders from the sanitary sewers and connect them with the storm sewers.

The sanitary sewer as referred to in this act shall mean the public sewer which is now or may hereafter be laid to carry domestic or house sewage only.

The storm sewer as referred to in this act shall mean the public sewer which is laid for the sole purpose of providing drainage for storm and surface water and excludes all sewage containing putrefying matter.

Section 9 That section twenty-one of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which as amended by said act of May fourteenth nineteen hundred and nine reads as follows

Material for Inside and Outside Leaders

"Section 21 Inside leaders must be constructed of cast-iron wrought iron or steel with roof connections made gas and water-tight by means of heavy copper-drawn tubing slipped into the pipe. The tubing must extend at least seven (7) inches into iron leader pipes. Outside leaders may be sheet metal but they must connect with house drain by means of a cast-iron pipe extending vertically five (5) feet above grade level where the building is located along public driveways or sidewalks. Where the building is located off building line and not liable to be damaged the connection shall be made with iron pipe extending at least one foot above grade level" be and the same is hereby further amended to read as follows

Material for Inside and Outside Leaders

Section 21 Inside leaders must be constructed of cast-iron galvanized wrought-iron or steel with approved roof connections made gas and water-tight. Outside leaders may be sheet metal but they must connect with house drain by means of cast-iron pipe extending vertically five (5) feet above grade level where the building is located along public driveways or sidewalks. Where the building is located off building line and not liable to be damaged the connection shall be made with iron-pipe extending at least one foot above grade level.

Section 10 That section twenty-two of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Trapping of Leaders

"Section 22 All leaders must be trapped with cast-iron running traps so placed as to prevent freezing" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Trapping of Leaders

Section 22 All leaders must be trapped with cast-iron traps so placed as to prevent freezing. One or more leaders may be connected by one trap where leader traps are placed inside of buildings they must be provided with cleanout plugs caulked in as provided for in section forty-one.

Section 11 That section twenty-five of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which as amended by said act of May fourteenth nineteen hundred and nine reads as follows

Diameter of Soil-Pipes

Section 25 The smallest diameter of any soil-pipe permitted to be used shall be four-inch. The size of soil pipes must be not less than those set forth in the following tables

Maximum Number of Fixtures connected to

Size of Pipe	Soil and Waste Combined		Soil-Pipe Alone
	Branch	Main	Branch	Main
4 in.,	48 fixtures	96 fixtures	8 water-closets	16 water-closets
5 in.,	96 fixtures	192 fixtures	16 water-closets	32 water-closets
6 in.,	268 fixtures	336 fixtures	34 water-closets	68 water-closets

If the building is six (6) and less than twelve stories in height the diameter shall be not less than five (5) inches if more than twelve (12) stories it shall be six (6) inches in diameter. A building six or more stories in height with fixtures located below the sixth floor soil-pipe four (4) inches in diameter will be allowed to extend through the roof provided the number of fixtures does not exceed the number given in the table

All soil-pipes must extend at least two feet above the highest window and must not be reduced in size. Traps will not be permitted on main vertical soil or waste lines. Each house must have a separate line of soil and vent-pipes. No soil or waste line shall be constructed on the outside of a building

Fixtures with

One and one-quarter inch traps count as one fixture
One and one-half inch traps count as one fixture
Two inch traps count as two fixtures
Two and one-half inch traps count as three fixtures
Three inch traps (water-closets) count as four fixtures
Four inch traps count as five fixtures" be and the same is hereby further amended to read as follows

Diameter of Soil-Pipes

Section 25 The smallest diameter of any soil-pipe permitted to be used shall be three-inch. The size of soil-pipes must not be less than those set forth in the following tables

Maximum Number of Fixtures Connected to—

Size of Pipe	Soil and Waste Combined		Soil-Pipe Alone
	Branch	Main	Branch	Main
3 in.,	6 fixtures	10 fixtures	1 water-closet	1 water-closet
4 in.,	48 fixtures	96 fixtures	8 water-closets	16 water-closets
5 in.,	96 fixtures	192 fixtures	16 water-closets	32 water-closets
6 in.,	268 fixtures	336 fixtures	34 water-closets	68 water-closets

If the building is six (6) and less than twelve (12) stories in height the diameter shall be not less than five (5) inches if more than twelve (12) stories it shall be six (6) inches in diameter. A building six or more stories in height with fixtures located below the sixth floor soil-pipe four (4) inches in diameter will be allowed to extend through the roof provided the number of fixtures does not exceed the number given in the table

All soil-pipes must extend at least two feet above the roof and must not be reduced in size. Traps will not be permitted on main vertical soil or waste lines. Each house must have a separate line of soil and vent-pipes. No soil or waste line shall be constructed on the outside of a building

One and one-quarter inch traps count as one fixture
One and one-half inch traps count as one fixture
Two-inch traps count as two fixtures
Two and one-half inch traps count as three fixtures
Three inch traps (water-closets) count as four fixtures
Four-inch traps count as five fixtures

Section 12 That section twenty-six of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Change in Direction

"Section 26 All sewer soil and waste pipes must be as direct as possible. Changes in direction must be made with "Y" or half "Y" branches or one-eight bends. Offsets in soil or waste pipes will not be permitted when they can be avoided nor in any case unless suitable provision is made to prevent accumulation of rust or other obstruction. Offsets shall be made with forty-five degree bends or similar fittings. The use of T "Y"s" (Sanitary "T"s") will be permitted on upright lines only" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Changes in Direction

Section 26 All sewer soil or waste pipes must be as direct as possible. Changes in direction must be made with "Y" or half "Y" branches or one-eight bends. Offsets in soil or waste pipes will not be permitted when they can be avoided nor in any case unless suitable provision is made to prevent accumulation of rust or other obstruction. Offsets shall be made with forty-five degree bends or similar fittings. The use of T "Y"s" (Sanitary T's) will be permitted on upright lines only. The use of saddles or the tapping of soil waste or vent pipes is prohibited unless their use is proven to be absolutely necessary.

Section 13 That section twenty-seven of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Joints for Soil and Waste Pipes

"Section 27 Joints in cast-iron pipes and soil and waste-pipes must be so filled with oakum and lead and hand-caulked as to make them gas-tight. Connections of lead and cast-iron pipes must be made with brass sleeve or ferrule of the same size as the lead pipe inserted in the hub of the iron pipe and caulked with lead. The lead pipe must be attached to the ferrule by wiped joint. Joints between lead and wrought iron pipes must be made with brass nipple of same size as lead pipe. The lead pipe must be attached to the nipple by wiped joint. All connections of lead waste pipe must be made by means of wiped joints" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Joints and Connections

Section 27 All joints and connections prescribed under this title shall be made gas and water tight. Joints in galvanized iron mild steel or brass pipe shall be standard screw joints and all burrs or cuttings shall be removed.

Connections of all plumbing fixtures traps and the drainage system shall be made by means of plumbers' wiped joint caulked joint or screw threaded joint or ground metal to metal joints and such joints shall be of as permanent a nature as any portion of the drainage system. No putty slip joints or composition joints shall be permitted on the sewer side of any trap. All joints shall be made up with an approved sealing material. Connections between wrought iron mild steel or brass to cast iron shall be either a caulked joint or screwed joint.

All unions used on the sewer side of traps shall be ground faced and shall not be concealed or enclosed. No slip joint connection will be allowed on the sewer side of the trap.

Lead pipe joints in lead pipe or between lead pipes and pipes of brass or copper shall have an exposed surface of the solder to each side of the joint of at least three-quarters (¾) of an inch. Joints between lead and iron pipes shall be made by extra heavy cast or drawn screw nipple with either a caulked joint or a soldered nipple with a threaded joint or approved concaved brass bushings.

Where cup or similar ferrules are used they shall extend not less than one-quarter (¼) inch above the hub.

Where different sizes of pipe or pipes and fittings are to be connected proper size increasers or reducers pitched to an angle of forty-five degrees between the two sizes shall be used.

Connections or joints on all soil waste vent and conductor pipes in any and all buildings shall be locked together with material that has a strength equaling the strength of the material used in the wall of the pipe. The joints or connections shall be locked together by members which engage oblique surfaces between the hub and pipe all such locking members being independent of the material with which the joints are sealed. Joints shall show no signs of failure and shall not develop leaks under a stress that will rupture the wall of the pipe or fittings. The sealing and packing material used in making connections or joints on all drainage soil waste vent and conductor pipes shall be composed of material that will not deteriorate and cannot be affected by contact with acids or alkalies. The packing and sealing material used in joining the pipes shall be so placed that it cannot work out of the enlarged portion of the connections and all joints shall be so shaped that any end movement of the pipes in the joint would compress the sealing material.

Any fitting or connection which has an enlargement chamber or recess with a ledge shoulder or reduction of the pipe area in the direction of the flow on the outlet or drain side of any trap is prohibited.

Connections or hangers pipe supports or fixture settings with masonry or stone backing shall be made with expansion bolts without the use of wood plugs.

Section 14 That section twenty-eight of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Traps for Bath-tubs Water-closets et Cetera

"Section 28 Every sink bath-tub basin water-closet slop hopper or fixture having a waste pipe must be furnished with a trap which shall be placed as close as practicable to the fixture that it serves and in no case shall they be more than one foot from said fixture. The waste-pipe from the bath-tub or other fixtures must not be connected with a water-closet traps" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Traps for Bath-tubs Water-closets et cetera

"Section 28 Every sink bath-tub basin water-closet slop hopper or fixture having a waste-pipe must be furnished with a trap which shall be placed as close as practicable to the fixture that it serves and in no case shall they be more than one foot from said fixture and the horizontal waste from P-trap must not be longer than eighteen inches from vertical vent pipe unless P-trap is crown vented. The waste-pipe from the bath-tub or other fixtures must not be connected with a water-closet trap."

Section 15 That section twenty-nine of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which as amended by said act of May fourteenth nineteen hundred and nine reads as follows

Size of Horizontal and Vertical Waste-pipe Traps and Branches

"Section 29

Horizontal and Vertical	Number of Small Fixtures

Section 16 That section thirty-three of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Safe and Refrigerator Waste-Pipes

"Section 33 Safe waste-pipes must not connect directly with any part of the plumbing system. Safe waste-pipes must discharge over an open water supplied publicly placed ordinarily used sink placed not more than three and one-half feet above the cellar floor. The safe waste from a refrigerator must be trapped at the bottom of the line only and must not discharge upon the ground floor but over an ordinary portable pan or some properly trapped water supplied sink as above. In no case shall the refrigerator waste-pipe discharge over a sink located in a room used for living purposes.

The branches on vertical lines must be made by "Y" fittings and be carried to the safe with as much pitch as possible. Where there is an offset on a refrigerator waste-pipe in cellar there must be cleanouts to control the horizontal part of the pipe.

In tenement and lodging houses the refrigerator waste-pipes must extend above the roof and not be larger than one and one-half inches nor the branches less than one and one-quarter inches. Refrigerator waste-pipes except in tenement houses and all safe waste-pipes must have brass flap-valves at their lower ends. Lead safes must be graded and neatly turned over beveled strips at their edges" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 33 A waste-pipe from refrigerators ice-boxes drinking fountains soda water fountains or bar wastes shall not be connected directly with any soil rain waste-pipe or drain sewer or discharge on the open ground. They shall discharge into a movable pan or any open sink water supplied or over a floor drain in basement and shall be as short as possible and disconnected from the refrigerator or ice box by at least four (4) inches and where drinking fountains refrigerators or ice boxes are placed in buildings on two (2) or more floors the waste and vent pipes thereof shall be continuous and shall run through the roof and in no case shall it open within six (6) feet of an open soil or waste pipe. The size of waste-pipes for refrigerators or drinking fountains for two floors or less shall be at least one and one-half inches and two inches for three floors and over. Each refrigerator drinking fountain or ice box shall be provided with a separate trap traps for refrigerators or ice boxes shall be known as a drum trap with an accessible trap screw or cleanout. Such traps shall be placed in the one and one-fourth (1) inch waste-pipe branch and shall be as near as possible to the refrigerator or ice box. Such traps need not be separately vented Galvanized wrought iron screw pipe may be used for such waste pipes.

Section 17 That section thirty-four of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Material for Vent-Pipes

"Section 34 All vent-pipes must either be of lead brass loricated porcelain enameled iron or galvanized iron pipe" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Material for Vent-Pipes

Section 34 All vent pipes must either be of lead brass extra heavy cast iron or galvanized iron pipe.

Section 18 That section thirty-five of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which as amended by said act of May fourteenth nineteen hundred and nine reads as follows

Ventilation of Traps and Soil Lines

Size of Pipe	Maximum Developed Length in Feet	Number of Traps Vented
		Branch	Main Vertical
1¼ inch vent	20	1
1½ inch vent	40	2 or less..
2 inch vent	65	10 or less..	20 or less
2½ inch vent	100	20 or less..	40 or less
3 inch vent	10 or more stories	60 or less..	100 or less

The branch vent-pipes shall be not less than the following sizes

One and one-fourth inches in diameter for one and one-fourth inch traps

One and one-half inches in diameter for one and one-half inch to two and one-half inch traps

Two inches in diameter for three inch to four inch traps

One-half their diameter for traps five inches and over

Where two (2) or more water-closets are placed side by side on a horizontal branch the branch line shall have a relief extended as a loop vent. A pipe two (2) inches in diameter will be sufficient as a loop vent for two (2) closets. A pipe three (3) inches in diameter shall be used as a relief for three (3) or four (4) closets and where more than four (4) closets are located on the same branch the relief shall not be less than four (4) inches in diameter. All house drains and soil lines on which water-closet is located must have a four-inch main vent line. Where an additional closet is located in the cellar or basement and within ten feet of main soil or vent line no relief vent will be required for said closet but where it is more than ten feet a two-inch vent line will be required. Relief vent pipes for water-closets must not be less than two inches in diameter for a length of forty feet and not less than three inches in diameter for more than forty feet.

No vent from traps under bell-traps will be required

Any building having a sewer connection with a public or private sewer used for bell-trap connection or floor drainage only a two-inch relief line must be extended to the roof of building from rear end of main drain. House drains constructed for roof drainage only will not require a relief vent.

A floor-trap for a shower shall be vented unless located in cellar or ground floor the paving of which renders the trap inaccessible. If the number of these fixtures on a branch is two (2) or more the waste line shall be extended as a loop vent instead of back venting the separate traps and when located in basement floor they shall be provided with a removable strainer or cleanout.

Back vent pipes from traps above the floor must either be connected with crown of trap with ground-in brass coupling or if connected solidly to trap must have a ground-in brass coupling at wall" be and the same is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 35 Traps shall be protected from siphonage or air pressure by special vent-pipes of a size not less than the following tables and where it is a greater distance than that given in the table it shall be one size larger its entire length

Size of Pipe	Maximum Developed Length in Feet		Number of Traps Vented
	Mains	Branch	Main Vertical
1¼ inch vent	20	1
1½ inch vent	40	2 or less..
2 inch vent	65	10 or less..	20 or less
2½ inch vent	100	20 or less..	40 or less
3 inch vent	10 or more stories	60 or less..	100 or less

The branch vent-pipes shall not be less than the following sizes

One and one-fourth inches in diameter for one and one-fourth inch traps

One and one-half inches in diameter for one or two one and one-half traps or one two (2) inch trap

Two inches in diameter for three inch to four inch traps

One-half their diameter for traps five inches and over

Where two (2) or more water-closets are placed side by side on a horizontal branch the branch line shall have a relief as a loop vent. A pipe two (2) inches in diameter will be sufficient as a loop vent for two (2) closets. A pipe three inches in diameter shall be used as a relief for three (3) or four (4) closets and where more than four (4) closets are located on the same branch the relief shall, not be less than four (4) inches in diameter. All house drains and soil lines on which a water-closet is located must have a main vent line not less than three (3) inches in diameter. Where an additional closet is located in the cellar or basement and within ten feet of main soil or vent line no relief vent will be required for said closet but where it is more than ten feet a two-inch vent line will be required. Relief vent pipes for water-closets must not be less than two inches in diameter for a length of sixty-five feet and not less than three inches in diameter for more than sixty-five feet. In any house that has a three-inch vent through the roof a closet set on the first floor may be vented with a two-inch pipe.

No vent from traps under bell-trap will be required.

Any building having a sewer connection with a public or private sewer used for bell-trap connections or floor drainage only a two-inch relief line must be extended to the roof of building from rear end of main drain. House drains constructed for roof drainage only will not require a relief vent. All bell-traps floor drains or yard cesspools shall be connected to the sewer by means of a joint or connection that is as secure as the joints on the main drainage system. Slip joints putty joints or open joints will not be permitted on any part of the drainage system.

In the event that a building if higher than an adjoining one the owner of the higher building shall not locate windows within twelve (12) feet of any existing vent stack on the lower building unless the owner of such building shall defray the expense of or shall himself make such alteration necessary to extend the vent pipe above all windows on the higher building.

It shall be the duty of the owner of the lower or existing building to make such alteration therein upon the receipt in advance of money or security therefor sufficient for the purpose from the owner of the higher building or he shall permit at the election of the owner of the higher building the right to make such alteration by the owner of said higher building.

If the number of those fixtures on a branch is two (2) or more the waste line shall be extended as a loop vent instead of back venting the separate traps and when located in basement floor they shall be provided with a removable strainer or cleanout.

Back vent pipes from traps above the floor must either be connected with crown of trap with ground-in brass coupling or if connected solidly to trap must have a ground-in brass coupling at wall.

Section 19 That section thirty-eight of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Connection for Closet Vents

"Section 38 Rubber connections for back vents will not be permitted without double coupling and thimble inside" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Connection for Closet Vents

Section 38 All wrought iron or mild steel pipe used for soil waste or vent pipes shall be galvanized and not lighter than the commercial grade known as "Full weight" The fittings for wrought iron or mild steel waste soil and refrigerator waste shall be cast or malleable iron or brass recessed drainage fittings with smooth interior waterway and threads tapped out of solid metal so as to give a uniform grade to branches of not less than one-fourth of an inch per foot. Threaded fittings for soil waste and vent pipes shall be brass galvanized malleable iron or cast iron. All lead pipe used for branch soil waste vent or flush pipes shall be of best quality of drawn pipe of not less weight per lineal foot than shown in the following table

Internal Diameter		Weight per Ft.

Brass fittings shall be good quality cast brass having a thickness in their walls not less than the tubular thickness given above for the corresponding brass pipe. The thickness of the tapped ends to be one and one-half (1½) times the thickness of the corresponding pipe.

Kind of Traps Every trap shall be self-cleaning. No form which depends upon the action of movable parts for its seal shall be used. No trap which depends upon concealed interior partitions for its seal or which has an interior partition that in case of defect would allow the passage of sewer air shall be used.

Traps for bath tubs basins sinks or other similar fixtures shall be made of lead brass galvanized iron or of iron porcelain enameled inside. Galvanized or porcelain enameled iron traps shall be extra heavy full bore and have a smooth interior waterway and threads tapped out of solid metal.

Iron drum traps shall be made of extra heavy cast or malleable iron galvanized or porcelain enameled on the inside and the drum shall not exceed four (4) inches in diameter.

Drum traps shall have a water seal of not more than seven (7) inches nor less than two and one-half (2½) inches.

Water seal. Each trap placed on any portion of the drainage system shall have a water seal of not less than two and one-half (2½) inches.

Each trap except those in combination with fixtures where the trap seal is plainly visible and accessible shall be provided with a brass trap screw. Traps placed between the floor shall have a brass trap screw for cleaning in plain view or flush with the floor or readily accessible from or under the floor.

Trap levels and protection. All traps shall be rigidly supported and set true with respect to their water level and shall be so located as to protect their seals.

Traps prohibited on drains. There shall be no trap at the foot of soil or waste pipe stacks.

Section 20 That section forty-five of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Water-Closet Connections with Soil-Pipe

"Section 45 All earthenware traps must have heavy brass floor plates soldered to the lead bends and bolted to the trap flange and the joint made permanently secure and gas-tight" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Water-Closet Connection with Soil-Pipe

Section 45 Water-closets slop sinks clinic slop sinks pedestal urinals and all fixtures having integral traps shall be attached to the drainage system by means of a screw joint fitting or metal to metal joint or by means of a metal to metal or water sealed joint that is attached to the bowl trap in a permanent manner and so designed that any leakage between the bowl and the fixture will register upon the floor over which the bowl is placed this floor or wall connection shall be water sealed in such a manner that the seal will be replenished at each operation of the fixture.

Section 21 That section forty-six of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Water-Closets where Located

"Section 46 Water-closets must not be located in sleeping apartments nor in any room or compartment which has not direct communication with external air either by window or airshaft of at least four square feet" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Water-Closets where Located

Section 46 Water-closet apartments must not have direct communication with any dining room or kitchen nor shall any water-closet be placed in any dining room or kitchen Water-closet apartments must not be placed in a dining room kitchen or sleeping apartments nor have direct communication with a public dining room restaurant or kitchen nor be placed in any room or compartment which has not direct communication with external air either by window or air shaft of at least four square feet And when any window ventilating any water-closet compartment or bathroom opens directly into a vent shaft no window of any room other than water-closets bath-room or hall shall open into such vent shaft

Section 22 That section forty-seven of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Water-closets how Supplied

"Section 47 No water-closets except those placed in yards and flush meters volumeter or similar devices shall be supplied directly from the supply pipes" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Water-closets how Supplied

Section 47 All valves of flushing tanks shall be so fitted and adjusted as to prevent the waste of water

The water from flushing tanks shall be used for no other purposes nor will any stop be permitted in flush pipe

All water flushed plumbing fixtures shall be provided with pipes of ample size to furnish a sufficient quantity of water to thoroughly cleanse the bowl at each operation When filing plans the plumber shall furnish the plumbing inspector with a sketch or plan showing the size of the water pipe from the main to each water flushed plumbing fixture He shall furnish the plumbing inspector with all information regarding the size of the water main pressure in the water main or other source of supply The manner of tapping the water main and conducting the water into the building the height of the building the distance the fixtures are located above the water main the distance of the building from the source of supply together with any other information necessary to determine the size of pipe necessary to properly flush each fixture

He shall also furnish the plumbing inspector with a description of each and every fixture together with the information regarding the quantity of water necessary for each operation of such fixture and a description of a device by which the fixtures are being flushed From this information the chief plumbing inspector shall advise the size pipe to be used for supplying water to all fixtures in the building

It shall be the duty of the plumbing inspector to be positive that all plumbing fixtures are supplied with a sufficient quantity and volume of water to thoroughly cleanse the system and each fixture separately and if for any reason the plumber does not follow the advice of the plumbing inspector in regard to the size of the water pipe the plumber shall before a final certificate is issued change or alter the water piping system in such a manner that all fixtures can be effectually and satisfactorily flushed

Any and all water flushed plumbing fixtures that receive putrescible waste matter shall be so constructed and assembled that it will be impossible for any portion of the contents of the bowl to syphon or flow into the water supply pipes The plumbing inspector shall demand a sample of all water flushed fixtures installed under his jurisdiction including the bowl and flushing device and he shall make a vacuum test on the water supply of the assembled fixtures and be positive the contents of the bowl cannot syphon and be drawn into the water supply pipes

Section 23 That section forty-eight of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Water-closets

"Section 48 All water-closets must have flushing rim-bowls" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Water-closets

Section 48 A Materials All receptacles used for water-closets urinals or otherwise for the disposal of human excreta shall be either vitrified earthenware hard natural stone or cast iron white porcelain enameled or painted on the outside with at least three (3) coats of non-absorbent and non-corrosive paint

B Bowls The bowls and traps for all fixtures supplied with flushing rims shall be made in one piece and of such shape and form as to hold a sufficient quantity of water when filled up to the trap overflow so as to completely submerge any matter deposited in them and properly flush and scour the soil pipe when the contents of the bowl are discharged except that nothing in this section shall apply to latrine closets

C Open Plumbing All plumbing fixtures shall be installed or set free and open from all enclosing work and where possible all waste and discharge pipes from fixtures shall be run to the wall and the fixture supported independently from the floor

D Low Down Closets Water closets with low down tanks shall be of syphon pattern

E All water flushed fixtures of the flushing rim type must be provided with integral traps and be flushed by some method that will afford a sufficient quantity of water to thoroughly cleanse the bowl at each operation Such flushing device to be arranged in a manner that will provide a sufficient after-fill to completely seal the trap to the overflow line

F Visible Trap Seal All water-closets pedestal urinals hospital clinic slop sinks and flushing rim slop sinks shall be made in one piece with trap and bowl combined and arranged in such a manner that the water in the trap will be visible from the top of the fixture

G Flushing Rims All water-closets pedestal urinals flat back urinals clinic slop sinks and flushing slop sinks shall have flushing rims provided at the extreme top of the bowl The flushing rim shall be made without perceptible interior overhang The flushing outlets through which water is supplied for cleansing the interior of the bowl shall be the only openings above the water seal of the trap and these holes shall be so arranged that the entire inner surface of the bowl to its extreme top can be effectively scoured at each operation of the flushing device

H Concealed or Exposed Openings No concealed or exposed vent opening will be permitted on the house side of the water seal of any trap No opening shall be placed on the house side of any fixture having an integral flushing rim other than the openings necessary to flush and cleanse the bowl

Closets Prohibited No range closet-either wet or dry nor any evaporating system of closets shall be constructed or allowed inside of any building

Section 24 That section fifty-three of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Construction of Urinals

"Section 53 All urinals must be constructed of materials impervious to moisture and that will not corrode under the action of urine The floor and walls or urinal apartments must be lined with similar non-absorbent and non-corrosive material" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Construction of Urinals

Section 53 All urinals must be constructed of materials impervious to moisture and that will not corrode under the action of urine and must be flushing rim or perforated pipe so as to cleanse all interior parts all urinals must be supplied by automatic tanks or flush valves The floor and walls of urinal apartments must be lined with similar non-absorbent and non-corrosive material

Section 25 That section fifty-four of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Urinal Platforms

"Section 54 The platforms or treads of urinal stalls must not be connected independently to the plumbing system nor can they be connected to any safe waste pipe" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Urinal Platforms

Section 54 The platforms or treads of urinal stalls must not be connected to the plumbing or drainage system nor can they be connected to any safe-waste-pipe

Section 26 That section fifty-seven of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Flush Pipes

"Section 57 Water-closet flush pipes must not be less than one and one-quarter inches and urinal flush pipes one-half inch in diameter" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Flush Pipes

Section 57 All flushing rim water supplied fixtures such as water-closets clinic slop sinks pedestal and flat back urinals and slop sinks shall be provided with a trap that has a two and one-half depth of water seal The depth of this seal shall be determined by sealing the waste outlet and attaching a guage provided with a "U" shapes glass tube and a registering device

Each and every bowl of this nature installed in any building shall show a depth of water seal equalling a column of two and one-half (2½) inches of water displaced on one side of the "U" shaped tube above the normal level of the water it shall be the duty of the department of health to supply such testing apparatus and any person wishing to install a fixture of this kind shall when requested furnish a sample bowl or bowls for inspection and approval by the plumbing inspector and no such bowl shall be installed which does not show a two and one-half inch water seal The seal of all traps other than those combined with the fixture may be measured with an ordinary rule but if for any reason the plumbing inspector doubts the depth of seal in any trap he can demand the same to be tested in the same manner as provided for closets

Section 27 That section fifty-eight of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Lining for Closet and Urinal Cisterns

"Section 58 The copper lining of water-closet and urinal cisterns must not be lighter than twelve-ounce copper and must be stamped on lining with maker's name Where lead is used for lining it must not weigh less than four pounds to the square foot. All other materials are prohibited" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Lining for Closet and Urinal Closets

Section 58 The wainscoting of all toilet rooms shall be set directly against the building partitions and in no case shall a utility corridor or pipe space having an opening at the top communicate with any other room. The partitions of all utility corridors or pipe spaces which occur back of any water closets or urinals shall extend from the floor to the ceiling and have separate door opening from the corridor or toilet room into the utility chamber.

All such pipe spaces shall be at least thirty (30) inches wide throughout their length and shall be provided with a window twenty-four by sixty (24 x 60) inches said window to connect with the open air and so placed that it will admit daylight into the utility corridor.

To avoid maintaining a nuisance the owner of any building containing a utility corridor or pipe space shall have same thoroughly washed and cleaned at least once every ten (10) days and failure to comply with this section shall be considered a misdemeanor.

Provision shall be made to avoid damage to drainage system caused by expansion or contraction of the pipes in buildings of extreme height. Such devices or methods shall be subject to the approval of the health department.

Section 28 That section sixty of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which as amended by said act of May fourteenth nineteen hundred and nine reads as follows

Yard Water-Closets

"Section 60 Water-closets when located in yard must be so arranged as to be conveniently and adequately flushed and the water-supply pipes and traps protected from freezing by being placed in a hopper-pit at least four feet below the surface of the ground the walls of which pit shall be constructed of hard burned brick or stone laid in cement mortar or of concrete. The walls for pit where one (1) closet is installed may be four (4) inches in thickness or salt-glazed sewer-pipe thirty-six (36) inches in diameter may be used.

Where pit is for more than one (1) closet the walls shall be nine (9) inches in thickness. The soil-pipes and traps used inside pit must be extra heavy cast-iron and the trap to have hand-hole for cleanout purposes with cleanout caulked in. If the closet is located in the rear of a soil or vent-pipe the drain on which it is located shall be vented with a four-inch pipe carried above roof of closet away from any opening or window. All outside closets shall be of the tank pattern. The water to be supplied to tank through an automatic seat-action valve. The waste from valve may be permitted to discharge on cement floor of pit which shall be provided with four-inch trap and strainer. The enclosure of yard water-closets shall be ventilated by slatted openings and there shall be a trap door of sufficient size to permit of convenient access to the hopper-pit" be and the same is hereby further amended to read as follows

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, June 20, 1917.

The House met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

The Chaplain, Rev. S. G. Zerfass, offered the following prayer:

O God, who has spared our lives through another night and brought us to a new morning, seal to us Thy new mercy by new gifts of grace. May we never grieve Thee by coldness, by unfaithfulness, by ingratitude, by unbelief or by want of love. Prepare us now by Thy Spirit for all the duties of the day and for all its vicissitudes. Grant that our path through gloom shall lead to joy and peace. Our blessing lies beyond the hour of trial, our crown beyond the cross. Let us not falter in any experience. We pray that the world will not have dominion over us. Help us to fix our eyes on the heavenly hills and press onward to the glory that waits for us there. O grant Thy blessing and life eternal. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings, when, on motion of Mr. Fretz, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Mr. WOODWARD offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, June 19, 1917.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 1424, File Folio 9163, entitled "An Act for the imposition and collection of certain inheritance taxes," which has passed both branches of the Legislature and is now in the hands of the Governor, be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 640.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee on Conference on Senate Bill No. 640, File Folio 4709.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Report of the Committee of Conference.

The Clerk read the report as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 640.

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering Senate Bill No. 640, entitled "An Act to amend sections three, four, five, six and eleven of an act approved the twentieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, entitled 'An Act requiring cities of the first class to establish a pension fund for employees of said cities and all county or other public employees, if any, paid by appropriation of the city councils thereof and out of the treasury of said cities, and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions,' " respectfully submit the following bill as our report.

EDWARD W. PATTON,

AUGUSTUS F. DAIX, JR.,

EDWIN H. VARE,

Committee on the part of the Senate.

JAMES A. WALKER,

BENJ. M. GOLDBER,

JEFFERSON W. SMITH,

Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.

An Act to amend sections three four five six and eleven of an act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen entitled "An Act requiring cities of the first class to establish a pension fund for employees of said cities and all county or other public employees if any paid by appropriation of the city councils thereof and out of the treasury of said cities and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions"

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section three of an act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred sixty-six) entitled "An Act requiring cities of the first class to establish a pension fund for employees of said cities and all county or other public employees if any paid by appropriation of the city councils thereof and out of the treasury of said cities and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions" which reads as follows

"Section 3 Every person now or hereafter employed by the said cities or paid out of the city treasury thereof as hereinabove provided if any of the age of sixty years and upwards who shall have been so employed for a period of twenty years or more shall upon application to the board of pensions herein created be retired from service and shall during the remainder of his or her life receive a pension or compensation fixed by this act subject to such qualifications as are herein contained" be amended to read as follows

Section 3 Every person now or hereafter employed by the said cities or paid out of the city treasury thereof as hereinabove provided if any of the age of sixty years and upwards who shall have been so employed for a period of twenty years or more shall upon application to the board of pensions herein created be retired from service and shall during the remainder of his or her life receive a pension or compensation fixed by this act subject to such qualifications as are herein contained Provided That if any person or persons had been employed by the said cities for a period covering eighteen years or more prior to the passage of this act and shall thereafter be re-employed it shall be necessary that the period of their re-employment shall extend over a period of two years or more before such person or persons shall be entitled to receive the pension fixed by this act

"Section 4 During the lifetime of the said person he or she shall be entitled to receive as a pension annually from the fund set aside for the purpose fifty per centum of the amount which would constitute the average annual salary or wages which he or she received during the last five years of his or her employment by the said city or other public employment as aforesaid Said pension to be paid in monthly payments Should any person so employed after twenty years of service be dismissed voluntarily retire or be in any manner deprived of his position or employment before attaining the age of sixty years upon continuing a monthly payment to the fund equal to the last amount due and paid monthly while in active service said person shall be entitled to the pension above mentioned notwithstanding he or she has not attained the age of sixty years at the time of his or her separation from the public service but said pension shall not commence until he or she has attained the age of sixty years Should any employee however become totally and permanently disabled after twenty years of service and before attaining the age of sixty years he or she shall be entitled to the said pension Proof of total and permanent disability shall consist of the sworn statement of three practicing physicians designated by the board that the employee is in a permanent condition of health which would totally disable him or her from performing the duties of his or her position or office The pension paid to any one employee shall not exceed one hundred dollars per month" be amended to read as follows

Section 4 During the lifetime of the said person he or she shall be entitled to receive a pension from the fund set aside for the purpose of fifty per centum of the amount which would constitute the average rate of pay at which he or she was employed during the last five years of his or her employment by the said city or other public employment as aforesaid Said pension shall be paid in monthly payments Provided That if any pension be granted to a person who has not been a contributor to the pension fund as herein provided during a period of twenty years such person shall be required to pay unto the board of pensions monthly an amount equal to four per centum of his or her pension until such time as his or her contribution shall have extended during a period of twenty years Should any person so employed after twenty years of service be dismissed voluntarily retire or be in any manner deprived of his position or employment before attaining the age of sixty years upon continuing a monthly payment to the fund equal to the last amount due and paid monthly while in active service said person shall be entitled to a pension above mentioned notwithstanding he or she has not attained the age of sixty years at the time of his or her separation from the public service but said pension shall not commence until he or she has attained the age of sixty years Should any employee however become totally and permanently disabled after twenty years of service and before attaining the age of sixty years he or she shall be entitled to the said pension Proof of total and permanent disability shall consist of the sworn statement of three practicing physicians designated by the board that the employee is in a permanent condition of health which would totally disable him or her from performing the duties of his or her position or office The pension paid to any one employee shall not exceed one hundred dollars per month

Section 3 That section five of said act which reads as follows

"Section 5 The city county or other public employees if any herein mentioned shall after the passage of this act pay unto the board of pensions monthly an amount equal to two per centum of their monthly salaries or wages—in no event however paying at a rate greater than four dollars a month—which shall be applied to the purposes of this act Payment of the monthly amount or contribution herein mentioned shall cease and be discontinued at the time the beneficiary receives the pension herein provided If for any cause an employee contributing to the pension fund shall cease to be an employee of any such cities of the first class or other county or public employees paid out of the treasury of such cities before said employee becomes entitled to the pension conferred by this act the total amount of the contributions paid into the pension fund by such employee shall be refunded to him in full without interest Provided however if any such employee shall have returned to him or her the amount contributed as aforesaid and shall afterward re-enter such public employment said employee shall not be entitled to the pension designated until twenty years after the said re-employment unless he or she shall return to the pension fund the amount withdrawn in which event the period of twenty years shall be computed from the time said employee first entered the such public service In the event of the death of any employee before the said employee becomes entitled to the pension aforesaid the said total amount of contributions aforesaid shall be paid over to the estate of said deceased employees" be amended to read as follows

Section 5 The city county or other public employees if any herein mentioned shall after the passage of this act pay unto the board of pensions monthly an amount equal to four per centum of their monthly salaries or wages—in no event however paying at a rate greater than four dollars a month—which shall be applied to the purposes of this act Payment of the monthly amount or contribution herein mentioned shall cease and be discontinued at the time the beneficiary receives the pension herein provided if such beneficiary has so contributed to the pension fund during a period of twenty years If at the time the beneficiary receives the pension herein provided he or she shall not have been a contributor to the pension fund during a period of twenty years such person shall be required to pay unto the board of pensions an amount equal to two per centum of his or her monthly pension until such time as his or her contribution shall have extended during a period of twenty years If for any cause an employee contributing to the pension fund shall cease to be an employee of any such cities of the first class or other county or public employees paid out of the treasury of such cities before said employee becomes entitled to the pension conferred by this act the total amount of the contributions paid into the pension fund by such employee shall be refunded to him in full without interest Provided however if any such employee shall have returned to him or her the amount contributed as aforesaid and shall afterward re-enter such public employment said employee shall not be entitled to the pension designated until twenty years after the said re-employment unless he or she shall return to the pension fund the amount withdrawn in which event the period of twenty years shall be computed from the time said employee first entered the such public service In the event of the death of any employee before the said employee becomes entitled to the pension aforesaid the said total amount of contributions aforesaid shall be paid over to the estate of said deceased employee

Section 4 That section six of said act which reads as follows

"Section 6 Should any person holding position in said cities of the first class or any county or other public employees if any paid out of the treasury of such cities as aforesaid be paid a per diem wage he or she shall not be compelled to pay or contribute toward the pension fund herein provided for but shall have the option or choice of so doing and in that event only becoming entitled to the pension provided by this act" be amended to read as follows

Section 6 Should any person holding position in said cities of the first class or any county or other public employees if any paid out of the treasury of such cities as aforesaid be paid a per diem wage or a salary at a rate of three hundred and sixty dollars each year or less he or she shall not be compelled to pay or contribute toward the pension fund herein provided for but shall have the option or choice of so doing and in that event only becoming entitled to the pension provided by this act

Section 5 That section eleven of said act which reads as follows

"Section 11 The time of service herein specified namely twenty years shall be computed from the time of the first or original employment said employment to consist of service either to such cities or to the county or other public service paid out of the city treasury or both as aforesaid and need not be continuous No pensions shall be paid under the provisions of this act however until after January first one thousand nine hundred and seventeen" be amended to read as follows

Section 11 The time of service herein specified namely twenty years shall be computed from the time of the first or original employment said employment to consist of service either to such cities or to the county or other public service paid out of the city treasury or both as aforesaid and need not be continuous Provided That in no case shall a period of more than eighteen years be credited to the service record of any person or persons who shall be employed after the passage of this act and who shall have been employed by the said cities prior to the passage of this act No pensions shall be paid under the provisions of this act however until after January first one thousand nine hundred and seventeen

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

House Bill No. 1486.

An Act amendatory of an act entitled "An Act providing for the escheat of deposits of money or property of another received for storage or safe-keeping the dividends profits debts and interest on debts of corporations companies banks trust companies insurance companies limited partnerships and partnership associations organized under the laws of this Commonwealth except mutual saving-fund society not having a capital stock represented by shares and except also building and loan associations and property held for the benefit of another by the same and the profits accretions and interest on such property as well as interest thereon accrued or which should have accrued between the fixing of the amount of such property by the award of any court and the actual distribution thereof" approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen pamphlet laws page eight hundred seventy-eight amending the title thereof amending section six of said act relating to the advertisement of notice of the report of money and property under the provisions of the act and amending sections two seven eight and eleven thereof so as to provide more effectually for the escheat of certain property and trust and other funds and moneys the owners or the beneficial owners of which or the whereabouts thereof have been unknown for seven or more successive years.

With information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments. The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend the title, on page 2, line 6, by striking out the word "one."

Amend section 1, page 3, line 11, by striking out after the word "Commonwealth" the words "except saving funds, saving institutions and saving banks," and insert in lieu thereof the words "except mutual saving fund societies not having a capital stock represented by shares."

Strike out all of section 2, and renumber succeeding sections.

In new section 2 insert after line 25 the words "of January in each year of all moneys or other estate."

In new section 4, page 10, line 20, after the first word "a" strike out the words "saving fund, saving institution or a savings bank," and insert in lieu thereof the words "mutual saving fund society not having a capital stock represented by shares."

Same section, page 11, line 27, after the word "made" strike out the words "in the manner prescribed by law for service on non-resident defendants in equity cases except that the advertisements shall be in the form directed by the court and need not contain any order or other paper in full," and insert in lieu thereof the following: "By publication for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the debtor is resident or has its principal office and also when practicable for the same period in such a newspaper published in the county within or without the Commonwealth where when last heard from by the debtor the creditor had his residence Such other and further publication may be made as the court may in its discretion direct Such publication shall be in such form as the court shall direct and need not contain any order or other paper in full."

On the question,
Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, the amendments are entirely satisfactory to the sponsor.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2048, entitled

An Act to amend an act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen entitled "An Act providing for the creation and administration of a State Fund for the insurance of compensation for injuries to employees of subscribers thereto declaring false oaths by the subscribers to be misdemeanors and providing penalties for the violation thereof."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on Third Reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JAMES O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, this is an appropriation for the State Insurance Fund. I wish to make a statement and then interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Woodward. I understand there has been a similar bill to this introduced in the Senate and because of some objections that were made to the bill there has been some agreement reached in the Senate as to these objections. Amendments were offered or are to be offered, and I would like to ask the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, Mr. Woodward, if this is correct?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, there has been a similar bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Sproul. The idea of introducing it in both Houses was to facilitate its passage and probably make one day on it.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, would the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee assure the House that the same amendments will be introduced there and briefly outline what these amendments will be?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, I can assure the members of no amendments except corrective amendments or when there are errors in printing.

Mr. JAMES O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I wish to call the attention of the House to the fact that this is the appropriation which is made to the State Insurance Fund; that is the Workmen's Compensation Insurance Fund, and that there are two amendments to that Act as passed in 1915 which are contained in this bill. The first one provides that the Insurance Board shall have power to lay and collect additional premiums when found necessary to meet the demands of such funds; and the other amendment provides that the expenses of the Insurance Fund in cases of the amount appropriated directly for that purpose shall be paid out of the State Workmen's Compensation Fund. The objection that is raised to the first amendment is upon the grounds that it would make uncertainty as to the premium that would be ultimately charged or might be ultimately charged by the Insurance Fund for insurance in the State's Insurance Fund. In other words, it introduces a species of mutual insurance, because a man insuring in an old line company has his premium fixed and there is no provision for an extra assessment, so far as I know of. Whereas, a man insuring in the State Fund, if this bill should become a law, might be subject to additional assessment. The objection to the second section is that it has not repealed the provisions of another section of the bill which distinctly specifies the manner in which the money for the insurance is to be paid, and this provides a contradiction. Personally, I think there may be some doubt about that objection, that contention, but in order to clear up any doubt the other section should be amended so as to conform with this section. I believe the House should understand what the provisions of this bill are. I don't know what is back of it. I do know that the original intention was that the State Insurance Fund should be helped along by the State for a period of years. I believe it was made to be self-supporting and I heartily agree with the idea that the Insurance Fund should be self-supporting if it is at all possible to make it so.

But I believe also that it would be wiser to adhere to the original plans and give the Insurance Department of the Workmen's Compensation Board an opportunity to establish that fund upon a solid basis. Personally I do not believe that the House should pass this bill unless we are assured these amendments are to be put in in the Senate, as was indicated in the newspaper this morning.

MR. RAMSEY IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to explain to the members of this House the purposes of this bill. They are to enable the Insurance Fund to become self-supporting, and it will, after the first of the year, as I understand it, put them in shape so that it will not be necessary for the Legislature from time to time to appropriate money for the support of this Fund.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Butler, who I think is acquainted with the Act of 1915, it is specifically stated in that act that there should be no responsibility upon the state other than the amount provided under the act of 1915. The amount provided in that act was $300,000. It has been found that $300,000, in the opinion of the department, would not be sufficient to carry on the requirements of the act up to the end of the period of 1919 as provided for in the act. In other words, the act of 1915 specifically stated that the state could assume no responsibility other than the $300,000. The Act of 1915 did not permit the Insurance Department to use or appropriate any of the money secured for the premiums. It was an act that was contradictory and impracticable. First, mark you, it stated no other responsibility shall be assumed by the State other than the $300,000; next it stated that the state should assume no responsibility in excess of $300,000. By experience it was found that $300,000 was not sufficient, consequently they came before this House and asked that an additional $250,000 be appropriated. Now the House had to either appropriate $250,000 out of the state's revenues or amend this bill in the manner that it is now amended, namely, if we are not willing to give $250,000 the amount they thought necessary, then we must enable them to go somewhere else to get the money. Under the Act of 1915 they were tied hand and foot, and unless something is done here to enable them to get money, why of course the department will break down. In the judgment of the Appropriation Committee it was believed it would be possible to amend the bill so as to make it practical.

Now so far as the question of levying additional premiums is concerned, every person in this House recognizes that if this state is going to have its reputation at stake, as to whether it be able to pay the promises that it makes to the injured, if the promise is not made to the insured, because under the provisions of the act, if the insurer insures in the state department, then the insurer assumes the losses or the responsibility, and the responsibilities rest upon the state. Presuming that at the end of the year the department found that there had not been an assessment levied heavy enough to pay the expenses of the department, then the injured who are supposed to be provided for by this act will be the loser, and not the insurer. Consequently in my judgment, it was a grave error when the bill was first made, that it was not drawn upon practical lines, namely, that if the insurers behind them have not been levying premiums sufficient to carry out the provisions of the act, then the injured workman fails to get his recompense with this provision in the act, then the department has to require the insurer to pay sufficient money into the department to pay the injured. Now that is all there is in this bill. If the House thinks it is unwise then it ought to vote against the bill. If the House thinks it wise, and I do not believe there is a business man who would place his insurance where he knew on the face of it that there was a possibility that the policy might not be paid, you should vote for it. Under the present conditions, the law of 1915 was a mistake in the form in which it was drawn. Fortunately, there has been sufficient money in the revenues provided by the premiums to pay all of the losses, and in all probability there never will be a time when the judgment of this department will be in error to the extent of requiring additional premiums. This is one of those remedial pieces of legislation, that provides against the possibilities of the future, and to my mind really this is the only proper way to have the bill and the only practical way. It is the result of experience that leads us to conclude that we ought to provide against possibilities and uncertainties. It does not mean that the department will levy additional premiums, but it does them the right to do it in case they do not have the money. Now who needs the relief in case they do not have the money? not the insurer, but the injured man, we are here trying to take care of. I would be glad to answer any question.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BALDWIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Delaware if, in his opinion, the proper way of increasing the State Insurance Fund is not by increasing the premiums rather than levying an additional premium.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, as I previously stated, the men that are managing that department, in my judgment will not make a mistake in levying the proper premium. In the past year they turned back a return premium of fifteen per cent. As I stated before, this act does not require that an additional premium shall be collected, but only if it is necessary in the good judgment of the department. As you men all know, insurance is one of the very uncertain things. In this State this State may be affected by a calamity hazard, that is, they may have insured in a great mining district hundreds and thousands of men. They may be struck with a calamity, and without some provisions the injured men would go unpaid. This is simply putting that power in the bill that should have been given when the bill was first written. I do not believe there is a business man in any business affair or any banking concern or anything of that kind who does not look to and provide for any contingency or anything unusual. That is what this bill does. It does not say that they shall levy an additional premium, it simply gives them that power if the time should come when it would be necessary to have the money to pay the insured. This is dealing with the insured, not the insurer. If you have read the statute, you will find that the insurers in the State fund are exempt from any risk, consequently it is the injured that suffer if there is not sufficient revenue, and not the insurer.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I understood the gentleman to say that they are asking for an additional appropriation of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Do I understand him that that is to meet a deficiency?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I might say to the House that at the close of the first year—and the figures given to the committee evidently are correct—that the expenses of that department were a fraction over a hundred and thirty-nine thousand dollars. Now when this Legislature adjourns it will be two years before it meets again, and consequently they felt that they ought to have a fund of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. At the hearing they felt that the State would be doing its share if it would give an additional fifty thousand dollars and make these amendments to the act, and let the department be self-supporting.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BALDWIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, there was a sum of three hundred thousand dollars appropriated in 1915 to bear the expense of the Insurance Fund, of the Compensation Fund. I would like to know how long that was assumed to be sufficient to bear the expense.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman being located in the rear of the hall, he probably did not catch all that I said. I said that if any member of the House would read the act of 1915 he would find that it is specifically stated that no more than that hereinafter appropriated, no other responsibility shall the State assume, namely, the three hundred thousand dollars. It was specifically stated in the act of 1915 that the State should assume no other responsibility. Of course, one Legislature cannot bind another, but they had the right to present to this Legislature, notwithstanding the language of the act of 1915, a request for an additional sum. The result of that request and at a hearing the conclusion was reached by them that with fifty thousand dollars taken out of the State's revenues this year and with the amendments to this act, that the Fund could then get along.

Mr. MITCHELL. Is it not a fact that this three hundred thousand dollars was assumed to be sufficient to bear the expenses of this Fund until 1919?

Mr. BALDWIN. It was evidently considered so, because it was so written.

Mr. MITCHELL. Is it not a fact that this has fallen short, and that they need an additional appropriation?

Mr. BALDWIN. They have not fallen short this year. Now, in the first year they used a hundred and thirty-nine odd thousand dollars but they felt that the balance would not carry them until 1919, as provided in the act.

Mr. MITCHELL. Is it not a fact that they will have to levy an assessment in a short time if the appropriation of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars is not made?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would say to the gentleman that the funds last year amounted to over eight hundred thousand dollars. Fifteen per cent. of that would be, I believe, about one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars. They paid back to the people in dividends fifteen per cent. Consequently if they did not pay any dividends back they will have more than enough without increasing the price of the insurance.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether he does not believe that the provisions of this act now before the House, giving to the Insurance Fund of the Compensation Department the right to make assessments, will not put the Insurance Fund out of business in the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I thought I stated that very plainly, I thought I had stated it plainly to the House that in my judgment, borne out by my confidence in the department at the present time and in the future, that they would do what they did in the past, namely, levy a sum sufficient beyond all doubt to pay all claims of the department; and that is borne out by the fact that in the past year they did levy a premium which permitted them to pay all claims, provide a reserve for the year and give back fifteen per cent. of the premium charged. I made it as plain as could be that the insurance business, being a hazardous business, that if they tied the department up as the act of 1915 did, and left them obligated to the injured, and tied them hand and foot so that they could not require the insurers to pay the additional premium, the insured or injured would suffer. This act would give the department the right, if a calamity occurred, an unusual one, to see that the insurers paid the balance so that the insured could be paid for their injuries. Surely there can be no harm in giving to the department the right to do that which was in the mind of the Legislature, namely, that the injured under certain circumstances, in the State of Pennsylvania were entitled to certain compensation. If you do not permit them to go into the State revenues and do not permit them to collect a sufficient sum by premium, then the insured sufferers and no one else.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. BALDWIN. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know whether the amount of the appropriation is only fifty thousand dollars that is being appropriated?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, these two gentlemen are carrying on a conversation between themselves in the back of the House, which many of the members are unable to hear and I think it should cease and we should go on with other business.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman rise to a point of order?

Mr. MILLIRON. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken. The gentleman from Jefferson has the right to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware and that is what he is proceeding to do. If the House would maintain proper order, no doubt all the members could hear the discussion.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like the gentleman from Jefferson to state his question again.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know from the gentleman from Delaware what amount is being appropriated to this department.

Mr. BALDWIN. I am going to say, Mr. Speaker, that that is a proposition that I do not think he ought to put up to the gentleman from Delaware. That is bringing up a question that is for the membership of this entire House. It will be before the House for consideration, I presume, within a day or two, and, of course, I know the gentleman from Jefferson did not want me to answer what that amount will be. The conversation, I would say, before the Appropriation Committee upon the part of the department was that they felt that fifty thousand dollars additional would carry them over.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, my object in interrogating the gentleman from Delaware was not for the purpose of heckling him or anything of that kind, but for the purpose of getting information. I would dislike very much to have this House do anything at this time relative to the Insurance Fund of the Compensation Department that would injure that fund and make it impossible for them to test out the question of whether or not they can become self-sustaining. I understand, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, that in 1915 it was estimated that three hundred thousand dollars would be sufficient to carry the Insurance Fund of the Compensation Department until such time as it would become self-sustaining. The question as to whether or not that was inserted in the act has nothing to do with the proposition today as the Session of 1915 could not bind the Session of 1917.

The Insurance Fund of the Compensation Department is designed to take care of the injured workmen of the State of Pennsylvania and it was supposed or intended that it would become self-sustaining after a certain period of time and that the State should sustain it with appropriations until that time and we should be very careful, gentlemen of the House, that in passing this bill and, in effect making that Insurance Fund or the Insurance Department of the Compensation Fund an assessment insurance department instead of an old line insurance fund, that we do not do something here that might put them out of business entirely. That is why I have been asking these questions. I do not know myself at this time just what effect this will have but I fear it will have a bad effect upon the Insurance Fund of the Compensation Department and that we will do something here that will be a great injury to those who are depending upon it. We should give them a chance, and, in my opinion, we should make an appropriation at this session of the Legislature to bridge them over until 1919, the period of time contemplated in 1915. We should not pass this act to make them an assessment insurance fund and that is what it will do.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this bill will not put the Insurance Fund out of business. We have appropriated fifty thousand dollars to carry that fund on until the first of the year, and then we amended the Act so that at any time, following the signature of the Governor to this bill, the Fund will be able to draw on the premium fund for its expenses. It will not put the Fund out of business.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to say, in answer to my friend from Jefferson, that the fund at the present time is an assessment insurance company and can be changed any year; and more than that, to my mind, and I think to the mind of any practical person who will read the Act of 1915, they can, under that Act, now levy additional assessments, for it clearly states within the Act that they can from time to time change the amount of the premium. That is the language of the Act of 1915. Some say that that does not give them the right to levy an additional assessment during that year, but I do not know what the English language stands for if it does not do so in effect if it uses the words "from time to time." Why, as a matter of fact this fund is not tied up in saying what the premium shall be one year as to what it will be the next. It is now in the nature of assessments which everybody knows. It simply gives them the right to do it if they want to and as I see it, it enlarges the rights and powers of this very department.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I cannot agree with the gentleman from Delaware that the Act of 1915 gives the Insurance Department of the Compensation Fund the right to change the premium at any time during the year or make assessments. It does give them the right to change the amount of the premium they would charge at the beginning of any year and issue rates and schedules for that purpose, but it does not authorize and empower them to change these premiums after they set the amount at the beginning of the year.

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that the objection to this amendment raised by our good friend, Mr. Campbell, is absolutely fundamental, and that is this. I do not believe that this State Insurance Fund should have the right to levy assessments when that provision is not found in the ordinary policy issued by the average casualty insurance company. Everybody knows, as a matter of fact, that if under the State Compensation arrangement they should be allowed to levy an additional assessment, that the party who is about to insure would give the State Insurance Fund the "go-bye" and go to the other casualty insurance companies in the State which in their policies do not provide for the levying of the additional assessment. I cannot conceive of any better way to relegate the State Fund to the wood pile or to the side-track than by providing that the State Insurance Fund may make assessments when the average casualty insurance company does not ask for nor does it enjoy any such right.

Now, it is true that the Act of 1915 provided that the premium might be changed from time to time but not, but not, gentlemen of the House, during the period in which the contract was in force because, very properly, that would be an invasion of the right of contract and could not be sustained. If the State Insurance Fund does raise its premiums then the insured reserves the right to himself to go somewhere else where he can get his insurance cheaper, and it is a matter of common experience that if you are about to insure in a company which you found was allowed to levy an assessment you would go to another company which would give you a flat rate and you would go to the latter because you want to know with some certainty what amount you will have to pay. You would not want to be confronted with the proposition that they could charge you from five to ten or fifteen to twenty per cent. or ad libitum, depending upon the humor of the party who was insuring you. It seems to me that is the fundamental objection to this amendment.

I think that the average insured would want to get away from the Insurance Fund of the State and from the possibility that he may be charged a sum which may be changed from day to day or from month to month.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Stites, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that the statutes of the State today say that the State shall assume no liability other than the three hundred thousand dollars appropriated two years ago?

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, I think that is true.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, then that is a fact?

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, I think that is true.

Mr. BALDWIN. Then I would like to ask the gentleman where the money is to come from to pay the injured for this department?

Mr. STITES. That is the business of the Legislature.

Mr. BALDWIN. I hold that it comes from the premiums paid in, and it was never in the thought of the makers of the Compensation Law that the State should be called upon to pay for it—to pay for injury. It was the intention and the thought surely of the Legislature that that loss should be paid by the insurer.

Mr. STITES. That is correct, but the idea of the three hundred thousand was to give the State Insurance Fund a proper start two years ago.

Mr. BALDWIN. The gentleman has not answered my question. I will put that question to the membership of this House and I will depend upon their good judgment that if the State is not going to assume any of the liability of the injured then the State should provide a law whereby they can be compensated, and that is a principle that no man in this House will deny. I believe that it was in the thought of the House that they had framed these laws so the injured would be protected and I know it was the thought of many members when we said they could change from day to day and that it was a practical proposition which provided for the injured. You will have to do one of two things. Certainly you are not going to have insurance connected with the State of Pennsylvania wherein the injured are not receiving compensation in accordance with their contract and according to the laws of our State. Either say that the State does assume the liability to make good what the fund is small or not sufficient, or you should say that those who administer the fund should have the power to collect sufficient from the insurers to pay the losses. That is a fundamental business practice and that is all that this amendment does to this bill.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Stites, desire the floor?

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, I thought the gentleman from Delaware was about to ask me a question, but he simply wanted to make a speech.

Mr. BALDWIN. That is my privilege.

Mr. JAMES O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I am in agreement with the gentleman from Delaware on some of the propositions stated by him. I believe the intention of the Legislature two years ago was that the Insurance Fund should become self-supporting; I certainly believe it should become so. When we had two years the proposition of getting that Fund started, we made an appropriation of three hundred thousand dollars providing that Fund should fix the premium that should be charged for insurance and that money was thus taken. Those premiums were assessed and collected and at the end of the year, as I understand the situation, the Insurance Fund found with the income of their premiums plus the appropriations of the State that they had enough money to divide fifteen per cent. That return to the premium holders should never have been made. Now we have to start at the beginning again; we have to start again as we did two years ago when our idea was to make some provision and when it was necessary to have that Fund. It is correct that the insurers should pay the loss just as any other insurance company does. Where I differ with the gentleman from Delaware, is that we should pay these losses. They should be levied at the time the premiums are fixed, as any other insurance company does, and that there should not be a provision here for additional assessments during the year. I contend that that act does not provide for the levying of additional assessments during the policy term. If it did it could not be sustained unless as a contract of insurance between the State and the individual it provided for such additional assessment, because the United States Constitution would prevent any such proceedings unless it became a part of the contract, because it is a contract between the State and the individual policy holder. If we provide for an additional assessment here; if we include this provision for an assessment during the policy year—is it not true that we make a mutual company out of this and that any prospective insurer must choose between an old line company in which his assessment is fixed at the beginning of the year and a species of mutual companies in which he is liable to an assessment by a company that is insuring all of the poorer risks that are in the State? What man in this House would want to insure in a mutual company that is insuring all classes of risks that old line companies won't take? I cannot but say that it is a very unwise provision.

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker, I am the author of the appropriation bill for this Fund and will state that the bill provided for two hundred and fifty thousand dollars to meet the expenses for the next two fiscal years. After careful investigation it was found that there was still sixty thousand dollars in the Fund and only yesterday the Attorney for this Department came over to talk with me on this matter. I asked him at that time whether if you use the sixty thousand dollars now in the treasury and receive the fifty thousand dollars provided for by the amended appropriation bill and the Woodward Bill becomes a law, do you feel that the Department will become self-supporting in 1918, and he replied to me, "We are satisfied that with the proposition as it now stands if the Woodward Bill becomes a law." I felt it was only just to make this explanation which I have from the attorney of the department.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Huntingdon intended to say $160,000 instead of $60,000.

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker, $160,000.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BALDWIN. Surely, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know whether or not as a practical business proposition the passage of this act would not keep a great many employers from insuring in the Workmen's Compensation Fund?

Mr. BALDWIN. Well of course, Mr. Speaker, I cannot answer for the thoughts in other men's minds, but I would myself insure quicker with this provision in than I would with it out. That may be perhaps because of the fact that I have had a great deal of experience in insurance, and I realize that a reserve is the thing looked for when I place an insurance policy, because the reserve guarantees me that my loss will be paid. The state under its present conditions,—if you would approach a man with experience who has looked carefully into the proposition he would realize that it was not carefully protecting the injured under the present law, because if the analysis of my two legal friends is correct that the language in the present bill does not permit assessments, and suppose in the past year there has been a calamity hazard, and that fund would have been called on to pay a great deal more money than the premiums provided for, then I want to know how the injured would have been paid? They would have had to come into this Legislature to appropriate money directly out of the state treasury to pay for the losses, and not for the expenses of conducting the department, but for the losses directly. Surely business men will ask for that flexibility in any law that makes it practical. I believe the flexibility was in the act that the language that changed the premiums from time to time meant that if a calamity came, the call upon the front was greater than the premium it produced. Now I want some member of this House to tell me what would have happened? Why the men that runs knows what would happen. Either the Legislature would have to go into the state treasure to provide the funds, or else the injured would not have been recompensed as provided for under the act. And when we say to the members of this House that if you would put this flexibility in the law that a careful business man would demand in placing insurance on his own property, he never would place a dollar of insurance in this fund. It is to make it practical, and make it so that the business men can see that it is properly secured and that the injured will be paid. Defeat this bill today and let me tell you right now that you will find that this department will be hand strong. Now mark what I tell you. You must give this as a business proposition sufficient money to pay its premiums, and if under the present act and under the interpretation of my two legal friends, there is not sufficient money to do this where will the money come from, unless there is an appropriation or else to compel the insurers to bear the burden. Now I will let that up any practical man in this House.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Delaware say that the average business man would insure in any insurance fund or company where he had an expectation of being assessed additionally?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would say to my friend from Philadelphia that there is, I suppose, not a business man in the length and breadth of this great state that does not know that there are hundreds of small insurance companies and that they carry billions of dollars of risks at the present time. There is not a member in the House that does not know it. There is not a community in the whole of our state that does not have in it a mutual insurance company. Some prefer them, some prefer the other.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, one of the points in this argument that seems to me has not been brought out is this. We have in this country two lines of insurance companies, mutual and old lines. We have in this state laws governing both mutual and old line insurance companies. Now under the provisions of this act where you enter into an agreement with the insurance department to pay so much for so much insurance, that is old line insurance. Now if we make this amendment where they can add an additional assessment then it becomes part mutual and part old line, and there are no laws on the statute books of Pennsylvania that provide for an insurance company to be half mutual and half old line.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, two years ago when the question of compensation insurance was before this House I shared with the gentleman from Delaware a fixed and deep seated objection to the state's going into the insurance business.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the gentleman to say, the gentleman from Delaware objected to the passage of that act?

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, no sir. I simply know from conversation and otherwise that the gentleman from Delaware shared with a large number of the members of this House the thought that it was a dangerous precedent to have the state engage in a business that was usually performed solely by private corporations. I think, Mr. Speaker, that if we are to have a state insurance fund, it ought to be upon exactly the same basis as any other company doing insurance business. Now this prejudices against the state going into that business were overcome by the statement that all states practically maintaining compensation boards had state insurance funds, and for that reason it was believed that the state insurance fund though operated partly at the expense of the state and partly at the expense of the insured would keep down the premiums charged by the regular stock companies to a reasonable rate. Now we are going to make the state insurance fund a mutual insurance fund, and we at once place it at a disadvantage. I believe that the effect of it would be to put it out of business in a few years. Now I am not strong for the state's being in business, but if this is the better policy for our manufacturers, for our working men and for the public generally, that the state should subsidize an insurance board, why let us be honest about it, and do it right. If we think we ought to turn this business over solely to the stock companies, let us be honest about it and abolish it. Otherwise I do not believe from what I have heard of this subject, and from what I have read, that the state insurance fund can do business by reason of the limitation of the law without this help at least for the next two years, and to appropriate the $50,000 as is contemplated and the insertion of the mutual provisions of the act of Assembly, I believe would hamper that fund. Now I am not sure that I am in favor of this proposition, but let us meet the question fairly and say whether or not we are going to have a state insurance fund, or whether we are going to turn the business over solely to other companies. I am informed by private companies who carry their insurance in stock companies, and by some who carry their risks in the state fund, that the state fund is a good thing, and that it is worth something to all the people of the state to have it. Now if that be true we ought to continue it, if it is not true we ought to abolish it, but do not make it a mutual company when all the other companies in this business are stock companies.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to state to the House that I hope that no member of the House will be influenced because of the fact that the Speaker of the House came on the floor. I want you to treat my remarks as being purely my own judgment on the proposition.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a certification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The roll was verified as follows:

SENATE BILL FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented for concurrence bill numbered and entitled as follows:

Senate Bill No. 832 (House Bill No. 2090)

An Act to fix the salaries of the supervising inspectors of the second grade in the Department of Labor and Industry.

Referred to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. SWARTZ from the Committee on Banks and Banking, reported as amended, House Bill No. 2075 (Senate Bill No. 1229), entitled:

An Act enlarging the powers of Building and Loan Associations authorizing such associations to accept minors as shareholders with the same effect as if of full age to contract with borrowing shareholders for the application of their dues upon their indebtedness and thereupon to all either periodical reductions of interest and premiums or a share in the profits of the association and to permit shareholders to name beneficiaries to whom their shares shall be paid upon the death of the shareholder without administration upon the estate of the stockholder.

Mr. McCAIG, from the Committee on Municipal Corporations, reported as committed House Bill No. 1934 (Senate Bill No. 1082), entitled:

An Act providing a means of relief and assistance to the families of soldiers resident in the respective counties of the Commonwealth.

Mr. SIGGINS, from the Committee on Counties and Township, reported as committed House Bill No. 1893 (Senate Bill No. 1105), entitled:

An Act to repeal an act entitled "An Act providing for the return of taxes on seated lands in counties poor districts, boroughs, incorporated towns and townships for county poor borough, town or township taxes respectively and providing for the sale of such lands for taxes" approved the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

Mr. SHATTUCK, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed House Bill No. 2053 (Senate Bill No. 40), entitled:

An Act providing for the deepening, widening and improvement of French Creek in Crawford County, vesting certain powers in the Water Supply Commission, including the taking of land and materials by eminent domain and making an appropriation.

Mr. JONES, from the Committee on Municipal Corporations, reported as committed House Bill No. 1986 (Senate Bill No. 1062), entitled

An Act authorizing the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings to dedicate for sidewalk purposes certain portions of Capitol Park and Capitol Park extension in the City of Harrisburg, abutting on public streets and to construct and maintain sidewalks thereon.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS, from the Committee on Forestry, reported as committed House Bill No. 2073 (Senate Bill No. 1604), entitled

An Act permitting the Department of Forestry to lease for agricultural purposes small areas of land which from time to time it may acquire in the purchase of lands for State forests and which areas shall be determined to be more useful for the growing of agricultural crops than for forest trees.

Mr. DUNN, from the Committee on Labor and Industry, reported as committed House Bill No. 2092 (Senate Bill No. 832), entitled

An Act to fix the salaries of the supervising inspectors of the second grade in the Department of Labor and Industry.

Mr. GOLDER, from the Committee on Municipal Corporations, reported as committed House Bill No. 1929 (Senate Bill No. 1002), entitled

An Act to exempt certain playgrounds not used for private or corporate profit from taxation where the entire revenue is applied to support said playgrounds and to increase the efficiency and improvement thereof.

Mr. REYNOLDS, from the Committee on Judiciary Special, reported as committed House Bill No. 2064 (Senate Bill No. 1687), entitled

An Act regulating the fees of the recorder of deeds in counties containing a population of not less than one hundred ninety thousand nor more than seven hundred thousand inhabitants.

Mr. LAULER, from the Committee on Municipal Corporations, reported as committed House Bill No. 2021 (Senate Bill No. 1060), entitled

An Act amending sections one and two of article fifteen of an act entitled "An Act for the government of cities of the second class" approved the seventh day of March, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one as amended by the act of May eleventh, one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws two hundred thirty-eight).

Mr. DITHRICH, from the Committee on Public Roads, reported as amended House Bill No. 2013 (Senate Bill No. 1173), entitled

An Act relating to and regulating the operation of motor vehicles and vehicles propelled by or trailing after motor vehicles on the public highways and the storing of the same requiring the registration of the same and the licensing of all operators providing fees methods and qualifications for all registrations or licenses and the disposition of such fees prohibiting the tampering with motor vehicles by unauthorized persons, prohibiting the enactment of any law or ordinance by any city, borough, incorporated town, township or county requiring any taxes registration or license other than herein provided or the regulation of motor vehicles providing procedure and penalties for any violation thereof and the disposition of the fines collected for said violations and regulating the services of process and proceedings in actions for damages arising from the use of any motor vehicles.

Mr. SHUNK, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed House Bill No. 2071 (Senate Bill No. 631), entitled

An Act making an appropriation to aid in the erection of a monument at Erie, Pennsylvania, commemorating the building of the fleet at that place and the conspicuous manner in which it performed its errand at the Battle of Lake Erie, and for repairs to and improvements for the Flag Ship Niagara.

Mr. HECHT, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed House Bill No. 2091 (Senate Bill No. 518), entitled

An Act providing for the establishment of a Pennsylvania State Building in the City of Philadelphia; authorizing the purchase or lease of a site; providing for plans and specifications; and for test borings and surveys for such building; and making an appropriation.

Mr. BECHTOLD, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed House Bill No. 2083 (Senate Bill No. 822), entitled

A Supplement to an act approved the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, entitled "An Act to provide for the selection of a site and the erection of a State institution for the detention, care and treatment of inebriates or persons habitually addicted to the use of alcoholic drink or intoxicating drugs, to be called the State Institution for Inebriates, and making an appropriation therefor," making an appropriation and providing for the admission of patients to said institution, and providing for the payment of the costs and fees of hearings and of maintenance of patients by the respective counties.

Mr. RAMSEY, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed House Bill No. 2085 (Senate Bill No. 1602), entitled

An Act making an appropriation to the Commission for the compilation and publication of the laws of Pennsylvania prior to one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

BILLS ON FIRST READING.

Mr. SWARTZ asked and received unanimous consent to have the following bills read the first time: House Bill No. 2075 (Senate Bill No. 1229); House Bill No. 1934 (Senate Bill No. 1082); House Bill No. 1893 (Senate Bill No. 1105); House Bill No. 2053 (Senate Bill No. 40); House Bill No. 2013 (Senate Bill No. 1173); House Bill No. 1986 (Senate Bill No. 1062); House Bill No. 2073 (Senate Bill No. 1604); House Bill No. 2092 (Senate Bill No. 832); House Bill No. 1929 (Senate Bill No. 1002); House Bill No. 2064 (Senate Bill No. 1687); House Bill No. 2021 (Senate Bill No. 1060); House Bill No. 2071 (Senate Bill No. 631); House Bill No. 2091 (Senate Bill No. 518); House Bill No. 2083 (Senate Bill No. 822); House Bill No. 2085 (Senate Bill No. 1602).

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1063.

Mr. MEARKLE offered the following motion, which was twice read, as follows:

Moved by Mr. Geary, seconded by Mr. Mearkle, that the vote by which the Report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1063, entitled was defeated on June 13, be reconsidered.

An Act to amend section five of an act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "An Act to fix the salaries of the judges of the Supreme Court the judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas and the judges of the orphans' courts."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this is a bill which provides for the raising of the salaries of the judges in a large number of counties. It raises the salary from seven thousand dollars to eight thousand five hundred dollars. We have thought right along that seven thousand dollars was ample. Now, this bill has been before this House and has been considered by this House three times already; this is the fourth time, and it does seem to me that after the last time that it was before the House it ought not to be brought up again. It was thoroughly considered at that time; it was discussed for perhaps an hour and a half or two hours, and having been thoroughly considered, it seems to me, coming up the fourth time at this time is entirely uncalled for. We have a great many bills on this calendar that will be shoved out just because we are compelled to consider and reconsider bills which ought to have been settled absolutely once and for all. So that it seems to me in the first place, the bill is bad; in the second place it has been thoroughly considered, and in the third place it ought not to be taken up here now because the result of its consideration now will be to shove off a whole lot of bills that ought to be considered and that we ought to take up and pass and so I hope you will vote this motion down.

Mr. BLACK. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, using the language of the baseball fan, this is the fourth time this bill has been at the bat and it has been struck out twice. I do not believe that I have been commissioned by the people of Harrisburg to come here as an objector, and I do not think I have been one. I think I have been as liberal in my vote on salary raisers as any man in this House. Nor do I think I have been sent here to be a little woolly lamb and I don't intend to be one. I believe that this bill is absolutely unreasonable. As I stated last week, the judges are given two thousand dollars for trying State cases, which I also agreed is absolutely all right; but, as I stated before, in three years, when the next census is taken, their salary is automatically raised one thousand dollars. Still further than that, the County of Dauphin in the next census will pass into the jurisdiction of an orphans court—and I am willing to be corrected if wrong in making this statement—but I believe an orphans court will be established and at the same time the judge's salary is raised he will naturally be relieved of some work and I hope that the members will vote this measure down.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "ayes" appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for and one hundred and seven gentlemen having voted in the affirmative, more than a majority of the whole House, the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1063?

Mr. BLACK. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House, I just want to add that Judge Witmer of the Middle District of the Federal Court holds Court in four different cities and has jurisdiction through thirty-two counties. He receives a salary of six thousand dollars a year. The judges of the Dauphin County Court, at the present time, receive a salary of nine thousand dollars a year and under the new act would receive twelve thousand dollars a year. I again ask you to vote this measure down.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I regret very much that my colleague, Mr. Black, takes the position he does against this measure. I am satisfied that he does not know the condition of the courts in this county. It is true that the population of Dauphin County is about one hundred and thirty-five thousand. I speak from personal knowledge, as I happen to be practicing law in the courts of Dauphin County, and I know how overworked the judges of this county are. Not wholly because of the large amount of county work, exclusive of the large State business the Dauphin County Courts has, but because of the Legislature imposing upon the Court of the judges of Dauphin County additional work through sessions. In the session of 1915 the Legislature increased the work for the judges of Dauphin County very largely and this session the work has been increased for the judges of the county. The Attorney General's Department was re-organized in the Act of 1915 providing for a number of Deputy Attorney Generals and these Deputy Attorney Generals are paid from five to seven thousand dollars a year to prepare the cases brought before the Courts of Dauphin County. You pay the Court, the judges, of Dauphin County the sum of two thousand dollars a year for trying State cases. When this amendment was taken up and passed upon it was taken up with the likelihood of an increase in the next census, which was duly considered, because of the fact that they are likely to receive an additional one thousand dollars when the new census went into effect, with the two thousand dollars additional for trying State cases. Gentlemen this is a very small sum for our judges to receive for trying these large number of cases every year in the State of Pennsylvania and I trust you will vote in favor of this measure.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of the report of the Conference Committee be postponed for the present.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION.

Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 20, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives providing for the recall of House Bill No. 1424.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1424.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed final passage be reconsidered.

Mr. GEARY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. GEARY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments to this bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 3, page 3, line 3, by striking out "or" and inserting in lieu thereof "of."

Amend section 8, page 6, by striking out, beginning on line 7 and ending on line 20, the following:

"The Auditor General is authorized to employ an attorney of the county to sue for the recovery of the amount of such tax. The Auditor General is authorized to employ a resident attorney in all counties having a population of one hundred thousand and less than five hundred thousand and in counties having a population of five hundred thousand and more such additional resident attorneys as may be necessary to protect the Commonwealth's interests in all matters relating to enforcing the provisions of this act. Said resident attorney or attorneys shall be allowed such reasonable compensation as may be fixed by the Auditor General which shall be paid from the moneys realized from such taxes," so that the section as amended will read as follows:

Section 8. If the register shall discover that any tax imposed by this act has not been paid the orphans' court may cite the executors or administrators of the decedent whose estate is subject to the tax to file an account or to appear on a certain day and show cause why the tax should not be paid. When personal service cannot be had notice shall be given for four weeks once a week in at least one newspaper published in the county and in the legal periodical designated by the rules of court of the county for the publication of legal notices. If the tax shall be found to be due the delinquent shall pay the tax and costs. The Auditor General in the settlement of accounts of any register may allow his costs of advertising and other reasonable fees and expenses incurred in the collection of the tax.

Amend section 19, page 12, line 1, by inserting after "imposed" the words "and received."

Amend section 19, page 12, lines 1 and 2, by striking out "received."

Amend section 19, page 12, line 2, by inserting before "all" the word "upon."

Amend section 22, page 13, line 3, by striking out "effect" and inserting in lieu thereof "affect."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I am going to ask you to do me a little favor. I know that some of you, possibly, down in your hearts will want to object. I am going to ask you to listen until I tell you what it is and then, I am sure when I am through, that you will grant the favor I am asking. It is to call up a bill from page 62 of to-day's calendar, House Bill No. 594, A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section 8, article 9 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania. This amendment has already passed this House once and so that it can be brought before the people of Philadelphia to be voted upon in November, it will be necessary for it to pass again in this House. In other words, it will be necessary for it to be favorably passed upon at this session. If you do not pass it now it will be four years before the people of Philadelphia will have a chance to go to the polls to give them an opportunity to borrow the money necessary to make the vast public improvements that are now proposed to be made in Philadelphia. Those of you who have been in Philadelphia know of these vast improvements which I speak of, namely: Our parkways, subways, railroads and highways. It is necessary for us to have this amendment passed or we will be unable to borrow the money necessary to complete these improvements.

As a Philadelphian I am naturally proud of my city and I would like to see these improvements made. I am trying to do all in my power to add to the luster of my city. I am asking you gentlemen as a personal favor to me at this time to allow me to call this bill out of order.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 594, entitled

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section eight article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—1.

Chestnut,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REQUEST TO INTRODUCE BILL.

Mr. HIBSHMAN. Mr. Speaker, by unanimous consent of the House, I would like to present a joint resolution at this time.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the title of the joint resolution for information.

The Clerk read the title of the joint resolution as follows:

A Joint Resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to consider the advisability of the purchase or condemnation of the property belonging to the Seventh Day Baptists of Ephrata, known as the "Ephrata Cloister," and located in Ephrata Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, as a State park for historical, educational and patriotic purposes, and making an appropriation therefor.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection?

Mr. EDGAR R. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The joint resolution being in the nature of a bill, it has to take the same course as a bill. The Chair sustains the objection.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1085.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1085, File Folio 5185, entitled was defeated on final passage, June 12, 1917, be reconsidered.

An Act authorizing county controllers in counties containing a population of less than two hundred and sixty thousand to designate and appoint a solicitor prescribing the duties of said solicitor and fixing his term of office and salary to be paid by the county.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "ayes" appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, 68 gentlemen voting in the affirmative and 51 in the negative, the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. GEORGE J. A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

POINT OF INFORMATION.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Speaker, I merely rise to a point of information. Is it not a fact that every motion to reconsider the vote on a bill must be made within five days?

The SPEAKER. That is the understanding of the Chair.

Mr. SNYDER. Is it not a fact—

The SPEAKER. Five legislative days.

Mr. SNYDER. That it is more than ten days since this bill was defeated?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is informed by the Clerks that to-day is the last day. Five legislative days in which the House was in session.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that we voted on this bill week before last?

The SPEAKER. The number of days that have expired since the bill was defeated—the Chair is taking his information from the Clerks of the House and he is informed that the motion is in order.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 20, 1917.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 903.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend Section 3, page 2, line 4, by striking out the words "first after the salary of the prothonotary" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "as a part of the expenses of the office."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 2, page 2, line 3, by striking out the word "two" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "five."

Amend Section 2, page 2, line 3, by striking out "$2,000" and inserting in lieu thereof "$5,000."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

The SPEAKER. At the bottom of page 47 of to-day's calendar is a revenue bill, House Bill No. 1118. The Chair is of the mind that this is a revenue bill, which through error was not placed with the other revenue bills. If there is no objection, the Chair would desire to take this bill up at this time. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1118, entitled

An Act for the better protection of fish; requiring citizens of the United States residing within and without this Commonwealth to procure a license to fish or angle in the waters of this Commonwealth or in the waters bounding or adjacent thereto, and regulating the issuance of such license; providing penalties for the violation of this act, and the manner of proceeding to enforce compliance therewith; and providing for the disposition of the penalties recovered and license fees received.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill whether or not this is the bill that carries with it the license fee for fishing.

Mr. ALBEE. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the question of the gentleman from Berks, I would say that this is the bill that carries with it the license for fishing, one dollar for each male citizen of the State over sixteen years of age, but it does not apply to any females. It also carries a license of two dollars and fifty cents for non-residents of the State. The estimated revenue of this measure will be from three hundred and fifty thousand to four hundred thousand dollars. The average appropriation to the Department of Fisheries for the last two years has averaged about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. If this bill becomes a law, it will put the Fisheries Department on a self-sustaining basis the same as the Game Department. This bill is very much the same as the hunters' license bill which was passed two years ago and which to-day is one of our laws, and one that the people of Pennsylvania would hardly like to have taken from the statute books. This would not put a hardship that I know of on any one, as it requires but a dollar a year, for any one who wants to fish.

This will amply take care of all of the property of the Department of Fisheries, and it seems to me that this bill ought to pass. It is a little different in regard to the game and fish proposition in the State of Pennsylvania from what some of our other departments are. In comparison with the population of Pennsylvania, there are but a few people who enjoy the sport of hunting and fishing. That is one reason why I do not think that it is fair to tax the people at large in the State of Pennsylvania to support these two departments. They should be supported by the persons who enjoy the sport of hunting and fishing. I would ask the members of the House to give this fair consideration and pass it at this time.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this license fee might be all right for those who are engaged in fishing as a business. Under those conditions it would be permissible and would be a proper fee, and would be for some one who went fishing every day during the year. This is a fishing fee for any one who cares to fish. I am not a fisherman; I have not done any fishing since I was a boy and do not intend to. But for any one who has a day or two off each year who may want to go fishing, he would have to go the trouble of taking out a license. It seems to me that we have gone the limit on everything. We are getting laws to prevent you from doing this and that and the other thing, and we are also getting laws to permit you to do this, that and the other thing. Now we have a law which denies you the right to go fishing without a permit. What next? You have the hunters' license law, which I do not contend is right because we have it. There are many men who can spend a dollar a year. For the regular sportsman it is all right. Down where I live we have a great many people who can only afford to go fishing for a couple of days, and the same is true of gunning. Many men can only get off one day, and to get off that day they must lose a day's wages, and then must pay a dollar for a license if this bill is passed. Now all the fishermen cannot afford to spend this dollar. I know that the regular fishermen's clubs, those which have private funds and all of the paraphernalia that goes with it, they think that this is a good thing because it would give them more fish to catch perhaps, but I think that the fishing of our State should be for all of the people, and should not put a hardship upon those poor men who can only afford one or two days a year. They say that this will raise revenue. It seems strange to me that we have to tax directly to carry on the Department of State Fisheries. We have been raising salaries for this department and that department. We just reconsidered the bill to raise the salaries of the judges. We have raised the salaries of the different departments, and we have contributed and appropriated a great deal of money. Why not appropriate less for some of these things and we will have more for the Department of Fisheries, and allow those to fish without a permit who can only go once or twice a year. I think the bill ought to be voted down just on account of that clause. I know this bill doesn't mean much to many of you and it won't hurt me, but it will put a hardship on a great many people. I do not think this is democratic government, to be compelled to take out a license for only a day or two of enjoyment. We are gradually getting back to the old style of monarchy where our ancestors fought revolutions to get away from. This bill does not meet up with the requirements of the hunting license of to-day, it is something else. But everywhere you look you find you have to have a license for this, a license for that, and a license for the other thing. Gentlemen, I hope that you will vote this bill down.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I entirely endorse the sentiment of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Maurer. I personally cannot see any reason why at the present time the Department of Fisheries should demand a one dollar license fee for a permit to fish in the waters of the State of Pennsylvania. In the first place, the fishing facilities of the State of Pennsylvania are very much restricted. In the city that I come from there are a great number of persons who will have an opportunity to go fishing only once or twice a year and if this bill becomes a law those persons, the men who work in the factories and in the shops and in the stores, will be compelled not only to go to the expense of paying one dollar for the right to fish, with the probability of not catching any fish, but they will also be put to a great deal of trouble in taking out a license as required by the provisions of this bill.

If the Department of Fisheries desires to become active, we have given them a great opportunity at McCalls Ferry Dam. Three years have gone by since a bill was passed compelling the department to install a fishway so that the fish could come up the Susquehanna River, and up to the present time the Department of Fisheries has been entirely negligent as to this. They do not tell us what they will do with this money. They do not have any particular uses for this money and why should we pass a law compelling the poor people who desire to fish to pay a one dollar license fee. I say there is no necessity for the passage of legislation of this kind and I sincerely trust it will be defeated.

Mr. BIDEISPACHER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I hardly endorse the excellent reasons given by the gentleman from York for opposition to this bill, but in the first place I am opposed to this bill because it discriminates against a citizen of the United States and in favor of a foreigner. The title of this act is, "An act for the better protection of fish, requiring the citizens of the United States residing within and without this Commonwealth to procure a license to fish. I take it that if we pass this bill we will require a citizen of the United States and a citizen of Pennsylvania to take out a license to fish in the waters of this Commonwealth, but we do not touch the foreigner.

In the second place, I am opposed to this bill because in my home County of Lycoming there is a deep-rooted and wide-spread opposition to the Fishermen's License Bill. I have on my desk a petition which came here within the last twenty-four hours, addressed to the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as follows: "We, the undersigned sportsmen and citizens of the West Branch Valley of the Susquehanna River humbly protest against a fishing license or any charge for fishing in the State waters as proposed by a certain bill or bills now before your honorable bodies." Mr. Speaker, this petition is signed by over four thousand, signed by men representing all professions of life from a railroad president down to the humble waiter in the restaurant. So, for the two reasons that I have stated, in addition to others that I might have, I am opposed to this bill.

MOTION TO STRIKE BILL FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. STRAUSS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. BARNER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALBEE. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call on the motion.

Mr. BALDRIDGE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I hope this motion to strike this bill from the calendar will not prevail. The statement made by the gentleman across the hall that this bill discriminates against the American citizen in favor of the foreigner is not true. I challenge his statement. If you will read this bill it says that no man or no person can fish without a license; and there is also a law that the foreigner cannot get a license; he must be a citizen to get a license; therefore, it discriminates in favor of the American citizen as against the foreigner, just the reverse of what the gentleman across the hall stated to the House.

This bill, in addition to being a revenue raiser is also a conservation measure. It is estimated, according to the last two years investigation by the department, that if this bill becomes a law it will save this State in two years over three hundred thousand dollars. You heard the same kind of opposition to the Hunters' License Bill before it became a law and everybody, every hunter and true sportsman of this State is now glad that is a law because it gives them a chance to propagate the game and properly protect it. I do not believe there is any true fisherman in this State that is opposed to this law.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I hope that this motion will not prevail at this time for the reason that we have a measure before us that I consider is one of the best revenue raisers in the State of Pennsylvania. We have been appropriating from two hundred and sixty-five thousand dollars to three hundred thousand dollars to the Fish Department, and if this bill goes through it makes the Fish Department self-supporting, the same as the Game Department, and it should be. The time has gone by when we should go to the streams for our food supply because we have cleaned them out already and to-day our object is to try to put back into the streams what was there at one time so that the people can go to them and make a catch. And why should they not pay this little amount of one dollar license as an aid to trying to purify the streams and restock them. As the gentleman just said, there was just the same opposition to the Hunters' License Bill eight or ten years ago as is noticed to-day. There is not a man that would vote to do away with this Hunter's License Bill. It makes the Game Department self-supporting.

Now, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, we want to ask you in all fairness to-day to support this measure as a revenue raiser and as one of the measures which will help to stock the streams of Pennsylvania and put them back where they were at one time.

Mr. HELT. Mr. Speaker, in answer to our friend from Allegheny, he says that we would not want to rescind the Hunter's License Law. I want to say that before that act became a law did not the Game Commissioner promise the hunter that if that became a law that the money collected therefor would go to propagate game. I know that no money has been paid back, from my readings in the newspaper, or where the Fish Commissioner has made one statement where he will, in any shape, put this money that will be gathered from the fisherman's license to propagate fish. As in this last year you know that there has been no effort made to stop stream pollution. I have been riding up along the Susquehanna River for eight years and I have seen there on either bank nothing but a purple mass of stuff instead of water. Does he give us any assurance if we pass this bill that he will make any effort to stop that stream pollution? Therefore, I hope you will uphold this motion to strike this measure from the calendar.

Mr. ALBEE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say in reply to the gentleman who just spoke, that he should know if he looks into the Department of Fisheries that the department has several fish hatcheries in the State and they are increasing the capacity of propagation of fish as fast as the funds they have will allow. If this measure is enacted into a law it will not be long before we will have larger fish hatcheries and more fish. I see no reason why, as the gentleman from York stated, it is a hardship on anyone to secure a fish license, when they can go to the nearest justice of the peace without any particular trouble and secure this license and if they are going out on a fishing trip they will have some assurance that there is a chance of catching fish to bring home and it is a certainty that we cannot find fish in the streams of this State unless they are propagated by the Fish Department.

Mr. BALDRIDGE. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Northumberland, Mr. Helt, I wish to say as to this bill, with regard to the question of propagation and how the money shall be spent that is derived from this license, it is for fish propagation and that the fish may be protected. We don't have to rely upon the promise of the Fish Commissioner as in the Game Commission Law, as in this bill it is specifically provided in Section 20, page 8, that the money collected by this license fee shall go to the propagation and protection of fish. That is provided in the bill and that is what it is for.

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, right across from where I live, in the State of New Jersey, we have a fisherman's license for which a non-resident pays $2.15 a year. I hold a fisherman's license in the State of New Jersey, and if there were any man who would offer me ten dollars for that license, I would not sell it if I could not replace it. I know the time in the State of New Jersey when conditions there, as to fishing, were just the same as they are here to-day. Their streams were absolutely fishless. In the City of Hackettstown, right down there is the Musconetcong Creek, right through the heart of the city; ten years ago you could not catch a fish in that creek from its source to its mouth; now you can catch them within the city limits of Hackettstown and fill your basket with trout and perch and other game fish and food fish which have been introduced into that stream. Not only in that stream in the State of New Jersey but in every other stream in that State there was just as much pollution of the streams in that State before the fisherman's license was established as there is to-day in the State of Pennsylvania. That has been reduced to a minimum with the money collected from the fisherman's license fee. We have heard about enough of the poor man who wants to go fishing and when he does he cannot catch anything. There is no use in advancing any arguments against this bill. Any man who uses any arguments against it knows nothing about it; he is not even acquainted with the conditions. Who has ever tried to raise chickens without investing one cent of money? No one. You cannot raise fish anymore without making an effort and investment and spending money than you can chickens. When you come to talk about friends who like to go fishing, I want to say I have some friends who like to go bass fishing and who like to go to a baseball game or to a circus, but I would hesitate to appropriate a large amount of money so that my friends could go to a baseball game or to a circus. But it is much better for a man if he has to pay if he gets good fishing, as he can then go home with a mess of fish, than to go there and do nothing else but get soused up. The average man who goes fishing in Pennsylvania spends some money uselessly on carfare. Take for instance the poor man; if the poor man wants to go fishing, and he hears of a place which is miles away, where there is supposed to be good fishing, and he spends a dollar for carfare and takes his family there, the chances are that he comes back without any fish. If he had good fishing at his door he could turn that dollar over and stay at home and have good fishing right in front of his house. If a bill was introduced in the State Legislature of New Jersey to repeal the Fisherman's License Law it would never pass. The people would rise up in arms against it. The people in the State of New Jersey, since that law has gone into effect, have fish. It is all right enough, my friends, when we have some fish, but if you shake an apple tree until you shake the last apple off then you are done and it is so if you have exterminated the fish or game that is used for food in the State of Pennsylvania, which you have done, until to-day it is a pretty hard matter for a fellow to get a good mess of fish except by illegal means.

Now gentlemen look at this matter from the standpoint of a conservation measure. That is to conserve the fish in the State of Pennsylvania. The idea in this bill is not to put a tax on the poor man who wants to go fishing, the idea is to take this money and put it into fish, so that when he goes fishing he gets more than he paid for his license back in the value of the fish that he catches. I hope gentlemen that this motion will be voted down, and that this bill will be given a fair show. The man who made the motion, my colleague Mr. Strauss, from Berks, told me not long ago that when he wanted to go fishing he would go down somewhere in the State of New Jersey where his father-in-law owned a dam covering something like 30 acres of water and he had exclusive right to fish, and that is where he does his fishing. He is willing to spend ten dollars in car fare to get there. The poor fellow is just as well off if he spends one dollar and has to go fishing at home as Mr. Strauss is when he goes down to New Jersey to some private pond to fish. The various anglers associations in the different parts of the State have spent a pile of money all over their preserves in propagating fish, and that is the reason that they have fish. If the State would apply that system to every stream in the State, every stream in the State would be stocked with fish, and we would have some, but as it is that is not being done and consequently there are no fish. I hope this bill will be given a fair show.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman who just spoke criticised my position on this fish proposition because I said I was no fisherman. I do not think the gentleman would agree with the thought that it was necessary for Darwin in working out the evolution of man to have lived to the various species of animals that he described when he explained the evolution of man. I am different of course from the gentleman who has just spoken. I am not a fisherman, and he spends about two hundred days a year fishing, I am told. He speaks about the scarcity of fish. Of course if we had that much time to go fishing, there would not be many fish left. The dollar provided for in this bill has not as much to do with the scarcity of fish as has the pollution of streams. I live along a stream which at one time was considered one of the most beautiful streams in the State. It is called the Schuylkill River. When I was a boy, you could fish along that stream for one end to the other. The Schuylkill River supplies the drinking water for Philadelphia, and I am going to tell you Philadelphians that that stream is so polluted that not even a worm will now live in it, and you drink it. You have my sympathy. The stream has been polluted by throwing sewage into it and coal dust. When they began washing coal in the coal regions, why the stream became simply a stream of ink and all along that river the sewage is dumped into it—my own city is no exception. Our disposal plant occasionally does not work, and then they just let the sewage run right full force into the Schuylkill. It is unlawful. The State authorities have been after it repeatedly, but I contend this that before we talk conservation of our fish we should endeavor to purify our streams first. There will be fish if the streams have good water for the fish to live in. On the question of purifying the streams or stopping the pollution of them I would be willing to go the limit on any proposition that would aim to purify the streams of our State. I have been all over this State, I believe more than any other man in the House. I have covered this State from one end to the other, been through every county time and time again, traveled it for the last twenty years. I have traveled it completely and I have seen many streams where the natives told me how they were stocked with fish once upon a time, and now not a tadpole will live in them. We allow gas works to throw their refuse directly into the streams, which kills the fish, kills all animal matter, all animal life. Coal dirt and tanneries empty their off-fall into them. Sewage is dumped into them, and yet we do not hear much complaint about it. So I think that we are starting at the wrong end when we go to tax the people to fish in the streams that there are no fish in. Let us first of all see that we have fish. This dollar tax is not going to purify the streams. I am still opposed to the bill. There has not been anything said here that would make me change my mind. It has been repeatedly said that we want to attempt to repeal the gunners' license. That there would not be a vote against it. You would have plenty of votes against it. I have been requested by my constituents to introduce a bill for the repeal of the gunner's license. Two years ago I introduced such a bill and I was in this House when the bill was passed. The law was enacted and I voted against it although I am not a gunner, but I do know what my constituents want and I am trying to represent them and not my own individual ideas or wishes or fancies.

Mr. EDGAR R. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Albee, Bennett, Black, James O. Campbell, Theodore Campbell, David F. Davis, Drinkhouse, Goodnough, Graham, Haight, Hess, McCurdy, McNichol, Milliron, Palmer, Ramsey, Reichenbacher, Rogers, Siggins, Ulsh, Walker, West, Wobensmith, Zanders.

The SPEAKER. More than twenty members having joined in moving the previous question,

On the question,

Shall the main question be put?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Potter, Mr. Albee, insist upon the roll call to strike the bill from the calendar?

Mr. ALBEE. If the gentleman will withdraw his request I will withdraw mine for the roll call.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Albee, withdraws his request for a roll call.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I insist on a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Albee and Mr. Baldrige and were as follows:

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. ALBEE. Mr. Speaker, I move the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. GOODWIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

The SPEAKER. On page 23 of to-day's calendar is House Bill No. 1827, revenue measure, to which the Chair's attention has been directed. Under the rules of the House, this bill should now come up for consideration.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1827, as follows

An Act prohibiting the excavating dredging and carrying away of certain material from the bed of any navigable stream without obtaining a license therefor and imposing a tax thereon and providing the remedy for the collection thereof

Whereas For many years past certain persons have been dredging and carrying away from the bed of the navigable streams of the Commonwealth sand gravel and certain other materials without permission from the Commonwealth and without paying any consideration or compensation therefor

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the term "person" herein shall mean in the singular or plural any individual partnership association joint stock company or corporation and it shall be unlawful for any such person to engage in the business of excavating dredging and carrying away any material except as hereinafter provided from the bed of any navigable stream in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania without first notifying the Auditor General thereof upon such blank or form as the Auditor General shall prepare therefor giving therein such information as the Auditor General may require and receiving from the Auditor General a license so to do which it shall be his duty to issue upon complying with the above requirements and any person so engaging shall annually at such time in the year as required by the Auditor General make report to him upon blanks prepared by said Auditor General stating the quantity and value of said materials together with such other information as the Auditor General may require and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Auditor General and State Treasurer to settle and state an account against such person assessing a tax for State purposes of two per cent. upon the gross value or sales by said person of said material which tax shall be paid and collected as other taxes due the Commonwealth and from which settlement an appeal may be taken as in other cases of settlement of taxes for State purposes as now provided by law which appeal however shall be to the court of common pleas of the county in which the chief place of business of said person is located or at the option of said person in the county where the greatest quantity of said material has been excavated and taken away Provided that this act shall not apply to the excavating dredging and carrying away of any material which has or may have into the bed of such navigable stream by being washed or removed from any mine or mining operation and coal shall be considered such material

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would like the sponsor of this bill to explain the real purpose of it.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, this bill is very short, sweet and concise. It is printed in the English language and explains itself. It is very short and any person could read it in a minute and know all the provisions in it.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I do not think the gentleman understands the import of my question. I asked him to explain the real purpose of it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. WOODWARD, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as amended House Bill No. 2076 (Senate Bill No. 1065), entitled

An Act to provide for the extension of the public works of the Commonwealth during periods of extraordinary unemployment, caused by temporary industrial depression, and regulating employment therein; providing a fund for the purpose aforesaid, to be known as the Emergency Public Works Fund; constituting the Governor, the Auditor General, the State Treasurer and the Commissioner of Labor and Industry as the Emergency Public Works Commission, as trustees and custodians of the said fund and defining the power and duties of the said Commission; appropriating the sum of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars to the said Commission to constitute a part of the said fund; imposing upon the Industrial Board of the Department of Labor and Industry the duties of ascertaining the existence of periods of extraordinary unemployment within this Commonwealth and of notifying the same to the Commission aforesaid; providing for the distribution and administration of the said fund by the said Commission to promote the extension of public works and the relief of such unemployment; and repealing all acts inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Mr. WOODWARD, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as amended House Bill No. 2084 (Senate Bill No. 998), entitled

An Act making an appropriation to the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to be used by said Commission in the payment of the cost of the elimination of existing crossings at grade of the tracks of steam railroad and other public service companies over State highways including compensation for the taking of or damages to adjacent property and in the payment of the cost of the constructions of crossings either above or below the grade of such State highways, including compensation for the taking of or damages to adjacent property and regulating the expenditure of the amount hereby appropriated by the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. DAWSON, from the Committee on Railroads, reported as committed House Bill No. 2060 (Senate Bill No. 1680), entitled

An Act to authorize the construction of branches by railroad companies.

Mr. DAWSON, from the Committee on Public Roads, reported as committed House Bill No. 2011 (Senate Bill No. 1141), entitled

An Act to amend section twelve of Article five of an act known as The Public Service Company Law approved the twenty-sixth day of July Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand three hundred and seventy-four) so as to authorize the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to establish, lay out and open public highways in boroughs or townships in order to provide access to crossings which may be established re-located or constructed in accordance with the orders of said commission and to authorize said commission to abandon and vacate public highways which may become unnecessary and to assess and apportion the cost and damages connected therewith.

BILLS ON FIRST READING.

Mr. WOODWARD asked and obtained unanimous consent to have House Bill No. 2076 (Senate Bill No. 1065) and House Bill No. 2084 (Senate Bill No. 998), read for the first time.

Mr. DAWSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to have House Bill No. 2060 (Senate Bill No. 1680), and House Bill No. 2011 (Senate Bill No. 1141), read for the first time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2076 (Senate Bill No. 1065), entitled

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2033 (Senate Bill No. 1599), entitled

An Act making an appropriation to the Home of the Good Shepherd Fairmount Avenue and Twenty-fifth street Philadelphia Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend the title by striking out in line 2 the words "Twenty-fifth" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Thirty-fifth."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2035 (Senate Bill No. 517), entitled

An Act entitled an act authorizing and regulating the construction of a bridge over the Susquehanna River between Millersburg and Crow's Landing and making an appropriation therefor.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2028 (Senate Bill No. 1142), entitled

An Act reorganizing the Department of the Secretary of the Commonwealth designating the officers and employees thereof and fixing their salaries.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, if I am not mistaken this bill is out of place among the appropriation bills. I object to its being considered at this time.

POINT OF ORDER.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman rise to a point of order?

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order, that it is out of place on the calendar of appropriation bills and I object to its being considered at this time.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The bill will not be taken up at this time.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1745, entitled

An Act making an appropriation for the administration of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund and the payment of salaries compensation and expenses of the officers and employees of the State Workmen's Insurance Board and for incidental expenses.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 1, line 11, by striking out "compensation" and inserting in lieu thereof "compensation."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to making the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be made in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendment consisting of a strike-out, we will proceed with the further consideration of the bill.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1995 (Senate Bill No. 1026), entitled

An Act authorizing any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth to become a member of a Federal Reserve Bank, and in such event to be subject to all the provisions of the Act of Congress known as the "Federal Reserve Act;" allowing any such bank or trust company to comply with the reserve requirements of such act in lieu of those established by the laws of this Commonwealth; and permitting the Commissioner of Banking to accept the examinations and audits made pursuant to such act in lieu of those required by the laws of this Commonwealth.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I would suggest that this bill is out of place on the calendar of appropriation bills.

POINT OF ORDER.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Tioga rise to a point of order?

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I do. I object to the consideration of this bill at this time, it not being an appropriation bill.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House, I will ask you to turn to page 38 of to-day's calendar and direct you to House Bill No. 375, File Folio 9187. I am about to ask for something that is a little out of the ordinary from that which we have followed in this House in the last few days, and I trust that you will not make up your minds finally in the matter until I present it fully to you. This bill provides for a minimum salary of school teachers. It was introduced on February 12th, passed the House later, practically unanimously, was referred to the Senate and there passed second reading. During my sickness and absence from the House, it was recalled from the Senate for the purpose of amendment. The amendments, as you will notice on the last part of the bill, in section two it was provided to repeal certain sections. In 1906 or late in 1907, or just previous to 1907, the salaries of public school teachers in this State was thirty-five dollars a month, regardless of what kind of certificates they held. In 1907 the teachers were divided into two classes: Those holding professional and normal school certificates who were to receive forty dollars a month, and those holding any certificate of higher grade, fifty dollars a month. Those sections which it was asked to repeal provided that the difference paid in 1906 and 1907 was to be paid out of the State appropriation. Certain members of the House objected to that repeal, from the fact that it would affect some of the poor districts of the State. We have submitted to the amendment and this bill provides that from the year 1917 the grade of certificates shall be divided into three classes and those teachers holding professional certificates are to receive forty-five dollars a month and those holding normal school certificates and professional certificates were to receive fifty-five dollars, and those teachers holding a certificate of a higher grade sixty dollars. Now, my purpose in calling this matter to your attention at this time is this: In the first place, had it not been through the misfortune that befell me that I was compelled to be absent from this hall for three weeks, this bill would have been passed and in the hands of the Governor at the present time. I realize the fact that this session is drawing near to a close and unless some action is taken upon this bill soon it will fall from the calendar which I believe no member of this House desires to see done, and for this reason I am calling it up at this time and move that this bill be now considered. I realize, gentlemen, that it is out of the ordinary line of procedure, but I believe that this is an exceptional bill. We are asking to-day that school teachers who have educated you and me shall teach for two hundred and eighty dollars a year. Out of that amount they must spend for board at least twenty dollars a month; cutting their salary of two hundred and eighty dollars a year in two, leaving them one hundred and forty dollars with which they are compelled to clothe themselves and pay for their comforts that a teacher ought to enjoy. If you take the price of clothing as it is to-day you will agree with me when I say that no public school teacher whom you expect to train the minds of your children ought to clothe themselves on less than seventy dollars, and that cuts it in two again, leaving seventy dollars, and if they are progressive, live, and wide-awake teachers they will attend some training school during the summer months, and they cannot do that for less than fifty dollars for the summer, leaving them the magnificent sum of twenty dollars for their own use to spend as they see fit. You know this, gentlemen of the House, that a teacher in a community where they teach is expected not only to be a teacher of that school but they must be a factor in social affairs, in religious affairs, in everything that works to the betterment of that community. I venture to say that no teacher or person can come up to what they are expected to do in that community for that which is left of the salary, twenty dollars a month. Gentlemen, I ask you frankly and candidly to consider this request at this time.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Milliron, asks unanimous consent to call up at this time House Bill No. 375, File Folio 9187. Are there any objection?

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask a question for information: If this bill was recalled from the Senate, is it not a final passage bill?

The SPEAKER. As I understand the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Milliron, it was recalled from the Governor. Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, it had to pass this House finally. (The Clerk explained the history of the bill.)

The SPEAKER. It is in its proper position and the Chair hears no objection. Will the gentleman from Armstrong give way for a moment to the gentleman from Bedford, Mr. Edgar R. Smith, who desires to present a motion at this time?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

MOTION TO LIMIT DEBATE.

Mr. EDGAR R. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I move that all debate be limited to five minutes on all bills before the House.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion. On the question, Will the House agree to the motion? The motion was not agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 375, as follows:
